FRANCESCO AREZZO

President, Rotary International - RY 2025-2026

MAY 2026

Shoki Wafula did not know what to expect when he was forced to leave his birth country of Uganda for South Africa. What he found was a Rotary community that welcomed him with warmth and friendship. That experience inspired him to help create a Rotaract e-club where young leaders from around the world could connect, develop their skills, and serve together.

Today, that community includes members across multiple continents who collaborate on leadership development, peacebuilding, and service initiatives. For Wafula, the experience reinforced the lesson that meaningful service begins with people who feel connected, valued, and empowered to lead.

His story reminds us why Youth Service Month is so important. Through Rotaract and programs like Rotary Youth Exchange, young people build leadership skills, develop global understanding, and discover the impact they can make through service.

Rotary's Action Plan calls on us to enhance participant engagement. At its heart, that goal asks a simple question: How can we ensure that participation in Rotary is meaningful and fulfilling for everyone? Youth programs and Rotaract provide a powerful answer.

When clubs mentor Rotaractors, host exchange students, or support youth leadership initiatives, they create opportunities for members to share their experience in ways that feel personal and rewarding. These connections deepen members' sense of purpose and strengthen the bonds within our Rotary family.

They also create lasting pathways into Rotary. Thousands of young people complete Rotary programs each year, and they carry those experiences with them throughout their lives. Many remain eager to stay connected.

Organizations such as Rotex International, an association of former Youth Exchange students, help Rotary program alumni continue serving as mentors, leaders, and advocates for our youth programs. As Rotex co-founder Hans Lee wrote in a recent reflection on Youth Exchange alumni, "exchange doesn't end when you return home."

When we welcome these young leaders into our clubs and activities, we strengthen the continuity of Rotary across generations.

During Youth Service Month, I hope every Rotary club reflects on how youth programs can enhance engagement for new and longtime members. Collaborate on service projects and invite youth voices into your planning and decision making.

Rotary's message to the world is that we can Unite for Good. Youth programs show us how that happens in practice – when generations come together, share ideas, and work side by side in service.

When we invest in young people, we are not only shaping future leaders. We are building a stronger, more connected Rotary today

PRESIDENT'S PAGE

CHRISTINE JOY ALIÑO
 Club President

Good day, fellow Rotarians, partners in service, and our dear youth leaders.

Today, we gather with one powerful purpose: to recognize, empower, and serve the youth — the future leaders, innovators, professionals, and changemakers of our community.

In Rotary, we believe that service is not only about giving help today. It is also about building hope for tomorrow. And one of the strongest ways we can create lasting change is by investing in our young people.

The youth are not merely the leaders of the future — they are already leaders of today. Their energy, creativity, courage, and compassion remind us that service begins with a willing heart and a clear purpose.

As the Rotary Club of Buhangin Davao, we carry the responsibility to guide, inspire, and open opportunities for them. Through youth service, we are able to develop character, leadership, discipline, confidence, and a spirit of volunteerism among the next generation.

Our role is not only to teach them how to succeed, but to teach them how to serve. Not only how to dream for themselves, but how to contribute to their families, schools, communities, and country.

May every project we create for the youth become a seed of hope. May every program we implement become a bridge to opportunity. And may every young person we support become a future servant-leader who will continue the cycle of service.

To our youth, always remember: your voice matters, your dreams matter, and your service matters. Do not wait to become older before making a difference. You can start now — with kindness, discipline, responsibility, and love for others.

To my fellow Rotarians, let us continue to be mentors, encouragers, and examples of true service. Let us not only tell the youth what leadership means; let us show them through our actions.

Together, let us strengthen youth service, because when we serve the youth, we serve the future.
