ORIENTATION OF NEW ROTARIAN MEMBERS
AUGUST 12, 2022 I'S PLANT HOTEL & RESTAURANT

August 12, 2022 | New Members' Orientation Session is intended to the new members who were recently introduced into the Rotary Club of Calbayog. Learning the expectations and benefits of Rotary membership in the early process will help new members to be more acquainted with the Club in particular and in Rotary in general.

The session was conducted by no less than the two Past Assistant Governors of area 3A namely: PAG Isagani Togonon and PAG Roni Obong. Among of the topics were General Overview of Rotary International, Responsibilities of Membership in the Club and The Rotary Foundation. The latter however will be tackled during the next session.

The other purpose the session is to enable the new members to become more acquainted with each other and the other members of the Club. Thereafter, it was proceeded by fellowship where the members of the Club shared their experiences and the reasons why they continuously stay with the Rotary.

The main objective of the New Membership Orientation Session is for the new members to become more aware of their duties and responsibilities. Moreover, the discussion will help them to be more acquainted with each other along with the other members of the Club. It's an initial step to build a strong ties among the Club members and the newly inducted ones. With this, we are fervently hoping that the new members will become a lifetime Rotarians.
