INVOCATION

Our heavenly Father, help us to remember that all your children are near and dear to you. Wherever they may be, may we pray for those who need and our desire our prayers. And we pray also for ourselves, but first putting ourselves, body, mind, and spirit, in the healing presence of your Son, Jesus. Hear now our silent prayers, O God, Amen

ENVIRONMENT

Happy New Year 2023 to all my RCCF Family!!! I hope that everyone enjoyed the holidays and the New Year. Let me share with you a trivia about us in Korea.

Korea has two New Year celebrations. They are the Solar New Year and Lunar New Year. Here below is a description of these holidays.

Solar New Year

On January 1st, there is the celebration of the Solar New Year, 신정 (Sinjeong). That is the celebration covered in this article.

During the Solar New Year, people often spent time with their friends. In Central Seoul on New Year's Eve, many people gather to hear the ringing of the bell in 종로 (Jongno) on the stroke of midnight.

Lunar New Year

The second New Year celebration celebrated in Korea is known as Lunar New Year or 구정 (Gujeong). This is held in late January or early February. Koreans celebrate it by having a large holiday known as 설날 (Seollal).

During seollal, people usually visit their hometown, eat 떡국 (Tteokguk) with their families, and visit their ancestors' graves.

Everywhere in the world, people generally celebrate the start of a new year in the same way. We consider the events of the previous year, both positive and negative. We try to keep doing the good ones and even improve them further. When things go wrong, we take the lessons to heart and work to make the next time better.

We are grateful that Christmas 2022 was a success for everyone, especially for Cebu City, as opposed to 2021 when Typhoon Odette devastated the region.

Personally, I hope and pray that this year, 2023, will bring us wonderful and excellent things.

Building connection through comfort and care

Rotary recently surveyed our members and found something that should be unsurprising but still caused many of us in Rotary leadership to sit up and pay attention: The single most important factor in member satisfaction is the club experience. How at home you feel in your club, how rewarding club meetings are, and how engaged you feel in service projects.

I have seen this firsthand across the Rotary world this year. When members feel an emotional connection to their club, they cannot imagine leaving. And that connection is often forged in “Rotary moments,” when people feel that special connection to the people around them and the impact of their service. Our Imagine Impact Tour is all about shining a light on those Rotary moments and encouraging our members to tell their stories.

But there’s something else that makes an enormous difference in building and sustaining that connection. It’s the comfort and care of our members — both Rotarians and Rotaractors. As my Rotary friend Todd Jenkins says, “People can’t see how you think, but they sure can see your actions.”

We are in the relationship business, and if we take care of each other — genuinely show concern for each other — then we will make friends for life, and we will do anything to widen that circle of friendship.

The question is: How do we live with our eyes wide open and do the things that really matter? We do this by taking time for each other, actively listening to one another, and treating every Rotary member as equally valuable — no matter how long we have been a member or what position we hold.

People like me in Rotary leadership can offer all kinds of advice about how to make your club experience more valuable. But what’s most important is for everyone in every Rotary club to speak up and listen to one another. We should never be afraid to share with our fellow Rotary member what we expect to get out of our membership and have an open discussion about how to make that happen.

To lead a Rotary club is to invite such dialogue and to be willing to try new approaches. Good leadership is giving it away. Propping others up. Allowing others to feel the victory.

I have one last request for club leaders. We still need to do more worldwide to increase our female membership. It’s up a bit this year, but I know we can and must do better. Rotary is growing again. As I write this, we’re just a handful of members away from surpassing 1.2 million Rotarians again. So let’s redouble our efforts to bolster our clubs with great new members, then keep them for life by providing comfort and care.

TRUSTEE CHAIR'S MESSAGE

New beginnings, new opportunities to serve

A new year is upon us. As we look forward to new beginnings and experiences, let's think outside the box and find new opportunities to serve through Rotary.

Consider taking up a community economic development project this year. In this Rotary area of focus, we apply our professional experience by promoting the entrepreneurial spirit as we help communities help themselves in a sustainable way. Community economic development projects, to paraphrase the universal adage, don't just give someone a fish today but teach them to fish so they can eat for a lifetime.

These projects can be microloans to start up a livestock breeding business, or they might take the adopt-a-village approach in which Rotary works with communities on multipronged efforts to boost local economies sustainably.

In 2000, during its transition to independence, Timor-Leste was reeling from political violence and destruction. Communities not only needed shelter and improved living conditions but also a new economy.

This is where Australian Rotary clubs stepped up with the East Timor Roofing project to produce and install corrugated roofing, and later, water tanks and grain silos. As the project grew, other organizations joined, including The Rotary Foundation, which delivered a grant that set the project on its path to success.

Before long, East Timor Roofing became a financially viable enterprise, raising enough money to build roofs for homes, schools, orphanages, and commercial buildings. Subsistence farmers got silos for their crops. Hundreds of Timorese received professional training in basic building and administrative skills. Thousands of new water tanks ensured that young girls could attend school rather than fetching water.

What began as a roofing project is today a commercial enterprise employing local people and making a huge impact. And your Foundation paved the way.

What experiences lie ahead for you in 2023? A district or global grant? Or possibly a visit to Melbourne, Australia, just up the road from my home, to make new friends, reunite with old ones, and find partners for projects during the 2023 Rotary International Convention?

Let's make a New Year's resolution to take advantage of opportunities to learn, grow, and serve. And let's have some fun in the process. This is Rotary, after all.

So, my friends, let us go forth and carpe annum — seize the year.

SERVICE ABOVE SELF

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say, or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

The following code of conduct has been adopted for the use of Rotarians:

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to: mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities, report any suspected harassment, and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

January events

GO TAKE A HIKE

Event: New Year's Day Hike
Host: Rotary Club of Oconomowoc, Wisconsin
What it benefits: Local projects
Date: 1 January
 Start 2023 on a happy and healthy foot with what the club hopes will be an annual New Year's Day event: a 2-mile hike around Fowler Lake, one of more than 20 picturesque lakes in northwestern Waukesha County. Hikers are advised to dress for winter weather. Suggested donations will help fund the installation of a splash pad at a local park.

IT'S BRRRRRISK!

Event: Polar Plunge
Host: Rotary Club of the Bridgewaters, Massachusetts
What it benefits: Local and international projects and charities
Date: 1 January
 This club tradition invites brave souls to ring in the new year by leaping from Onset Beach into the frigid Atlantic Ocean. Through sponsorships, participants raise funds that go toward the club's community-based projects and other causes; last year's event garnered $12,000. Onlookers are welcome at the beach, while those who prefer the comforts of home can watch a livestream on the club's Facebook page.

FEELIN' HOT, HOT, HOT

Event: Crazy Pepper Chili Cook-off
Host: Rotary Club of Highlands County, Florida
What it benefits: Local projects and charities
Date: 21 January
 For more than a decade, hundreds of people have gathered in downtown

LET IT SNOW

Event: Snowmobile FUNd Run
Host: Rotary Club of Upper Kittitas County, Washington
What it benefits: Local youth-related projects
Date: 28 January
 Begun in 2012, this snowmobile run is held each January — as long as there is enough snow on the ground. (Cross your fingers!) Participants meet at a recreational resort to navigate snowmobile trails on the edge of the Okanogan-Wenatchee National Forest in the Cascade Mountains. In addition to the thrill of winter adventure, the event provides thousands of dollars in raffle prizes.

Sebring for this annual chili cook-off. Teams whip up recipes in the hopes of satisfying the crowd and winning the judges' first-place prize of $500. The event also features a chili-dog eating contest, a car show, live music, and additional food and refreshments.

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED

Event: Mission 10 Race
Host: Rotary Club of Hollister, California
What it benefits: Local and international projects
Date: 28 January
 This race leads runners through the scenic farmland and hills outside San Juan Bautista, a small California Mission town about 50 miles south of San Jose. Competitors can choose from a half-marathon, a 10-mile race, a 5K race, and a 1-mile fun run. Medals are awarded in several age categories. Teams dressed in themed costumes are encouraged, with trophies presented to the most creative efforts.

IF YOU'RE IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD ...

Event: Charity Car Show
Host: Rotary Club of Inglewood, New Zealand
What it benefits: Local charities and upgrades to the club's meeting house
Date: 28 January
 Automobile aficionados will delight in the collection of custom and classic cars on display at this 27th annual show, held at Inglewood High School. Attendees can fuel up at food and drink stalls, and children under age 15 are admitted for free. The event's major sponsor is Custom Street Rides, a local automotive restoration shop.

Tell us about your event. Write to magazine@rotary.org and put "calendar" in the subject line. Submissions must be received at least five months before the event to be considered for inclusion.

Kick-start your club's social media presence

Rotary's social and digital media specialist offers some tips

Social media makes expanding your club's reach easier than ever, but how? There are tips, tricks, and tools for creating content for social platforms, and the goal is simple: connection. A well-built social media presence will help you create connections in your community and beyond, from building awareness of your club's presence to showcasing its success. To help boost your social media savvy, we've put together the following eight tips and tools. — HANNAH SHAW

Be consistent. Whether you post daily, weekly, or monthly, set a goal to share on social media regularly. Consistent posting helps cultivate followers.

Take photos that tell a story. Opt for images that show action rather than just offering group shots. Show people getting their hands dirty, giving out supplies, or sharing a moment of laughter.

Pick your platform. With so many social media platforms available, getting started can be intimidating. Choose one platform to focus on and grow from there. We recommend starting with Facebook, which has the largest user base.

Assign roles. The first step in creating content is capturing it. Assign a designated photographer to take pictures at club events and service projects. Additionally, pick a point person to manage your club's social media posts.

Capture Rotary members in action.

Lead with impact and encourage engagement.
When planning an event, project, or fundraiser, think about how you'll use social media to showcase it. Tell a story by identifying the problem, your solution, and its impact. Or consider what one thing you want someone to know after viewing your post.

Use your photos to tell a story.

Celebrate partnership and participation.
Tag participants and community partners in your posts. Avoid Rotary jargon. Not everybody who reads your posts will be familiar with acronyms like PETS (presidents-elect training seminar) or RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Awards). Remember that those engaging with your posts include prospective members!

Show your club members having fun together.

Find inspiration.
Examine the content you engage with on social media. What captures your attention and holds your interest? How can you apply that to content you create? Check out Rotary International's profiles and posts for more inspiration (Instagram, Facebook, Twitter).

Use the Brand Center.
The Brand Center is your one-stop shop for logos, creative assets, guidelines, and more. Be sure to visit often as new materials are added for your use.

President, RCCF RY 2017-2018

HYBRID MEETINGS

RCCF continues to conduct hybrid meetings to meet the needs of those who prefer F2F and those who can do it online.

The important thing is that we as a club meets to discuss forthcoming events, projects, and fellowship.

Rotarians have the chance to develop lifelong friendships with people outside of their club, district, or nation through fellowship. Fellowships foster global peace and understanding. Fellowships also work as a draw to join Rotary and a retention tool for current members.
