Dear fellow Rotarians,

Maayong hapon sa tanan!

Let me start by saying thank you to all who have participated in last week's visit of our sister club RC Yotsukaido. We did raise Php72k in one evening after a successful auction lead by Shige San. Thank you for your presence as well as your donations to our RC Cebu project fund. Most of all, salamat PP Ricky for being a great host that evening. We have received a cash donation from RC Yotsukaido 200k yen (around 90k plus pesos). Arigatōgozaimashita, till your next visit!

On another note, the District is asking for sponsors for the Souvenir program for the upcoming DisCon 2020 Coffee Table Book. As vibered on our official chatroom, 30% of the sponsorship money will return to our club. We hope our fellow Rotarians will support this.

Come February 11, Tuesday, the RC Chilliwack-Fraser and the RCC will be in Balungag ES (San Fernando) for the handover of the school's WASH facility. Then we will distribute 300 hygiene kits at a nearby school. But for now, those interested to join the meaningful event, please sign up to our viber group.

Lastly, kindly block off your calendar May 24, 2020 for our Run-for -Gift of Life year4. Be ready to gather all your runners and join this yearly event.

Cheers!

INVOCATION

As Rotarians, we are generally blessed with lives of relative luxury, and opportunities unknown to many. Help us to review our check books, and, indeed, the registers of our lives with honesty as we consider our priorities, and our opportunity to help others. Open our hearts, and our accounts, to those in need, while still providing us with appropriate fruits of our own labors. Help us to share not only our tangible wealth, but also our intangible riches of knowledge, leadership, and creativity to make our city, our nation, and our world, a better place filled with the peace and love that you can bring through us.

NASUDNONG AWIT

Yutang tabunon, mutya nga masilakon.
Putling bahandi, amo kang gimahal.
Mithing gisimba, yuta's mga bayani; Sa manlulupig, pagdapigan ka. Ang mga buntod mo ug lapyahan, sa langit mong bughaw. Nagahulad sa awit, lamdag sa kaliwat tang gawas. Silaw sa adlaw ug bituon sa nasudnong bandila. Nagatima-an nga buhion ta ang atong pagka-usa. Yutang maanyag, duyan ka sa pagmahal, landong sa langit ang dughan mo. Pakatam-ison namo nga nagatukaw kung mamatay man sa ngalan mo!

PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

Mark Daniel Maloney
President 2019-20

February 2020

Happy 115th birthday, fellow Rotarians and members of the family of Rotary!

Much has changed in the world since 1905. Then, the global population was roughly 1.7 billion. Today, it is 7.7 billion. There were 5 telephones per 100 people in the United States 115 years ago. In 2020, it is estimated that 96 percent of the U.S. population has a cellphone — and both China and India have more than a billion cellphones in use.

In the 115 years since Rotary was founded, seemingly everything has changed except Rotary values. We began, and remain, committed to fellowship, integrity, diversity, service, and leadership. While our Service Above Self motto dates to 1911, the ethos behind those words had already been ingrained by Rotary's founders.

As the pace of change worldwide continues to accelerate, the need for Rotary service is greater than ever. It's one thing to read about service projects, quite another to see them in action and to see the grateful faces of people who have benefited from them. Rotary projects change lives and connect the world. And over the past year, I have seen some amazing Rotary projects in action.

Gay and I visited Japan's Fukushima prefecture last year. Few places in the world have had to deal with the kind of devastation that visited Fukushima in March 2011, when a tsunami touched off by an earthquake led to disaster at a nuclear power plant. But the story of Fukushima today is not one of destruction; it is one of hope and renewal. Rotary grants have helped improve access to medical and mental health care for victims of the disaster and reduced the isolation of these communities by sharing the experiences of people from other parts of the world who have also recovered from disasters. Our grants have also helped to foster self-motivation and*continue next page* encourage sustainable long-term community recovery across the region.

In Shanghai, I learned about the Careers in Care program. This helps migrant workers fill the need for skilled professionals in elder care facilities. After taking a course, trainees receive certification to boost their employment prospects, while the care industry benefits from an expanded talent pool. Rotary projects like this are successful because they address a local need, and they have the potential to attract local government funding to sustain their impact.

And in Guatemala, Gay and I went to Sumpango. Global grants there provide mechanical cows to produce soy milk; an improved water distribution system; water filters; clean compost latrines; family gardens; support for income generation; and training in WASH and literacy programs. The food items sold there not only provide nutrition to women and children, but also create a source of income for local women.

In every area of focus, and in every part of the world, Rotary projects are improving lives and helping communities adapt in a time of rapid change. As we celebrate another great year for Rotary, let us rededicate ourselves to strengthening the connections that make our service so impactful. We will make lives better as Rotary Connects the World.

WHAT HAPPENED LAST WEEK...

By: Walter Cang

Our guest speaker 2 weeks ago was Ms. Pamela Baricuatro. Pamela happens to a Senior Flight Purser with Cathay Pacific but more interestingly, she's the Founder and Executive Director of Simply Share Foundation, Inc. (SSFI). Having organized and ran the foundation for She has been running this foundation for the last four and a half years, we thought it would be a good way to learn from her experience. As most of you know, our club is closely looking to launch a Food Bank program to help address hunger and reduce food wastage. Through the efforts of Rtn. David Barnes, he had already spoken to the management of a few restaurants who had expressed interest in knowing how food they often throw away can be diverted to the many hungry mouths in our city. We are also planning to tap Corporate donors like Nestle Philippines who donated hundreds of boxes of milk that we sent to schools and communities 2 years ago.

Simple as it may sound a food bank is actually a complex activity. Since cooked food may sometimes need refrigeration to prevent spoilage, we have to look closely into the timing of acceptance and distribution. Often it may require cold storage facilities to preserve the food. There is also the matter of liability. As much as restaurants and groceries may be willing to take part, no sooner would they back out if they are not free from the dangers of litigation should anyone get sick.

Pamela shared that her efforts are often done in partnership with private institutions for supplies and child welfare organizations like Abtanan sa Kaluoy to help with the distribution. Her sources usually provide freeze dried meals that have longer shelf life with less storage restrictions. She admitted having no experience with fresh produce or restaurant leftovers but identified government official whom she believes will strongly support our program. The Q&A that followed showed considerable interest from within RCC and leads me to believe we're on the right path. In the coming weeks, more discussions will be undertaken to start our own program.

Last week, we also received members from the Rotary club of Yotsukaido. Upon their arrival, Dir. Shige and some of our members were at the airport to welcome there. It was good to see many old faces from their club and they certainly thought simple gathering with hosted by our club.

WHAT DOES THE ROTARY FOUNDATION DO WITH ITS MONEY?

The Rotary Foundation spends charitable contributions on multiple programs and grants. From the eradication of POLIO to scholarships, vocational training teams, Rotary Peace Centers, Humanitarian projects. The funds are used for programs and projects Rotarian feel passionate about. If you want detailed financial information, you should check on-line at www.rotary.org and you can see how much was spent on each program as well as operating costs. I can tell you that our Foundation is ranked as one of the best. With 1.2 million Rotarians over-seeing the funds at a grassroots level I have all the confidence in the world that are funds through Rotary are in amazing hands doing amazing work here and abroad.

“End Polio Fundraising and Awareness”

Sinulog 2020

The scorching heat of the sun never bothered the millions of people (both locals and foreign tourists) who attended the Sinulog last January 19, Sunday.

Sinulog Festival is a traditional celebration in Cebu City held every third Sunday of January to honor the Santo Niño (Child Jesus). This is also symbolizes the faith and acceptance of Christianity.

The word “Sinulog” means “graceful dance”, wherein it all started in 1980 with a simple dance that represents the “sulog” (or current) of a river in Cebu.

Aside from dancing, Sinulog has also various cultural activities such as beauty pageants, photo contests, film-making competition and singing contests.

Among those people who celebrated the said festival were the determined young professionals of Rotaract Club of Cebu.

Instead of watching in awe as performers in their different costumes paraded in the street and prominent celebrities boarded in a giant float, RAC Cebu was driven to have an End Polio Fundraising & Awareness Campaign.

"Saan Aabot Ang 20 Pesos Mo?" is a Fundraising project organized by the Rotaract Club of Cebu to help the Rotary International, WHO, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation in eradicating Polio virus worldwide, next to smallpox.

By just donating 20 pesos, donor will get a free hugs/hair spray/face paint color (3-colors) depending on their choices.

Although everyone got tired of raising the placards and having a hard time on calling the attention of every people who passed by, it was still fulfilling knowing that everything will go directly to our chosen foundation.

FELLOWSHIP SONG

Vulnerable

Everywhere I look, I see her smile
Her absent-minded eyes
And she has kept me wonderin' for so long
How this thing could go wrong

It seems to me that we are both the same
Playin' the same game
But as darkness falls this true love falls
apart
Into a riddle of her heart

She's so vulnerable like China in my hands
She's so vulnerable and I don't understand
I could never hurt the one I love, she's all
I've got
But she's so vulnerable, oh, so vulnerable

Days like these no one should be alone
No heart should hide away
Her touch is gently conquering my mind
There's nothin' words can say

She's colored all the secrets of my soul
I've whispered all my dreams
But just as night time falls this vision falls
apart
Into a riddle of her heart, yeah

She's so vulnerable like China in my hands
(She's so vulnerable)
She's so vulnerable and I don't understand
(Oh, so vulnerable)

I could never hurt someone I love, she's all
I've got
But she's so vulnerable, oh, so vulnerable,
yeah

Don't hide your eyes
She's so vulnerable like China in my hands
(She's so vulnerable)
She's so vulnerable and I don't understand
(Oh, so vulnerable)

I could never hurt the one I love, she's all
I've got

But she's so vulnerable like China in my hands
(She's so vulnerable)

She's so vulnerable and I don't understand
(Oh, so vulnerable)

I could never hurt some one I love, she's all
I've got

She's so vulnerable, oh, so vulnerable,
yeah

She's so vulnerable
(My baby, she's so vulnerable)
She's so vulnerable, oh yeah
Oh, so vulnerable

She's so vulnerable
She's so vulnerable
Oh, so vulnerable

SENSE OF HUMOUR

(A joke a day keeps the doctor away)

When someone asks what I did over the weekend, I squint and ask,

"Why, what did you hear?"

I don't mean to interrupt people. I just randomly remember things and get really excited.

Don't bother walking a mile in my shoes.
That would be boring.
Spend 30 seconds in my head.
That'll freak you right out.

That moment when you walk into a spider web suddenly turns you into a karate master.

Sometimes, someone unexpected comes into your life outta nowhere, makes your heart race and changes you forever.

We call those people 'cops.

Rotary

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- ① The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- ② High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- ③ The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- ④ The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

1. IS IT THE TRUTH?
2. IS IT FAIR TO ALL CONCERNED?
3. WILL IT BUILD GOOD WILL
AND BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. WILL IT BE BENEFICIAL TO
ALL CONCERNED?
