SERVICE ABOVE SELF

THE 4-WAY TEST

OF THE THINGS we think, say, or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all?

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service
- SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

The following code of conduct has been adopted for the use of Rotarians:

AS A ROTARIAN, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to: Mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities, report any suspected harassment, and help ensure non-retaliation to those individual that report harassment.

ROTARY HYMN

I want to be a Rotarian for the world,
Make the Rotary flag be a flag of peace unfurled;
I will serve my community,
Help to seek international unity.
Through Rotary, I will dedicate my all,
World understanding shall be my cherished goal.

Refrain: With the Four Way Test

I will pursue my quest
And if I, in a way help obtain
Peace in the world
Then I won't have lived in vain.

I'll observe service above self,
Lend a hand to all who need my help;
I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
And in Rotary ways I will train my family.

Refrain: With the Four Way

Test
We'll pursue our quest
And if we, in a way help obtain
Peace in the world
Then we won't have lived in vain.

Build a bridge for tomorrow's youth,
Strengthened by nothing but the truth;
Let's join our hands, there's no reason to divide.
We shall all understand, while the good Lord is our guide.

Refrain: With the Four Way Test

We'll pursue our quest
And if we, in a way help obtain
Peace in the world
Then we won't have lived in vain.

Peace be achieved,
So we won't have lived in vain.

5 QUESTIONS ABOUT

Meeting online with George Robertson-Burnett

Rotary coordinator and member of the Rotary Club of Bartow, Florida

From The Rotarian, June 2020

1 What made you decide to help clubs adapt to the COVID-19 pandemic?

A large club in my district announced that it would not be meeting anymore: "No Rotary until further notice." Those five words kept running through my mind. I had to do something.

So I wrote a guide [bit.ly/2WNedoZ] to help clubs navigate online platforms like Zoom so they can meet virtually.

As Rotary coordinator for Zone 34, which includes Georgia, Florida, and parts of the Caribbean region, I'm very membership oriented. My initial thought was that clubs should keep meeting online to retain members, but now I've realized there's also a possibility for growth there. So many people are stuck at home right now, and there are no sports for them to watch. Virtual meetings offer an opportunity to get some new people into Rotary. It's also a good time to increase a club's exposure on social media, because people have more time to look. That may turn into new interest in your club, in addition to being a way of connecting with members.

2 What is the most common question clubs ask?

Many people want ideas for projects. I suggest reaching out to local organizations that are heavily affected, like food banks or homes that care for the elderly. Tell them that Rotary still cares about those in need and ask how you can help.

Sometimes the assistance that we give has to be to our own members who are in the at-risk group. Reach out to older club members and reinforce our fellowship. I also suggest a social evening, a glass of wine and video chat, over Zoom. My club tried this out very successfully.

3 What successes have you seen?

Since the guide came out, I've been videoconferencing with clubs around the world that have never been online before. Now everyone is laughing and sharing. At a traditional meeting, you often only talk to the people at your own table. On video, everyone can talk to each other. I also got a piece of really good news this morning. That club that said "No Rotary until further notice" got in touch and asked for assistance to get online meetings started. Many districts have a communications officer or public image committee who can be great resources. Also, let's motivate those who are tech-savvy to assist their fellow Rotarians. It's a victory for Rotary in so many ways if we convince people to meet online.

4 What if meeting online is not an option?

In Florida, we have many communities made up of older people. One of the clubs here said, "There is absolutely no way we can go online. It's just not a possibility. No one in the club is tech-savvy." The fail-safe is to maintain a written newsletter and send personal cards and letters to members. It's important to show that Rotary continues in its mission even in adversity.

5 How do you think Rotary will be different after this?

Rotary is an organization of professional people. There is a grave concern with regard to small businesses. It's going to heavily affect employment. We need to be mindful and do anything we can to help each other.

I came to the United States from the UK in 2004. I knew no one here, and within two weeks of arrival, I had 72 friends because I joined a Rotary club. That fellowship is our fundamental strength. Of course, it's being challenged for safety's sake, but we must respond in a positive manner and get through this, hopefully with stronger bonds of fellowship.

FUNNY JOKES & Stories

TO MY DEAR WIFE,

During the past year I have tried to make love to you 365 times. I have succeeded 36 times, which is an average of once every ten days. The following is a list of why I did not succeed more often:

- 54 times the sheets were clean
- 17 times it was too late
- 49 times you were too tired
- 20 times it was too hot
- 15 times you pretended to be asleep
- 22 times you had a headache
- 17 times you were afraid of waking the baby
- 16 times you said you were too sore
- 12 times it was the wrong time of the month
- 19 times you had to get up early
- 9 times you said weren't in the mood
- 7 times you were sunburned
- 6 times you were watching the late show
- 5 times you didn't want to muss your new hair-do
- 3 times you said the neighbors would hear us
- 9 times you said your mother would hear us

Of the 36 times I did succeed, the activity was not satisfactory because 6 times you just layed there, 8 times you reminded me there's a crack in the ceiling, 4 times you told me to hurry up and get it over with, 7 times I had to wake you and tell you I finished, and one time I was afraid I had hurt you because I felt you moved.

TO MY DEAR HUSBAND,

I think you have things a little confused. Here are the reasons you didn't get more than you did:

- 5 times you came home drunk and tried to fuck the cat
- 36 times you did not come home at all
- 21 times you didn't cum
- 33 times you came too soon
- 19 times you went soft before you got in
- 38 times you worked too late
- 10 times you got cramps in your toes
- 29 times you had to get up early to play golf
- 2 times you were in a fight and someone kicked you in the balls
- 4 times you got it stuck in your zipper
- 3 times you had a cold and your nose was running
- 2 times you had a splinter in your finger
- 20 times you lost the notion after thinking about it all day
- 6 times you came in your pajamas while reading a dirty book
- 98 times you were too busy watching football, baseball, etc. on TV

Of the times we did get together the reason I laid still was because you missed and were fucking the sheets. I wasn't talking about the crack in the ceiling, what I said was, "Would you prefer me on my back or kneeling?" The time you felt me move was because you farted and I was trying to breathe.

happy birthday +

ROTARY PIN

"I wear the pin because I am proud to be a Rotarian. Anywhere I go, people will see the pin and know who I am. Other Rotarians will see it and know I am a friend, and people who are not Rotarians will see it as well. I want to be sure that all of them understand the meaning."
