History of Rotary

Today, Rotary is well known throughout the world for its dedication to service and international goodwill. Changing the world through service, however, was hardly uppermost in the mind of Paul Harris when he founded the organization in 1905. Harris, a lawyer in Chicago, Illinois, USA, had been raised in a rural village in Vermont. He envisioned a new kind of club for professionals that would kindle the fellowship and friendly spirit he had known in his youth.

On the evening of 23 February 1905, Paul Harris invited three friends to a meeting. Silvester Schiele, a coal dealer, Hiram Shorey, a merchant tailor, and Gustavus Loehr, a mining engineer, gathered with Harris in Loehr's business office in Room 711 of the Unity Building in downtown Chicago. They discussed Harris' idea that business leaders and professionals would have regular acquaintances. The club met weekly; membership was limited to one representative from each business and profession. Though the men didn't use the term Rotary that night; that gathering was commonly regarded as the first Rotary Club meeting.

As they continued to convene, members began rotating their meetings among their places of business, hence the name Rotary. After enlisting a fifth member, printer Harry Ruggles with the group, then it was formally organized as the Rotary Club of Chicago. The original club emblem, a wagon wheel design, was the precursor of the familiar cogwheel emblem now used by Rotarians worldwide.

By the end of 1905, the club's roster showed a membership of 30 with Schiele as President and Ruggles as Treasurer. Paul Harris declined office in the new club and didn't become its President until two years later. Club membership grew, making it difficult to gather in offices, so the members shifted their meetings to hotels and restaurants, where many Rotary club meetings are held today.

These early "Rotarians" realized that fellowship and mutual self-interest were not enough to keep a club of busy professionals meeting each week. Reaching out to improve the lives of the less fortunate proved to be an even more powerful motivation. The Rotary commitment to service began in 1907, when the Rotary Club of Chicago donated horse to a preacher. A few weeks later, the club constructed Chicago's first public lavatory. With these inaugural projects, Rotary became the world's first club organization.

Rotary's popularity began to spread throughout the USA. The second Rotary Club was chartered in 1908 in San Francisco, California, with a third club formed in Oakland, California. Others soon followed in Seattle, Washington; Los Angeles, California; and New York, New York. When the National Association of Rotary Clubs held its first convention in 1910, Harris was elected President.

At the following year's convention, speakers used the phrases "Service, Not Self" and "He Profits Most Who Service Best," which became the organization's mottos. "Service, Not Self," was later changed to "Service Above Self," and has since been adopted a Rotary's primary motto.

The Birth of the Rotary Club of Dadiangas

In 1974, the Rotary Club of General Santos City was confronted with a problem on how its members could make up their absences. Since there was no other club within General Santos City and the nearest Rotary Clubs were in Marbel, South Cotabato and in Digos, Davao del Sur. The members of the RC Gensan found it difficult to make up especially when the roads going to other places were rough and rugged; dusty when dried and muddy when wet. There were no paved roads yet. That, the Board of Directors together with its Club President Jess Veneracion decided to organize a new Rotary Club in the city – the Rotary Club of Dadiangas.

For this noble purpose, RC Gensan loaned two of its senior members to form as the core for the new club – Rtn Frank Zuzon and Rtn Joe Lansang. They accepted the challenge with pride and honor. The whole month of January 1975 was devoted to recruit new members and comprehensive rotary information were given to all prospective Rotarians. After several fellowship meetings conducted, RC Dadiangas was formally organized with twenty three (23) charter members. Rtn Frank Zuzon was elected Charter President with Vic Tajanlangit as Club Secretary. PDG Johnny Asencio and PP Joe Lansang were elected as members of the Board of Directors.

On May 7, 1975, RC Dadiangas was officially admitted as regular member of Rotary International and was conferred the provisional status as duly organized club. The Rotary Club of Dadiangas was finally chartered on September 08, 1975.

ROTARY CLUB OF DADIANGAS . . .

OUR MISSION

To carry-out significant and meaningful service projects in water, health/hunger, disease prevention, economic development, literacy among other areas, while members enjoy each other's fellowship.

OUR VISION

To be recognized as the premier organization most admired for its members' fellowship and service accomplishment.

OUR CORE VALUES

- Service. The club believes that its service activities and programs bring about greater world understanding and peace. Service is a major element of its mission. Through its plans and actions, it creates a culture of service throughout its organization that provides unparalleled satisfaction for those who serve.
- Fellowship. The club believes that fellowship is an important aspect of being a Rotarian and each member as individuals can best enjoy this relationship at dinner meetings and by participation in club activities. It is only through fellowship and a committed involvement in Rotary that we as RC Dadiangas' Rotarians can maintain and accomplish the "Four-Way Test".
- Integrity. The club is committed to and expects accountability from its leaders and fellow members, both in the results of its efforts and in the processes it uses to accomplish its goal. The club adheres to high ethical and professional standards in its work and personal relationships. It is fair and respectful in its interactions, and it conscientiously steward the resources entrusted to it.
- Leadership. The club is a fellowship of individuals who are leaders in their field of endeavor. It believes in the importance of leadership development and in leadership as a quality of its members. As Rotarians, we are leaders in implementing our core values.

DECLARATION OF ROTARY CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will

- Exemplify the core value of integrity in all behaviors and activities.
- Use my vocational experience and talents to serve in Rotary.
- Conduct all of my personal, business, and professional affairs ethically, encouraging and fostering high ethical standards as an example to others.
- Be fair in all dealings with others and treat them with the respect due to them as fellow human beings.
- Promote recognition and respect for all occupations which are useful to society.
- Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and improve the quality of life in my community.
- Honor the trust that Rotary and fellow Rotarians provide and not do anything that will bring disfavor or reflect adversely on Rotary or fellow Rotarians.
- Not seek from a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

EDITORIAL

The new year begins as an empty slate with nothing but a sense of incalculable possibilities and hope. As Henry Ward Beecher wrote in 1882, “Every man should be born again on the first of January.”

But the year will soon be filled with activities, promises and commitments, pleasures and disappointments, work, play, friends and many others. Like in Rotary, its current year will soon be winding up its reports by March, thus paving enough transition period for the new club leadership to chart its goals and prepare the club to take off for the ensuing year. We predict it will be a busy one.

Some of us these days seem to eschew New Year’s resolutions, having found them either impossible to keep or a trivial idea in the first place. Aren’t we always trying to do better?

But for us Rotarians there is something about the new year that can be inspirational. It is the quintessential time to make necessary and beneficial changes as we continue to connect the world. A new calendar can be just as powerful a motivating force as we think of the many unfortunate people begging alms when the traffic stops and worst the many families with barely just or no food to provide in the table.

Some make lists. Author Neil Gaiman’s simple new year’s suggestion is: “Whatever it is you’re scared of doing, do it.”

It can also be a good time to break with harmful patterns of the past; to release grudges and forgive; to say “Enough of that” and move on.

We hope it is a good year for socio-civic organization like Rotary where The Rotary Foundation has been acclaimed as the most trusted foundation in the whole world; every dollar received from the generous donors were properly accounted to get to the right beneficiaries. Making a donation to the foundation would start the year on the right foot.

A new beginning is valuable. The RC Dadiangas' Editorial Board headed by our very able President Jing Montecillo wishes the best for you and your loved one in 2020.

Message from the RI PRESIDENT

Mark Daniel Maloney
President 2019-20

January 2020

People from all over the world have multiple reasons for joining Rotary. Many new Rotarians each year join for the same reason I did — because Rotary is a great way to benefit your career. When I was a new attorney starting out in Alabama, Gay and I became partners in her father's firm. He instilled in us the value of joining Rotary as a way to build relationships and demonstrate to potential clients that we were serious professionals who held firm to values even more robust than what our profession required.

Rotary's commitment to vocational service is built on the highest ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful work, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society. That last point is so important. No matter our profession, we all contribute mightily to the world when we conduct our work with integrity and always adhere to The Four-Way Test.

I have made balancing the demands of Rotary with professional and family commitments one of my priorities as president. No Rotarian should feel pressured to put in more time than a volunteer position should ever demand. This is true for several reasons, one of them being that the work we do in our day jobs is just as important to Rotary as the work we do in the organization. We carry our Rotary values everywhere, and our professional success helps build a case for Rotary every day we go into the office.

This is particularly important in our efforts to reach younger new members. We want to see a Rotary where no one is ever asked to choose between being a good Rotarian and being a good parent, business owner, manager, or employee. When we ask busy young people to join us, we should not be asking them to give up their time and freedom. We should be rewarding them with an experience that makes everything they already do even more inspiring.

Providing greater balance within Rotary will have another benefit as well: It will create opportunities for other Rotarians, including Rotaractors, to step up and take a leadership role on projects and committees. This will ensure that they remain engaged in our clubs and inspired to be Rotarians for life.

Throughout the world, Rotary is admired for its vocational service and for the time-honored values we instill in all business relationships. As we continue our work to grow Rotary, let us remember that vocational service remains a crucial selling point to potential members.

Rotary Connects the World, and by making Rotary's vocational service work known to people in more professions and at different stages of their careers, we will help grow our organization and make it stronger and more diverse.

A MINUTE TO REMEMBER

PRES. JON JAMES P. MONTECILLO

The start of a new year also marks a start of a new beginning. To my champion team RC Dadiangas, my warmest greetings to each and every one of you. May we have a happy and prosperous new year ahead. May the almighty father grant your personal wishes and strengths to do well and serve others through Rotary.

Last December 7, 2019, our annual election of officers together with our Christmas Celebration was held at the humble abode of Prexy Elmer Catulpos and Secretary and President Elect Yelcy Catulpos. It was well attended by fellow Rotarians which led to a very fun and successful event. A new line up of officers are already set for the year 2020-2021, headed of course by the lady of the house Secretary Yelcy Catulpos, besides conduction our club's annual elections, we have also encouraged Past President Rey Albano, one if the bona fide members of thr Rotary Club of Dadiangas, to be the future District Governor of District 3860. Let us cross our fingers and look forward hoping that he will accept the challenge.

On the 4th of January 2020, we held the Area Coordinating Meeting (ACOM) at Durian Garden, Polomolok hosted by Prexy Sario Alloros of Rotary Club of Central Polomolok. Past Governor Bing Garcia, Assistant Governor of Champion Team, Rodrigo Salangasang Jr. and the presidents of different clubs were also present in the said meeting. Among the important topics discussed during the meeting are the following: PETS-SETS for the year 2020-2021 on February 8 at Davao City and February 22 at Visayas (to be announce), DISCON on MARCH 5-7 at the Cebu Grand Convention Center and DISTAS at Bohol. We were alsoable to tackle the proposed Rotary week which might be held next month and the club file or prospect for district governor to be submitted on the last day of January 2020 at 5 PM. These future events show how we have a lot in stored for this year. Champion Team, let us continue to shoe our support for our club and organizations' future activities and our advocacy "Service Above Self" intact. May we have a fruitful year ahead.

Rotary Grace

Each January offers a new slate and we must write upon it.

Let us write truth.

Let us write fairness.

Let us write friendship.

Let us write solidarity.

Let us write peace.

Let us write joy.

Let us write thankfulness for what we accomplish together.

Let us be thankful for our Rotary friends

and the changes our service can bring.

Let us rise to the challenges given

Let us aim to give more to the cause

Let us continue to make the world better

Even if no one gives us applause.

AMEN.

THE ROTARY HYMN

I want to be a Rotarian for the world,
Make the Rotary flag as the flag of peace unfurled;
I shall serve my community,
Help achieve universal unity.
Through Rotary, I shall dedicate my all,
World understanding shall be my cherished goal.

Refrain 1:

With the Four Way Test, I'll pursue my quest
And if I, in a way help obtain. Peace in the world,
I shall not have lived in vain.

I'll observe service above self,
Lend a hand to all who need my help;
I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
And in Rotary ways, I will train my family.

Refrain 2

With the Four Way Test, We'll pursue our quest
And if I, in a way help obtain. Peace in the world,
We shall not have lived in vain.

Build a bridge for tomorrow's youth,
Strengthened by nothing but the truth.
Let's join our hands, there's no reason we'll divide.
We shall all understand why the good Lord is our guide.
(Repeat Refrain 2)

CODA:

Peace be achieved, We shall not have lived in vain!
