History of Rotary

Today, Rotary is well known throughout the world for its dedication to service and international goodwill. Changing the world through service, however, was hardly uppermost in the mind of Paul Harris when he founded the organization in 1905. Harris, a lawyer in Chicago, Illinois, USA, had been raised in a rural village in Vermont. He envisioned a new kind of club for professionals that would kindle the fellowship and friendly spirit he had known in his youth.

On the evening of 23 February 1905, Paul Harris invited three friends to a meeting. Silvester Schiele, a coal dealer, Hiram Shorey, a merchant tailor, and Gustavus Loehr, a mining engineer, gathered with Harris in Loehr's business office in Room 711 of the Unity Building in downtown Chicago. They discussed Harris' idea that business leaders and professionals would have regular acquaintances. The club met weekly; membership was limited to one representative from each business and profession. Though the men didn't use the term Rotary that night; that gathering was commonly regarded as the first Rotary Club meeting.

As they continued to convene, members began rotating their meetings among their places of business, hence the name Rotary. After enlisting a fifth member, printer Harry Ruggles with the group, then it was formally organized as the Rotary Club of Chicago. The original club emblem, a wagon wheel design, was the precursor of the familiar cogwheel emblem now used by Rotarians worldwide.

By the end of 1905, the club's roster showed a membership of 30 with Schiele as President and Ruggles as Treasurer. Paul Harris declined office in the new club and didn't become its President until two years later. Club membership grew, making it difficult to gather in offices, so the members shifted their meetings to hotels and restaurants, where many Rotary club meetings are held today.

These early "Rotarians" realized that fellowship and mutual self-interest were not enough to keep a club of busy professionals meeting each week. Reaching out to improve the lives of the less fortunate proved to be an even more powerful motivation. The Rotary commitment to service began in 1907, when the Rotary Club of Chicago donated horse to a preacher. A few weeks later, the club constructed Chicago's first public lavatory. With these inaugural projects, Rotary became the world's first club organization.

Rotary's popularity began to spread throughout the USA. The second Rotary Club was chartered in 1908 in San Francisco, California, with a third club formed in Oakland, California. Others soon followed in Seattle, Washington; Los Angeles, California; and New York, New York. When the National Association of Rotary Clubs held its first convention in 1910, Harris was elected President.

At the following year's convention, speakers used the phrases "Service, Not Self" and "He Profits Most Who Service Best," which became the organization's mottos. "Service, Not Self," was later changed to "Service Above Self," and has since been adopted a Rotary's primary motto.

The Birth of the Rotary Club of Dadiangas

In 1974, the Rotary Club of General Santos City was confronted with a problem on how its members could make up their absences. Since there was no other club within General Santos City and the nearest Rotary Clubs were in Marbel, South Cotabato and in Digos, Davao del Sur. The members of the RC Gensan found it difficult to make up especially when the roads going to other places were rough and rugged; dusty when dried and muddy when wet. There were no paved roads yet. That, the Board of Directors together with its Club President Jess Veneracion decided to organize a new Rotary Club in the city – the Rotary Club of Dadiangas.

For this noble purpose, RC Gensan loaned two of its senior members to form as the core for the new club – Rtn Frank Zuzon and Rtn Joe Lansang. They accepted the challenge with pride and honor. The whole month of January 1975 was devoted to recruit new members and comprehensive rotary information were given to all prospective Rotarians. After several fellowship meetings conducted, RC Dadiangas was formally organized with twenty three (23) charter members. Rtn Frank Zuzon was elected Charter President with Vic Tajanlangit as Club Secretary. PDG Johnny Asencio and PP Joe Lansang were elected as members of the Board of Directors.

On May 7, 1975, RC Dadiangas was officially admitted as regular member of Rotary International and was conferred the provisional status as duly organized club. The Rotary Club of Dadiangas was finally chartered on September 08, 1975.

ROTARY CLUB OF DADIANGAS . . .

OUR MISSION

To carry-out significant and meaningful service projects in water, health/hunger, disease prevention, economic development, literacy among other areas, while members enjoy each other's fellowship.

OUR VISION

To be recognized as the premier organization most admired for its members' fellowship and service accomplishment.

OUR CORE VALUES

- Service. The club believes that its service activities and programs bring about greater world understanding and peace. Service is a major element of its mission. Through its plans and actions, it creates a culture of service throughout its organization that provides unparalleled satisfaction for those who serve.
- Fellowship. The club believes that fellowship is an important aspect of being a Rotarian and each member as individuals can best enjoy this relationship at dinner meetings and by participation in club activities. It is only through fellowship and a committed involvement in Rotary that we as RC Dadiangas' Rotarians can maintain and accomplish the "Four-Way Test".
- Integrity. The club is committed to and expects accountability from its leaders and fellow members, both in the results of its efforts and in the processes it uses to accomplish its goal. The club adheres to high ethical and professional standards in its work and personal relationships. It is fair and respectful in its interactions, and it conscientiously steward the resources entrusted to it.
- Leadership. The club is a fellowship of individuals who are leaders in their field of endeavor. It believes in the importance of leadership development and in leadership as a quality of its members. As Rotarians, we are leaders in implementing our core values.

DECLARATION OF ROTARY CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will

- Exemplify the core value of integrity in all behaviors and activities.
- Use my vocational experience and talents to serve in Rotary.
- Conduct all of my personal, business, and professional affairs ethically, encouraging and fostering high ethical standards as an example to others.
- Be fair in all dealings with others and treat them with the respect due to them as fellow human beings.
- Promote recognition and respect for all occupations which are useful to society.
- Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and improve the quality of life in my community.
 - Honor the trust that Rotary and fellow Rotarians provide and not do anything that will bring disfavor or reflect adversely on Rotary or fellow Rotarians.
 - Not seek from a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded to others in a business or professional relationship.

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Message from the
RI PRESIDENT

Holger Knaack
President 2020-21

February 2021

In Rotary, 23 February is our anniversary, and February is also the month when we focus on promoting peace. There is a reason for this: Contributing to peace and international understanding has been a high priority for us since our earliest days.

We are often asked: "How can we get involved in peace now?" There are many paths to peace in Rotary. Our youth programs point us in the direction of Positive Peace, as does the work of intercountry committees and the Rotary Action Group for Peace.

Another path is the Rotarian Peace Projects Incubator (RPPI), an inspirational collaboration among Rotarians, Rotaractors, and Rotary Peace Fellows and alumni. Led by Rotarians in Switzerland and Liechtenstein, RPPI has designed 48 global projects that any club can support, either directly or through Rotary Foundation global grants. Nino Lotishvili and Matthew Johnsen, alumni of the Rotary Peace Center at Chulalongkorn University in Bangkok, Thailand, are two of the many volunteers.

During my Rotary peace journey, I have learned how personal resilience helps build inner peace and create sustainable outer peace. This was the inspiration behind the Women Peace Ambassadors for the South Caucasus project, which is based on my field research in Georgia. The RPPI team of Rotarians and peace fellows recognized the incredible potential of women from mixed-ethnicity families who live on borderlands to be role models for peace within and beyond their communities. Through workshops on building inner and outer peace that draw on the power of storytelling, 40 participants will be sharing their stories and reaching around 400 extended family and community members. These inspiring but marginalized women will reclaim their inner strength as peacebuilders at the grassroots level. In this way, we will take steps toward the sustainable, peaceful society we need so much, not only in our region, but throughout the world. — Nino Lotishvili

I was excited to join the peace incubator project and to further strengthen my ties with Rotary's peace community by working with past and current peace fellows to develop these proposals. My team wrote five proposals — three in Bangladesh, one in Iraq, and one in Poland — that focus on the arts and on education to generate dialogue across religious divisions and avert the radicalization of young people. I was inspired by how, despite the pandemic, we came together via technology with a vision to develop, test, and strengthen ideas and to produce workable solutions that clubs across the world can support to advance peace. I am excited to work with Rotary's peace community to transform these visions into reality. — Matthew Johnsen

Here is further proof that in Rotary, we prefer action to words. This is Rotary at its best. I encourage you to visit rppi.ch to explore the projects and support them.

We have lasted 116 years because of our strong ethics, our passion for Service Above Self, and our unique approach to problem-solving. One of our greatest strengths is how we reach across our communities and across national, ethnic, religious, and political divisions to unite people of all backgrounds and to help others. This month, let's celebrate our history and the many ways that Rotary Opens Opportunities to advance world understanding, goodwill, and peace, our ultimate mission.

Prexy's Heart

Pres. Yelcy Y. Catulpos

Warm Greetings!

January 2021 is over. We have accomplished many things – be it personal, spiritual, physical matters, including our social responsibility as Rotarians. The first month of the year marks the beginning of many challenges coming along our way, yet we remain steadfast in pursuing our goals serving the community.

We continue the battle amid COVID-19 and the new variant of virus but we have proven that we have made life – changing projects. This is because, we are in one spirit in serving the community.

May we ask ourselves on how we can still be an inspiration to others, how we can touch more lives and share our blessings.

Looking forward for the remaining months as President, let us hold on to our faith that we can create an impact to the community, even in little ways. Again, my sincerest thanks for all your kindness and generosity – this is how Rotary Club of Dadiangas works!

The Governor's Visit is a privilege, an opportunity to learn from him for the betterment of the club. In advance, my warmest congratulations for the achievements the Rotary Club of Dadiangas and I am excited for the coming months that we can still serve people above self and enrich the lives of others.

Best regards to everyone!

Rotary Grace

*Heavenly Father, thank You
for making all things new!
As another new year begins,
help me live each day for
You. May I continually have a new song in my heart
to sing to You, no matter what comes my way. I trust in You because I know that Your mercies are new every morning, and nothing ahead of me will take You by surprise.
AMEN.*

THE ROTARY HYMN

I want to be a Rotarian for the world,
Make the Rotary flag as the flag of peace unfurled;
I shall serve my community,
Help achieve universal unity.
Through Rotary, I shall dedicate my all,
World understanding shall be my cherished goal.

Refrain 1:
With the Four Way Test, I'll pursue my quest
And if I, in a way help obtain. Peace in the world,
I shall not have lived in vain.

I'll observe service above self,
Lend a hand to all who need my help;
I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
And in Rotary ways, I will train my family.

Refrain 2
With the Four Way Test, We'll pursue our quest
And if I, in a way help obtain. Peace in the world,
We shall not have lived in vain.

Build a bridge for tomorrow's youth,
Strengthened by nothing but the truth.
Let's join our hands, there's no reason we'll divide.
We shall all understand why the good Lord is our guide.
(Repeat Refrain 2)

CODA:
Peace be achieved, We shall not have lived in vain!
