INVOCATION

Lord, as we gather today for our first Luncheon Meeting and General assembly under the leadership of President Dadz Mahipus, we ask that You will be in our midst. Help us to make decisions that will be pleasing to You. Help us to be able to discuss the matters at hand in a reasonable way, and to be willing to give up having our own way.

God let this meeting be productive and, as should be the case in all areas of our lives, help us to keep You at the forefront of our minds as we do the work set before us.

Amen!

Farm Tourism

In a city like Davao, where agriculture plays a vital role not only in our economy, but even in our day to day sustenance, we have to be conscious of the need to assure the viability of our farms and farmers.

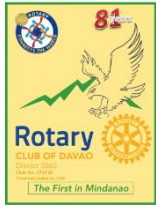

Merely relying on their profit from the sale of their produce may not always be adequate for the average farmer to provide for the basic needs of their family. Surely, there can be other ways to increase the earnings from their farm.

Farm tourism or agricultural tourism is one way. Many so called "city folks" have no experience in the excitement and fun, as well as education one can derive from a visit to the farm. Aside from buying fruits and vegetables in their freshest state, newly harvested, or better yet, harvested by the consumer himself, they get to buy it cheaper, without the middleman's marked-up profit.

Being able to observe and participate in the planting, harvesting, feeding of animals, milking of cows, carabaos, or goats are unforgettable new experiences for both adults, and especially for the students.

Small farmers can form into larger cooperative farms that not only provide these experiences, (for a fee) but also amenities like accommodations, fresh foods, souvenir items, and even value added products such as cakes, pies, and jams. The fresh and unpolluted air, the greenery, the scenery, the friendly atmosphere, and the unhurried ambience in a farm setting are experiences one would like to have from time to time, especially in this fast-paced life we live.

We only need to promote this program to our students and the general population. Perhaps the Rotary might be able to adopt a project as beneficial as this?

Fellow Rotarians!!!

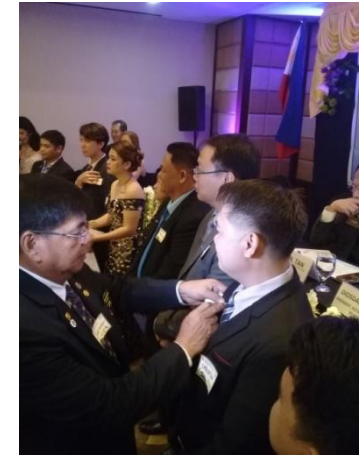

First of all, I wish to congratulate all of you for a very successful Turnover and Induction Ceremony last Sunday, July 21, 2019 at the Marco Polo Hotel... It pleases me to see all the Past Presidents and Officers converging once again to show everyone the true spirit of fellowship and camaraderie that we always have for our Club Members and families.. I give special thanks to PP ED BULLECER for ensuring that we get the best Guest Speaker for the occasion in the person of no less than Secretary DELFIN LORENZANA of the Department of National Defense who graciously left us in awe and adoration of his ability to dissecting the true State of the Nation in brief (equal to the SONA of PRRD) and also left us with a generous cash donation. I give special recognition and sincere gratitude to District Governor Philip N. Tan who took special time out from his duty to his family to be back again and grace the occasion. His challenges still reverberates in our minds to keep the fire burning for our Club... I thank the following men and women of Rotary who attended and gave their unwavering support namely Assistant Governor Alvin Orteza, Honorary Member Tomoko "Sophia" Dodo, PDG Salvador Angala, PP Danny Congson, Johnny Ang of Rotary Club Makati, PP Tony Ajero, PP Jun Ledesma, President Al Batao, PP Noe Indonto (based on attendance). I give special thanks to our newly inducted officers of RC DAVAO for the full support given me. I congratulate all the newly inducted members namely Lester Jones Suarez, Harold Banggay, May Fiel Divino, Timoteo D. Alagon, Ralph Michael Angelo Mahipus, Rico Mok, and Carlo C. Tan. RI PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Mark Daniel Maloney
President, Rotary International
July 2019

No one is an island

Dear fellow Rotarians and members of the family of Rotary,

I love to travel! I even enjoy the mundane process of getting from here to there. But last year, my wife, Gay, and I had one of those experiences that would strain the optimism of even the most cheerful traveller. We found ourselves with six hours to wait, at an airport where we were not scheduled to be, on a day we had not planned still to be travelling, having woken up that morning at a hotel unknown to us the night before. It was one of those days.

As we waited at John F Kennedy International Airport in New York City, Gay and I took a walk to people watch. We went from one end of the terminal to the other and back, looking at every gate, every destination, every group of people waiting for their flights.

Each gate was its own island of humanity. When we walked down the centre of the concourse, we were in New York, moving along with everyone in one river. But when you veered off into those seats, you left that current and landed on an island. You were already in Delhi or Paris or Tel Aviv.

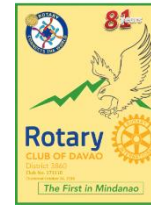

As we started our walk, I thought: "All these different people, all these different countries, all in one place. This is like Rotary!" But as we walked past gate after gate, I realised something. It was not like Rotary at all. Because everyone in that river was heading for an island. And every island stayed an island. The people heading to Taipei might be talking to one another, but they were not talking to the people heading to Cairo or Lagos.

Contrast that with Rotary. Rotary allows us to connect with one another, in deep and meaningful ways, across our differences.

It connects us with people we would never otherwise have met, who are more like us than we ever could have known. It connects us with our communities, to professional opportunities, and to the people who need our help.

Connection is what makes the experience of Rotary so very different from walking along that concourse at JFK Airport. In Rotary, none of us is an island. All of us are in Rotary together, whoever we are, wherever we are from, whatever language we speak or traditions we follow. We are all connected to one another — part of our communities and members not only of our clubs, but also of the global community to which we all belong.

This connection is what lies at the heart of the Rotary experience. It is what brings us to Rotary. It is why we stay. Please join your fellow Rotarians on this journey as Rotary Connects the World.

ROTARY PILLARS

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- SECOND. High ethical standards in business and profession; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- THIRD. The applications of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

MISSION, VISION AND PHILOSOPHY

MISSION STATEMENT

Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

OUR VISION

To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship and world peace.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

"Service with Honor"

ROTARY WORDS OF WISDOM

"Rotary believes that the citizen who best serves his country is the one who wishes to know the truth about his neighbors, and who desires to replace hatred between nations with friendship."

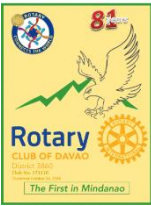

— Address to 1939 Rotary Convention, Cleveland, Ohio, USA

"Man's instinct for making and amassing wealth...the profit motive...cannot be rooted out from human nature either by the sword or by legislation. Let us make all the legitimate profit we can, but, in doing so, let the basis of that profit be service to all concerned. Idealism in practice should be characteristic of the Rotary movement."

— That's a Good Question, THE ROTARIAN, March 1963

"Set high personal standards. Make others aware we expect the same. Respect the pursuit of excellence. Recognize, dignify honest work."

— Renew the Spirit of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, July 1974

ROTARY PILLARS

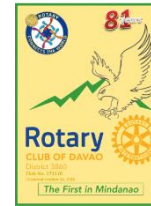

The Four Way Test of the Things We Think Say or Do

1. Is it the TRUTH ?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

ROTARY CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Exemplify the core value of integrity in all behaviors and activities;
2. Use my vocational experience and talents to serve in Rotary;

4. Be fair in all dealings with others and treat them with the respect due to them as fellow human beings;

6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Honor the trust that Rotary and fellow Rotarians provide and not do anything that will bring disfavour or reflect adversely on Rotary or fellow Rotarians;
8. Not seek from a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.
