INVOCATION

Lord, Make me an instrument of Your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love.

Where there is injury, pardon.

Where there is doubt, faith.

Where there is despair, hope.

Where there is darkness, light.

Where there is sadness, joy.

Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;

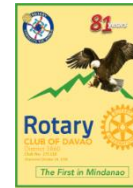

To be understood, as to understand;

and To be loved, as to love.

For it is in pardoning that we are pardoned.

And it is in dying to the self that we are born to eternal life.

Amen.

WEEKLY LUNCHEON MEETING AND FELLOWSHIP
@SARUNG BANGGI, HARANA RESTAURANT
F. TORRES ST. DAVAO CITY AUGUST 22, 2019

As usual, Rotarians meet and greet each other as they gather during the Weekly Luncheon Meeting last August 22, 2019 at Sarung Banggi, Harana Restaurant, Davao City. The day was even inspiring with the presence of a Visiting Rotarian who later shared her experiences being a Member of the Rotray Club.

True as it may that a “Rotarian is always ready” as most of the assigned tasks of the day are unrehearsed. Club Treasurer PP Oscar Gonzales acted as Master of Ceremony while PP Filomino Divino took over as Acting Secretary in the absence of PAG Arnold Navales who is out of town. Franklin Buno led the group with the opening prayer, singing of the Rotary Hymn and the recitation of the Rotary Pillars.

PP Oscar Gonzales (standing @ left) as the Master of Ceremony of the day with Pres. Mahipus, Rtn. and Speaker Liza Gamo, and PP Divino (seated)

PP Fil Divino acted as Secretary of the Day

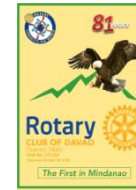

PP Edgar Bullecer, who invited visiting Rotarian Liza Gamo made an introduction as the Guest Speaker of the Day (Please see Rtn. Liza Gamo’s profile @ page 20).

Visiting Rotarian PP Antonio M. Ajero and Honorary Member ConGen Tomoko Dodo actively participated in the open forum.

Indeed, it was a very memorable day again as Rotarians sung together the Community song led by the President himself, Diosdado Mahipus.

EDITORIAL

DR. RUBEN ROBILLO

Septuagenarian

A few days ago, I finally turned seventy. While just a few years ago, the thought of this day terrified me no end, however now, I can only but be extremely grateful for this rare and distinct privilege. All of seventy wonderful years overflowing with so much love from family, friends and even from people I hardly even know.

I've also been blessed with being part of so many worthwhile undertakings, being member to noble organizations, clubs, societies, associations, all working towards making a better world for everyone.

There is this group of dignified elderly individuals, classmates in high school, with whom we can't seem to have enough of having reunions, as often as we can get a chance, even if our numbers continue to dwindle through the years. I often wonder how many more reunions we can hold, until the march of the inevitable finally catches up with us. But until then, we can only wishfully say to each other.. "Next year uli, ha?"

Then there is an association of fellow Physicians among whom we share our knowledge, experiences and skills, and our passions for learning, serving, and healing. The privilege of being God's instrument for healing and easing pain is an inexplicable feeling of constant gratitude. I am perpetually awed and grateful for this opportunity.

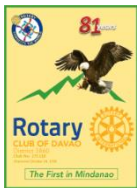

And of course there's Rotary. I was lucky to have been recruited into this Prestigious, Service oriented organization thirty years ago, and there's been no looking back since. I've met and associated with, many outstanding and esteemed individuals through Rotary, and I've learned from them, were inspired by them, as we together strove to uphold the advocacy of service above self.

Rotary serves as a happy, constant reminder, especially in these trying times, that there is still hope, honor and goodness in this world.

And finally, there's my family. I've been so fortunate to have spent forty five of those seventy years with an understanding, caring and admirable woman, who stuck with me through all these challenging and sometimes, tumultuous years, even gifting me with three wonderful children and four lovely grandchildren! What good is aging without "apo's ?

Who could ask for more?

So now, as I still look with excited anticipation to the next round of fun filled, fulfilling years ahead, I say.. Roll out the barrels and bring on the years!

PRESIDENT'S PAGE

DIOSDADO ANGELO "DADZ" A. MAHIPUS

Greetings my fellow Rotarians!!!

We are happy to have as our Guest Speaker Mr Harold L. Quibete, Kadayawan Organizer who will debrief us about the Kadayawan Festivities all over Davao. It has been for two decades now since this home-grown event was first celebrated as our way of thanking the Supreme God for many a bountiful harvest we always have. We thank God for a typhoon free, temperate climate city that grows fruits and flowers the whole year round. Let's listen to the revelations about the preparations done.

Our club has to double time in recruiting new Members and Old members alike into our midst. It needs strategic planning for our Board of Directors to be able to line up our programs and plans for the entire rotary year 2019-2020. We missed PP Ruben Robillo last week. Thanks to the following active Rotarians who attended last regular meeting namely PP Ed Bullecer, Franklin Buno, PP Fil and Dir. May Divino, PP Oca Gonzales, Heinrich and Marie Heumann, Ralph Michael Angelo Mahipus, PP Ching Rodriguez, PP Pep-C Velez, Honorary Member Tomoko Dodo, Visiting Rotarian PP Tony Ajero and Rtn. Liza Gamo (as Guest Speaker).

We hope to hear from PP Jun Diano where our remaining funds out of the Ford Everest sales are. Please remit this to the Club Foundation as soon as possible. We undertake to keep it intact. Sorry, but I have to remind you of our 4-way test. As Rotarians, we have to uphold the rule of law and set as fitting and proper examples to our club members.

Happy Rotary Day!!!

LET'S BE ROTARY-LIKE IN OUR DEALINGS WITH THE CLUB USING THE 4-WAY TEST..."

RI PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Mark Daniel Maloney
President 2019-20

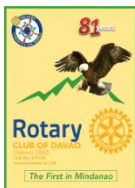

AUGUST 2019

During 2019-2020, I am encouraging Rotarians and Rotaractors to grow Rotary. We must grow our service, we must grow the impact of our projects, but, most importantly, we must grow our membership so that we can achieve more.

Let us try a new approach to membership, one that is more organized and strategic. I am asking every club to form an active membership committee consisting of people of different backgrounds who will look methodically at the leadership of the community.

Your club's membership committee will then apply Rotary's classification system — designed to ensure that the range of professions in your community is well represented — to identify potential leaders with the skill, the talent, and the character that will strengthen your club. If your club's membership committee is unsure how to proceed, look to the club membership committee checklist on Rotary.org for clearly defined steps to organizing its work.

How else will we connect to grow Rotary? We will also form new types of clubs — either independent clubs or satellite clubs — with different meeting experiences and engaging service opportunities, not just where there is no Rotary, but also where Rotary is already thriving. No Rotary club in the world can possibly serve all segments of its community. Therefore, we must organize new clubs to engage the community leaders who cannot connect with our existing clubs. Growing Rotary is all about taking the connections that make our organization unique in the world and strengthening and multiplying them. Let us commit ourselves to growing Rotary and to welcoming the next diverse generation of women and men as Rotary Connects the World.

R.I. NEWS / UPDATES

Value of Rotary volunteering

A special report prepared for Rotary International by the Johns Hopkins Center for Civil Society Studies estimated the value of Rotary member volunteer hours at $850 million a year

That Rotary members' log a lot of volunteer hours should come as no surprise to anyone familiar with the organization. But a new report just released by Johns Hopkins University provides a powerful look at the impact of all those volunteer hours.

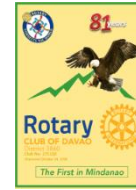

The special report prepared for Rotary International by the Johns Hopkins Center for Civil Society Studies found that Rotary members had volunteered a total of 5.8 million hours within a four-week survey period. Extrapolating those results over an entire year, the report gave a conservative estimate of nearly 47 million hours of volunteer effort generated by Rotary members in a typical year.

The report then analyzed the economic impact of all those hours and estimated the value conservatively at $850 million a year, if communities had to pay for the services that Rotary volunteers provide.

Rotary, with the help of Johns Hopkins University, is the first global service organization to conduct an empirical analysis of its volunteer's impact using an internationally sanctioned definition of volunteer work. The authors of the report noted in their conclusion that at each stop, the analysis had chosen the most conservative estimates.

"This makes the results reported here all the more remarkable," the authors noted. "Translated into economic terms, Rotary is annually generating a scale of social and economic problem-solving effort that is worth nearly nine times more than it costs the organization to produce."

Rotary General Secretary John Hewko said the figure doesn't even include the in-kind contributions and the money that Rotary clubs and the Rotary Foundation raise every year. In addition, the figure doesn't include the volunteer work of the many relatives and friends of Rotary that members often involve in a project, or that of members of Rotaract, Interact, or the Community Corps, that would easily double the estimate of Rotary's economic impact.

ROTARY PILLARS

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
SECOND. High ethical standards in business and profession; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The applications of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

MISSION, VISION AND PHILOSOPHY

MISSION STATEMENT

Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

OUR VISION

To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship and world peace.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

"Service with Honor"

ROTARY WORDS OF WISDOM

"Rotary believes that the citizen who best serves his country is the one who wishes to know the truth about his neighbors, and who desires to replace hatred between nations with friendship."

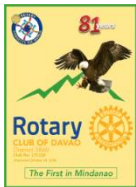

— Address to 1939 Rotary Convention, Cleveland, Ohio, USA

"Man's instinct for making and amassing wealth...the profit motive...cannot be rooted out from human nature either by the sword or by legislation. Let us make all the legitimate profit we can, but, in doing so, let the basis of that profit be service to all concerned. Idealism in practice should be characteristic of the Rotary movement."

— That's a Good Question, THE ROTARIAN, March 1963

"Set high personal standards. Make others aware we expect the same. Respect the pursuit of excellence. Recognize, dignify honest work."

— Renew the Spirit of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, July 1974

ROTARY PILLARS

7. Honor the trust that Rotary and fellow Rotarians provide and not do anything that will bring disfavor or reflect adversely on Rotary or fellow Rotarians;
8. Not seek from a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.
