EDITORIAL
DR. RUBEN ROBILLO

My Davao

Everything around us seems to be undergoing rapid changes nowadays that perhaps it's necessary to take stock of what we have now, as well as what we used to have, before we lose them to forgotten history and forever fail to appreciate the wonderful city we used to have.

I remember a Davao where people still smiled at each other, even among strangers. Life then wasn't so complex nor hurried and competition was friendly. Respect was easily given as was courtesy. Crime rate in the city was low and Policemen functioned more to man traffic and assist pedestrians and motorists than to arrest. As such, they did not instill fear, but were loved and admired.

Just like its people, the weather in Davao was constantly cool and breezy, and air conditioning was not a necessity in houses and cars. Trees abounded in the city, growing between houses, between buildings and even along streets. Davao River was constantly clean and green, with children splashing on its banks, and for the more daring, even leaping from the bridge, to the deep clean water below.

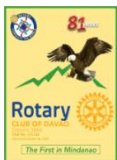

Weekends found families frolicking in the clean, beautiful beaches of Times beach, Talomo beach and Dumoy, where one could still buy fresh fish for lunch, from the fisher folk that lived there.

Traffic was unheard of. There was no need for malls. People leisurely strolled the commercial streets of San Pedro, Claveria and Uyanguren to shop from the variety of shops and stores run by enterprising batanguenos, chinese, pakistani and indian traders. One could also grab a bite to eat or watch a movie.

Parties and Social events were held in homes of celebrants and rarely in hotels and convention halls. Barbecue and fried rice were favorite fares as were grilled fish, kinilaw and pansit, and of course lechon.

Illnesses like cancer, diabetes and hypertension were uncommon, and there was no HIV, no STD's and no drug problem. Traumatic and violent injuries were few and far between. Only amoebiasis was common. This was due to the primitive water system that Davao used to have, as we then relied more on the easily contaminated rain water for our drinking and washing needs. Most houses had rain water tanks as it almost always rained in Davao every night.

Now however, we have the best water in the country, thanks to our abundant supply of underground water. Thus, we are still a blessed city. But at the rate we are forcibly changing the natural landscape of our beloved city, without regard to preserving its once abundant resources, how long can we remain blessed?

DIOSDADO ANGELO
"DADZ" A. MAHIPUS

Hi Fellow Rotarians,

I am happy to be back. I just needed some time to organize a Corporation who is willing to partner with us on pursuing social responsibility among the vulnerable sectors of our society.

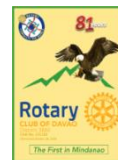

I am recruiting a Past Rotarian to join the Mother Club in the person of Atty. Jose Irbani Lorena of the Bangsamoro Autonomous Region for Mindanao. It would be a great honor to have a brilliant and articulate Muslim Lawyer who was former Undersecretary of Office of the President Peace Process (OPAP) and now Member of Parliament (MP) of BARM Assembly.

Congratulations to the newly inducted Rotaract Club headed by its Moderator, Engr. Myrna E. Asentista and President Sandra Lyn D. Villar. It is our desire to organize our youth and channel their potentialities into more meaningful involvement in nation-building and community development. Now that they are organized, we look forward to more community-based activities.

Today, our fellow Rotarian Carlos C. Tan Jr. will be our speaker. His Classification talk today is all about banking, finance and investments. Let's learn good business opportunities from the Banker.

Mabuhay ang Rotary!!!

LET'S BE ROTARY-LIKE IN OUR DEALINGS WITH THE CLUB USING THE 4-WAY TEST...

RI PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Mark Daniel Maloney, President 2019-20

SEPTEMBER 2019

Here in the United States, another summer is winding down. And for the Maloney family, every summer ends with a return to my hometown of Ridgway, Illinois, for the annual Popcorn Day festival, where I am honored to serve as the "Popcorn King," the master of ceremonies for the day's events. Regardless of the season, every family has its own traditions. I would like to suggest a new one for yours: Find an opportunity to introduce your family to Rotary. One of my family's traditions is to take our daughters and grandsons to the Rotary International Convention. The 2020 convention in Honolulu will be a wonderful way to introduce your children and grandchildren to the internationality of Rotary. We are planning many family-oriented events for everyone to enjoy.

Any time is a fabulous time to bring family members on a Rotary service project or to a fundraising event. But perhaps you have not seen many family-friendly events at your club. That is precisely why one of my top priorities this year is to make most Rotary events welcoming to family members.

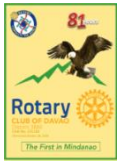

We must foster a culture where Rotary does not compete with family, but complements it. We should never expect our members to choose between the two. That means being realistic in our expectations, considerate in our scheduling, and welcoming of children at Rotary events on every level.

Often, the young professionals that Rotary needs to attract in order to remain a dynamic 21st-century service organization are the very people who have the greatest family responsibilities. We must not keep these prospective young members away from their families by holding events on evenings and weekends at which their children are not welcome.

For too long, we have closed the doors of many Rotary events to children and sometimes even spouses. What wasted opportunities these are! Every chance we have to pass on the gift of Rotary to young people is one we must take if we are going to grow Rotary and ensure that the next generation is fully engaged in our mission.

So let us open our doors and do it in a fun way, with opportunities that make our children and grandchildren want to learn more about Interact, Rotaract, and Rotary membership. Start small if you must — perhaps by holding some of your meetings at more family-friendly times — but think about how you can continue these kinds of events for years to come.

Bringing children to Rotary events is not just fun; it also exposes them to the world! Make this a memorable year for your family — and an unforgettable year for the ever-expanding family of Rotary as Rotary Connects the World.

Educate on Protecting Your Water Sources

World Polio Day, October 24th, was established by Rotary International to commemorate the birth of Jonas Salk, who led the team that developed the Polio vaccine.

The Polio virus is often spread through contaminated drinking water, so WASRAG is holding a competition to encourage clubs to recognize projects that are Most Impactful or Most Innovative in regards to improving the quality of water and/or awareness in your community. Use your imagination to find ways to educate your community on the importance of protecting its water sources. For more details go to World Polio Day Competition.

Submit a brief description of your project, by Dec 1, 2019, to info@wasrag.org.

NextGen WASH

The Rotary Club of Denver Southeast is hosting a WASH Symposium, Oct 5, 2019 in Denver, CO. The focus of the program will be on investing in the next generation of water, sanitation and hygiene professionals.

The program of excellent speakers will be a combination of Keynote presentations and a number of breakout sessions with great facilitators.

Club Tackles Project in Panama

The Ngobe-Bugle tribe are among the most impoverished indigenous people in Panama. Having sanitation and clean water are major challenges for these rural populations.

Dan Heffron of the Rotary Club of New Richmond, WI was recognized as the 2019 Rotarian of the Year for tackling a project to bring a washroom to a school in Panama. Read the story on this project.

ROTARY PILLARS

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- SECOND. High ethical standards in business and profession; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- THIRD. The applications of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

MISSION, VISION AND PHILOSOPHY

MISSION STATEMENT

Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

OUR VISION

To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship and world peace.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

"Service with Honor"

ROTARY WORDS OF WISDOM

"Rotary believes that the citizen who best serves his country is the one who wishes to know the truth about his neighbors, and who desires to replace hatred between nations with friendship."

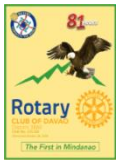

— Address to 1939 Rotary Convention, Cleveland, Ohio, USA

"Man's instinct for making and amassing wealth...the profit motive...cannot be rooted out from human nature either by the sword or by legislation. Let us make all the legitimate profit we can, but, in doing so, let the basis of that profit be service to all concerned. Idealism in practice should be characteristic of the Rotary movement."

— That's a Good Question, THE ROTARIAN, March 1963

"Set high personal standards. Make others aware we expect the same. Respect the pursuit of excellence. Recognize, dignify honest work."

— Renew the Spirit of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, July 1974

7. Honor the trust that Rotary and fellow Rotarians provide and not do anything that will bring disfavour or reflect adversely on Rotary or fellow Rotarians;
8. Not seek from a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.
