EDITORIAL

PP RUBEN "Ruben" ROBILLO

NEW YEAR

Once again, another year is upon us. And as we enter into this new era of our lives, a new decade, in fact, perhaps it's only fitting to ponder on both the past year and the year to be, and the impact they have on our lives. The past year, for the challenges, the victories, the failures, the lessons it has given us, as well as the memories, both happy and sad, that we bring with us. And the new year, for the hopes, aspirations and positive expectations it promises to bring.

Finding ourselves as we are, here and now, functional and productive, and still able to carry out the tasks we have set out to do, should be reason for us to be proud of our resilience and ability, to have survived the challenges the past year has brought. But more than pride and self-satisfaction, it should instead lead us more to an attitude of gratitude. Grateful and thankful to our Lord Almighty, for still providing us with the health and capacity to again experience and enjoy another year of existence, and another chance to prove our worth to Him.

But we need to have learned from the lessons of the past if we are to assure ourselves and the next generations of a much better tomorrow.

This year, 2020, let us start by reaching out to our family and friends and letting them know that we care about them, before it becomes too late to say it. Let us share our time, talents, efforts and treasures to the community, if only to help improve the lot of our fellow Filipinos, especially the lost, the least and the last. Let us speak out and stand up against injustice, against greed and corruption, against violence and criminality, and against the destruction of our environment and natural resources.

Let us awaken from our stuporous and passive state and participate in worthy causes. Let us be less self centered and more proactive.

If we can, even in little ways, start doing these, then perhaps, we can still assure ourselves, our community and our country, of a Happy and Prosperous New Year!!

DIOSDADO ANGELO "DADZ" A. MAHIPUS

Dear fellow Rotarians,

I welcome you to our regular luncheon meeting today with a happy heart. We are privileged to have as our guest of Honor and Speaker today, the Vice President of EarthCube Philippines Engr. GEORGE ASTILLA fresh from Tokyo, Japan. He happens to be my comrade in the Kabataang Barangay during our youthful days but is now a successful business Executive He will also be inducted as a new Rotarian having complied with the requirements and possessing all the qualifications and none of the disqualifications to become a Rotarian.

I wish to share some points to ponder: The gifts of caring, attention, affection and appreciation are some of the most precious gifts we can give, and they don't cost anything.

Let's keep telling others, they matter.

Our greatest test is, when we are able to bless someone else, while we are going through our own storms. "The spirit of God in us should be translated to beautiful works of charity and service."

Great week ahead God bless and loves us!

Mabuhay and Rotary Club of Davao!!!

LET'S BE ROTARY-LIKE IN OUR DEALINGS WITH THE CLUB USING THE 4-WAY TEST...

ABOUT EARTH CUBE PHILIPPINES

Introduction

We would like to introduce to you our product, Low Temperature Pyrolysis device" EARTH CUBE".

Earth Cube was a product developed 30 years ago. At that time, a lot of similar equipment with the same function has appeared. Thus Earth Cube losses its opportunity to be spread widely.

Recently, medical waste and solid waste disposal problems have become serious. Therefore, we re-start production again with the updated technologies, to meet the required solution to the current waste problem.

We think it's fortunate to be able to specialize and find solution at a minimal cost.

Installation..... Several Hospitals, Environmental Centers

Manufactured.....Shizuoka, Mie, Ehime, Kita-Kyushu and Okinawa

RI PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Mark Daniel Maloney, President 2019-20

January 2020

People from all over the world have multiple reasons for joining Rotary. Many new Rotarians each year join for the same reason I did — because Rotary is a great way to benefit your career. When I was a new attorney starting out in Alabama, Gay and I became partners in her father's firm. He instilled in us the value of joining Rotary as a way to build relationships and demonstrate to potential clients that we were serious professionals who held firm to values even more robust than what our profession required.

Rotary's commitment to vocational service is built on the highest ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful work, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society. That last point is so important. No matter our profession, we all contribute mightily to the world when we conduct our work with integrity and always adhere to The Four-Way Test.

I have made balancing the demands of Rotary with professional and family commitments one of my priorities as president. No Rotarian should feel pressured to put in more time than a volunteer position should ever demand. This is true for several reasons, one of them being that the work we do in our day jobs is just as important to Rotary as the work we do in the organization. We carry our Rotary values everywhere, and our professional success helps build a case for Rotary every day we go into the office.

This is particularly important in our efforts to reach younger new members. We want to see a Rotary where no one is ever asked to choose between being a good Rotarian and being a good parent, business owner, manager, or employee. When we ask busy young people to join us, we should not be asking them to give up their time and freedom. We should be rewarding them with an experience that makes everything they already do even more inspiring.

Providing greater balance within Rotary will have another benefit as well: It will create opportunities for other Rotarians, including Rotaractors, to step up and take a leadership role on projects and committees. This will ensure that they remain engaged in our clubs and inspired to be Rotarians for life.

Throughout the world, Rotary is admired for its vocational service and for the time-honored values we instill in all business relationships. As we continue our work to grow Rotary, let us remember that vocational service remains a crucial selling point to potential members.

Rotary Connects the World, and by making Rotary's vocational service work known to people in more professions and at different stages of their careers, we will help grow our organization and make it stronger and more diverse.

ROTARY PILLARS

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and profession; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The applications of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

MISSION, VISION AND PHILOSOPHY

MISSION STATEMENT

Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

OUR VISION

To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship and world peace.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

"Service with Honor"

ROTARY WORDS OF WISDOM

"Rotary believes that the citizen who best serves his country is the one who wishes to know the truth about his neighbors, and who desires to replace hatred between nations with friendship."

— Address to 1939 Rotary Convention, Cleveland, Ohio, USA

"Man's instinct for making and amassing wealth...the profit motive...cannot be rooted out from human nature either by the sword or by legislation. Let us make all the legitimate profit we can, but, in doing so, let the basis of that profit be service to all concerned. Idealism in practice should be characteristic of the Rotary movement."

— That's a Good Question, THE ROTARIAN, March 1963

"Set high personal standards. Make others aware we expect the same. Respect the pursuit of excellence. Recognize, dignify honest work."

— Renew the Spirit of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, July 1974
