INVOCATION

We invoke your blessing on this meeting and upon our being together. The joy of the Lord is our strength. We enjoy the fellowship we find here, as it makes us feel more regal than feeble. Help us to enjoy doing good, supporting and encouraging one another. Thank you Lord, for this good group and for letting us know that those great among us must first become great in serving others. Bless us with the pure pleasure of service and the joy of giving. Amen

Talking peace in troubled times is not easy

The shocking, heinous and heartbreaking terrorist attack on a CRPF convoy in Pulwama in Jammu and Kashmir, that caused the tragic loss of 40 CRPF men, has immersed our entire country in a pall of gloom and grief. This tragedy once again puts the spotlight on what The Rotary Foundation is attempting through its Peace programme, where it has forged a partnership with seven reputed universities (six Peace Centres) across the world for studies in Peace and Conflict Resolution. The Peace Fellows it sponsors are carefully chosen from a wide range of outstanding individuals with the potential to contribute towards peace and conflict resolution. Recently, a committee headed by PRIP and TRF Trustee K R Ravindran decided to make small adjustments to the Peace Fellow curriculum to make it less academic and more practical to give better employment opportunities to its Fellows. "We are also offering electives that relate to our six Areas of Focus so that graduates can work with Rotary clubs on joint projects as we want them to be part of the family of Rotary. Remember that peace is not simply the absence of war but also derives from the elimination of want," says Ravindran.

There is so much violence and conflict that is tearing our world apart today. The Syrian refugee crisis is arguably the largest refugee and displacement crisis in modern times. Since 2011, this civil war has forced an estimated 5.5 million people to flee their homes in Syria. And a huge sea of people, once proud and prosperous citizens of a nation like Syria, are now reduced to begging for asylum in alien lands where they often land packed like sardines in unauthorised boats. So many drown in that dangerous voyage; but who is counting?

The crucial question is how much can peace programmes such as TRF's help to dent violence and conflict and bring sanity and peace into our troubled world. Every year, Rotary sponsors 100 scholars, 50 each for its short and long-term peace programmes, at the six Rotary Peace Centres. TRF Trustee Gulam Vahanvaty says TRF has sponsored peace fellows from across the world, including India and Pakistan, who have been working in voluntary organisations as well as government, "and are equipped with the right skills and training through our Peace programme to help resolve problems across the world and bring peace." A police officer from Maharashtra, Praveen Dixit, who later went on to hold the highest police post — that of the Director General of Police — was one of the first Peace Fellows, graduating from the Duke University/University of North Carolina Centre. He acknowledges from various platforms the kind of impact the curriculum and his training as a Peace Fellow has had on his functioning as a police officer.

In recent years, as the Asian, Middle Eastern and African nations have seen much more conflict, TRF's decision to set up more peace centres in Africa, the Middle East and Latin America gains significance. Feasibility studies in Africa have already begun.

The distrust inherent in resolving conflict in order to get peaceful solutions to geopolitical problems need chipping away, as trust building takes a long time. And many more organisations need to join Rotary in the elusive quest for calm and peace in our world. Jingoism and wars can only create more problems, more bloodshed and more misery and displacement of people, but talking peace is not easy when there is so much of anger and anguish as we see in India after the latest act of terror.

Psec Ric Reyes welcomed Guests and Visitors

In his "instant" presentation, Guest Speaker Mr. Paredes shared his work experiences and current undertakings in real estate which caught the attention of Pres. Dadz Mahipus being a Reral Estate Broker and Appraiser to throw the first question during the Open Forum. Honorary Member Tomoko Dodo also participated.

Pres. Dadz Mahipus made the Introduction and Induction of the new members of the Club as PDG Bading Angala led the Charging. They are Ms. Kristine A. Villarmia, sponsored by Rtn. Charlie Tan, Mr. Junnie Samsi with his wife sponsored by PAG Arnold Navales, and Mr. Ernette Paredes by PP Pep-C Velez.

DIOSDADO ANGELO "DADZ" A. MAHIPUS

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

Welcome dear Rotarians to our 26th regular meeting for RY 2019 -2020! Our Guest of Honor and Speaker for today is no less the Honorable Consul General Dicky Fabian of the Republic of Indonesia. "Selamat Datang" ConGen and all good wishes to you and your family...

Last week we saw the ushering of a new era in RC Davao Membership recruitment with three new Rotarians joining this prestigious club namely: 1.Rotarian Christine Villarmia 2.Rotarian Talib Junnie Samsi and 3. Come-backing Rotarian PP Ernette Paredes. Wonderful crop of Champion Rotarians!!!

Today we expect Davao City Councilor Joselle Villafuerte to get inducted as a new member. Welcome Councilor Joselle to your newfound circle of civic leaders who will help you with your development plans for District 3.

Thoughts to ponder:

A person who is not open to new ideas is like a bird who does not dare to fly.

Life involves taking risks to be able to grow and develop one's potentials.

Listening to other people's ideas is essential to broaden our horizon.

This requires openness to new ideas, new possibilities, new horizons.

Imposing our own ideas on others can result to broken relationships.

May God's peace be with you always! Shalom! A Blissful Thursday...

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL NEWS AND UPDATES

Foundation grants receive favorable reviews

More than 90 percent of Rotarians surveyed believe the new Rotary Foundation grant model is better than the previous one. The survey, conducted in 2018-19, is part of a regular review to gauge satisfaction with Foundation grants. Survey participants were also asked to rate their understanding of and support for the areas of focus and to assess the sustainability of global grant-funded projects. The summary of the evaluation revealed that 96 percent say that Rotary is working in the right areas of focus and a majority felt they were well-prepared to implement the sustainability requirements that are part of the grant model. Only 29 percent believe it's easy to design sustainable grant projects. Since the launch of the model, the average size of global grants has increased by 21 percent, and the average size of district grants by 16 percent.

Incoming district governors ready to seize the opportunity

District governors-elect say they are ready to make the most of Rotary after learning the 2020-21 presidential theme, Rotary Opens Opportunities, at the International Assembly.

RI President-elect Holger Knaack encouraged the leaders to take advantage of the many options that Rotary provides to create change in the world.

“Rotary is not just a club that you join. It is an invitation to endless opportunities,” Knaack said Monday, 20 January, at the annual training event held in San Diego, California, USA. “It opens opportunities to serve in a project as big and historic as End Polio Now and also in a small community project, where you just plant a tree. ... Everything we do opens another opportunity for someone, somewhere.”

Several incoming district governors said moments after the theme was announced that they're ready to seize those opportunities.

RI PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Mark Daniel Maloney, President 2019-20

FEBRUARY 2020

Happy 115th birthday, fellow Rotarians and members of the family of Rotary!

Much has changed in the world since 1905. Then, the global population was roughly 1.7 billion. Today, it is 7.7 billion. There were 5 telephones per 100 people in the United States 115 years ago. In 2020, it is estimated that 96 percent of the U.S. population has a cellphone — and both China and India have more than a billion cellphones in use.

In the 115 years since Rotary was founded, seemingly everything has changed except Rotary values. We began, and remain, committed to fellowship, integrity, diversity, service, and leadership. While our Service Above Self motto dates to 1911, the ethos behind those words had already been ingrained by Rotary's founders.

As the pace of change worldwide continues to accelerate, the need for Rotary service is greater than ever. It's one thing to read about service projects, quite another to see them in action and to see the grateful faces of people who have benefited from them. Rotary projects change lives and connect the world. And over the past year, I have seen some amazing Rotary projects in action.

Gay and I visited Japan's Fukushima prefecture last year. Few places in the world have had to deal with the kind of devastation that visited Fukushima in March 2011, when a tsunami touched off by an earthquake led to disaster at a nuclear power plant. But the story of Fukushima today is not one of destruction; it is one of hope and renewal. Rotary grants have helped improve access to medical and mental health care for victims of the disaster and reduced the isolation of these communities by sharing the experiences of people from other parts of the world who have also recovered from disasters. Our grants have also helped to foster self-motivation and encourage sustainable long-term community recovery across the region.

In Shanghai, I learned about the Careers in Care program. This helps migrant workers fill the need for skilled professionals in elder care facilities. After taking a course, trainees receive certification to boost their employment prospects, while the care industry benefits from an expanded talent pool. Rotary projects like this are successful because they address a local need, and they have the potential to attract local government funding to sustain their impact.

And in Guatemala, Gay and I went to Sumpango. Global grants there provide mechanical cows to produce soy milk; an improved water distribution system; water filters; clean compost latrines; family gardens; support for income generation; and training in WASH and literacy programs. The food items sold there not only provide nutrition to women and children, but also create a source of income for local women.

In every area of focus, and in every part of the world, Rotary projects are improving lives and helping communities adapt in a time of rapid change. As we celebrate another great year for Rotary, let us rededicate ourselves to strengthening the connections that make our service so impactful. We will make lives better as Rotary Connects the World.

ROTARY PILLARS

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and profession; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The applications of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

MISSION, VISION AND PHILOSOPHY

MISSION STATEMENT

Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

OUR VISION

To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship and world peace.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

"Service with Honor"

ROTARY WORDS OF WISDOM

"Rotary believes that the citizen who best serves his country is the one who wishes to know the truth about his neighbors, and who desires to replace hatred between nations with friendship."

— Address to 1939 Rotary Convention, Cleveland, Ohio, USA

"Man's instinct for making and amassing wealth...the profit motive...cannot be rooted out from human nature either by the sword or by legislation. Let us make all the legitimate profit we can, but, in doing so, let the basis of that profit be service to all concerned. Idealism in practice should be characteristic of the Rotary movement."

— That's a Good Question, THE ROTARIAN, March 1963

"Set high personal standards. Make others aware we expect the same. Respect the pursuit of excellence. Recognize, dignify honest work."

— Renew the Spirit of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, July 1974

ROTARY PILLARS

The Four Way Test of the Things We Think Say or Do

1. Is it the TRUTH ?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

ROTARY CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Exemplify the core value of integrity in all behaviors and activities;
2. Use my vocational experience and talents to serve in Rotary;
3. Conduct all of my personal, business, and professional affairs ethically, encouraging and fostering high ethical standards as an example to others;
4. Be fair in all dealings with others and treat them with the respect due to them as fellow human beings;
5. Promote recognition and respect for all occupations which are useful to society;
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community;
7. Honor the trust that Rotary and fellow Rotarians provide and not do anything that will bring disfavor or reflect adversely on Rotary or fellow Rotarians;
8. Not seek from a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.

DECLARATION OF ROTARIANS IN BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONS

The Declaration of rotary in Business and Profession was adopted by the Rotary International Council on legislation in 1989 to Provide more specific guidelines for the high ethical standards called for the Object of Rotary.

As a Rotarian engaged in business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve.
2. Be faithful to the letter and to the spirit of the ethical codes of my vocation, to the laws of my country and to the moral standards of my community.
3. Do all in my power to dignity my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation.
4. Be fair to my employers, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all those with whom I have a business or professional relationship.
5. Recognized the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society.
6. Offer my vocational talents to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief of the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in the community.
7. Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession.
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.
