Invocation

Heavenly Father, we come to you today asking for your guidance, wisdom, and support as we begin this meeting. Help us to engage in meaningful discussion; allow us to grow closer as a group and nurture the bonds of community. Fill us with your grace, Lord God, as we make decisions that might affect the club. And continue to remind us that all that we do here today, all that we accomplish, is for the pursuit of truth for the greater glory of You, and for the service of humanity. We ask these things in your name, Amen.

LOVING THE PHILIPPINES

PP Ruben Robillo

The Philippines is a country so easy to love. One does not need to use a corny and expensive slogan to remind ourselves and convince visitors from other countries to come and love the Philippines. We are a country blessed with a constantly warm but breezy and comfortable climate, that, except perhaps for an occasional umbrella, one need not plan a whole different set of wardrobe just to travel around, except again, for the ubiquitous shorts and swimwear, to easily respond to the beckons of our alluring, lovely beaches.

Then there are the multitudes of culinary delights that are sure to surprise and entice those who may just have an adventurous yearning for fascinating foods. Due to the influence of so many countries and nationalities that have tramped thru our shores over the centuries, the Filipino cuisine is a marvelous blend of Spanish, Chinese, Indian, Western, European and even Middle Eastern tastes, classically emphasizing the uniquely Pinoy taste.. salty, with a touch of sour, spicy and sweet, overall delicious, tantalizing and memorable. And when you talk about food, one cannot avoid mentioning the exotic fruits that abound in roadside stalls and markets, all year round!

I had a chance to visit Turkey a few days ago, another beautiful country, rich in tradition and History, that too was a pleasure to visit. But I could'nt find a single banana! All they had were apples, apricots, peaches and grapes, as well as pomegranates, oranges, watermelon, figs and dates.. but no bananas! But we have all these too in our groceries..and more!

Our durian and mangosteen are to die for, as well as our pomelos, marangs, lanzones, bananas of course, and rambutan and buko, avocado, pineapple, papaya and mangoes, all succulent and mouthwatering, and sweet as sunrise and satisfying as a mountain spring. But let us not forget the best part. The people. We bicker, we complain and we constantly argue about practically anything. But underneath all that seemingly cranky facade is a smiling, funny, friendly and hospitable people, that no amount of external difficulties, trials and irritants, be they from poverty, calamities or governmental plunder and neglect, have thankfully, not been able to erase.

We have managed to remain a warm wonderful people in an equally warm and wonderful country, blessed with so many natural and God given wonders, treasures and talents. Let us not lose them, even as we share them with the rest of the world.

But for heaven's sake, can somebody, please improve our Airports!

But for heaven's sake, can somebody, please improve our Airports!

President's Page

Welcome to our second meeting for this Rotary year!

First and foremost, I want to express my sincere gratitude to each and every Rotarian who joined us for our last week's meeting. Your presence and active participation truly embody the essence of Rotary fellowship, and I am immensely grateful for your commitment to our club.

May B. Divino
President 2023 - 2024

Furthermore, I would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to those Rotarians who generously gave their time and support to the recent Bloodletting Event and Operation Tuli Community Service Project. Your dedication to improving the lives of others is both commendable and inspiring. Together, we have made a meaningful difference in the lives of our community members, and I couldn't be prouder to be a part of this compassionate and proactive Rotary family.

Looking ahead, I kindly ask for your continued support and enthusiasm for our upcoming activities. We have some exciting projects that will allow us to further serve our community and make a lasting impact. Your involvement and contributions will undoubtedly play a crucial role in helping us reach our goals.

Rotary is not just an organization; it is a force for positive change. As we unite in service, let us remember the fundamental principles of Rotary: service above self and the pursuit of a better world. Together, we can achieve remarkable feats and leave a lasting legacy in our beloved city of Davao.

Once again, I express my deepest gratitude to each of you for your unwavering commitment to Rotary's ideals and your continued support. It is an honor to serve as your President, and I eagerly look forward to working alongside you as we create a brighter future for our community.

ROTARY PILLARS

The Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Mission, Vision, and Philosophy

Mission. Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

Vision. To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community, and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship, and world peace.

Philosophy. "Service with Honor"

Rotary Words of Wisdom

"There is nothing intangible about Rotary: It is reality itself. To give is to receive; to lose oneself is to find oneself; to be happy is to serve. These are old truths...for the individual...and the mass, whether application be in the exchange of goods, toil, knowledge, or love."

- The Meaning of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, November 1921

"Rotary is so simple that many people do not understand it, and some even misunderstand it. Rotary is not a philosophy...not an all-embracing world point of view which answers every question...and satisfies all the dictates of the heart and mind. Rotary is merely an association of business and professional men united in the ideal of service."

- Address to 1938 Rotary Convention, San Francisco, CA, USA

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve.
2. Be faithful to the letter and the spirit of the ethical code of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and the moral standards of my community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation.
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all with whom I have a business or professional relationship.
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society.
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief to the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community.
7. Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession.
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.
