God, when we are challenged, guide us, when we are weary, energize us. May the work that we do and the way that we do it, bring hope, life and courage to all with whom we minister within the organization. Bless our club with wisdom and discernment, our members with commitment and compassion, our families with courage and strength. Rooted in Your love may Your face illuminate all activities done in Your name.*

Farm Tourism

PP Ruben Robillo

In a city like Davao, where agriculture plays a vital role not only in our economy, but even in our day to day sustenance, we have to be conscious of the need to assure the viability of our farms and farmers.

Merely relying on their profit from the sale of their produce may not always be adequate for the average farmer to provide for the basic needs of their family. Surely, there can be other ways to increase the earnings from their farm.

Farm tourism or agricultural tourism is one way. Many so called "city folks" have no experience in the excitement and fun, as well as education one can derive from a visit to the farm.

Aside from buying fruits and vegetables in their freshest state, newly harvested, or better yet, harvested by the consumer himself, they get to buy it cheaper, without the middleman's marked-up profit.

Being able to observe and participate in the planting, harvesting, feeding of animals, milking of cows, carabaos, or goats are unforgettable new experiences for both adults, and especially for the students.

Small farmers can form into larger cooperative farms that not only provide these experiences, (for a fee) but also amenities like accommodations, fresh foods, souvenir items, and even value added products such as cakes, pies, and jams. The fresh and unpolluted air, the greenery, the scenery, the friendly atmosphere, and the unhurried ambience in a farm setting are experiences one would like to have from time to time, especially in this fast-paced life we live.

We only need to promote this program to our students and the general population.

Perhaps the Rotary might be able to adopt a project as beneficial as this?

President's Page

May B. Divino
President 2023 - 2024

As we sail through the currents of our Rotary journey, I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you for your unwavering support and dedication to our club's activities and meetings.

In the past month, we have been actively engaged in several projects that truly exemplify our commitment to service above self. First and foremost, I would like to thank you all for your enthusiastic participation in our International Youth Day event. Your presence and support during my speech on youth empowerment left an indelible mark on our young participants, inspiring them to become leaders of positive change in our community and beyond.

Our dedication to education was also showcased through our Brigada Eskwela initiatives at Baliok Elementary School, Josefa Llanes Escoda Elementary School, and Lampa Lapidan Elementary School. Your generous donations of cleaning and painting tools have undoubtedly brightened the learning environments of countless students, creating a lasting impact on their education.

Furthermore, our "Bags To School" project was a resounding success, as we were able to provide essential school supplies to 173 students. Your contributions have not only lightened their financial burdens but have also instilled hope and enthusiasm in these young minds as they embark on their educational journeys.

I would also like to express my gratitude for your active participation in our recent meetings. From our regular luncheon meeting on August 10 to our Board Meeting on August 24 and the Special Meeting on August 26 to discuss our upcoming Charter Anniversary, your insights and commitment have been invaluable. Our fellowship gathering on August 31 was also a testament to the camaraderie and friendship that make our Rotary Club of Davao so special. These moments of togetherness strengthen our bonds and enhance our ability to serve our community effectively.

Looking ahead, we have a host of exciting activities planned for the coming month. Your continued participation and support are essential to their success. Let us march forward with renewed enthusiasm, knowing that together, we can achieve even greater heights of service and make a lasting impact in the lives of those we serve.

Thank you once again for your dedication and commitment to Rotary's ideals.

Together, we can truly make a difference.

ROTARY PILLARS

The Four-Way Test

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Rotary Code of Conduct

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life.
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect.
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world.
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities; report any suspected harassment; and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

ROTARY PILLARS

The Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Mission, Vision, and Philosophy

Mission. Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

Vision. To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community, and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship, and world peace.

Philosophy. "Service with Honor"

Rotary Words of Wisdom

"There is nothing intangible about Rotary: It is reality itself. To give is to receive; to lose oneself is to find oneself; to be happy is to serve. These are old truths...for the individual...and the mass, whether application be in the exchange of goods, toil, knowledge, or love."

- The Meaning of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, November 1921

"Rotary is so simple that many people do not understand it, and some even misunderstand it. Rotary is not a philosophy...not an all-embracing world point of view which answers every question...and satisfies all the dictates of the heart and mind. Rotary is merely an association of business and professional men united in the ideal of service."

- Address to 1938 Rotary Convention, San Francisco, CA, USA

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve.
2. Be faithful to the letter and the spirit of the ethical code of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and the moral standards of my community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation.
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all with whom I have a business or professional relationship.
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society.
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief to the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community.
7. Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession.
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.

85th Charter Anniversary

October 24, 2023 | La Herencia

Theme: BARBENHEIMER

Inspired by the recent Barbie and Oppenheimer movie.

Barbie- Based on the Barbie fashion dolls by Mattel. The central message is that patriarchy harms everyone, regardless of gender. A world that disregards men and their feelings is an inverted form of patriarchy and also cruel.

Oppenheimer- set in the 1930s-1940s based on Robert Oppenheimer's life story.

BarbEnheimer- A cultural phenomenon that began on the internet before the simultaneous theatrical release of the two blockbuster films. The word is a combination of the films' titles. The contrast of Barbie, a fantasy comedy, and Oppenheimer, a biographical thriller, prompted a comedic response from Internet users.
