Invocation

Dear Heavenly Father,

We come before you with hearts full of gratitude and thanksgiving. We lift our voices in prayer to express our deep appreciation for the Rotary Club of Davao and its dedicated members. We thank you for their unwavering and continuous support for the Club. May your blessings shower upon them as they selflessly contribute to the betterment of our community, and may their efforts be rewarded with success and fulfillment in all their endeavors. In your name, we pray.

Amen.

LOVE

PP Ruben Robillo

Among the myriads of man's emotions, particularly the ones that differentiate him from the rest of God's creations, Love is the one too often mistakenly used, to the point of abuse, exploitation, exaggeration, confusion and contradiction.

Many times, we use the word merely to emphasize simple liking, even just conformity to an event, ease or even pleasure over some mundane thing, with the oft used expression of "I love it"!, not bothering to realize the real meaning of the word.

Then there are the Politicians, who profess to love their constituents., so much so that they sacrifice their time, effort and money, to win an election, so they could have the opportunity to serve the people they so claim to "love". There is also that so called "lover boy". The scheming boyfriend who sets out to convince the girlfriend to sleep with him, just so they could prove their "love" for one another.

But the most ludicrous use of the word love, is when Governments and their leaders, order the bombing, shooting or killing of their perceived enemies and even innocent civilians, and claim to do it all for the love of freedom, country and even for the love of the Almighty! How, and where could love possibly fit into all these? It is because, in the course of our supposedly intelligent and selfish existence, we have lost the true intent and meaning of love, as a deep and sacred emotion, as an instrument of human and spiritual communication, and as an avenue for mutual understanding, peace and universal co-existence.

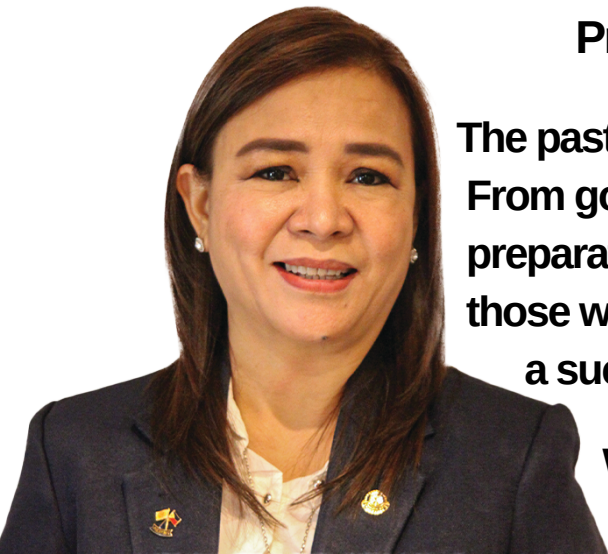

Love has become self centered, and has become an instrument for greed self satisfaction and aggrandizement. When Jesus was asked by the Pharisees, what the greatest commandment of God was, His answer was "First, love God above all things, with all your heart, with all your mind and all your strength, and second, love your neighbor as yourself".

Such simple and beautiful instructions, centered primarily on Love. How could we have lost the meaning of it?

President 2023 - 2024

The past few weeks have been both hectic and relaxing. From governor's visit to charter anniversary, the preparations weren't easy, that's why I'm very grateful to those who really showed their support to make both events a success.

We also had a groundbreaking ceremony at Lampa Lampidan Elementary School with our sister club, Rotary Club of Calamba last October 23. Together, we are building a playground, handwashing station, and heroes park to create a safe and inspiring space for the young minds of our community.

On the day of our charter anniversary, morning of October 24th, the City Council of Davao, thru Rtn. Councilor Enzo Villafuerte, passed a resolution recognizing and commending our club for reaching 85 years of service.

We also participated in District 3860's "Mental Health Awareness Campaign: Break The Stigma" last October 28. This initiative is instrumental in educating the public about the importance of mental health and offering support to those in need.

To cap off a busy week, we had the Rotakids Day and Fellowship last October 31. I'm glad that both adults and kids enjoyed the activity.

Numerous activities happened in the past few weeks, but it was also relaxing because during the holidays we were able to relax and unwind with our families. We have more upcoming activities for the next weeks, and I'm confident with your active participation.

Thank you once again my dearest Rotarians for your unending support. Let us continue with our mission of "service above self".

ROTARY PILLARS

The Four-Way Test

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Rotary Code of Conduct

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life.
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect.
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world.
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities; report any suspected harassment; and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

ROTARY PILLARS

The Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Mission, Vision, and Philosophy

Mission. Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

Vision. To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community, and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship, and world peace.

Philosophy. "Service with Honor"

Rotary Words of Wisdom

"There is nothing intangible about Rotary: It is reality itself. To give is to receive; to lose oneself is to find oneself; to be happy is to serve. These are old truths...for the individual...and the mass, whether application be in the exchange of goods, toil, knowledge, or love."

- The Meaning of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, November 1921

"Rotary is so simple that many people do not understand it, and some even misunderstand it. Rotary is not a philosophy...not an all-embracing world point of view which answers every question...and satisfies all the dictates of the heart and mind. Rotary is merely an association of business and professional men united in the ideal of service."

- Address to 1938 Rotary Convention, San Francisco, CA, USA

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve.
2. Be faithful to the letter and the spirit of the ethical code of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and the moral standards of my community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation.
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all with whom I have a business or professional relationship.
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society.
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief to the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community.
7. Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession.
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.
