Invocation

God,
We gather here today, acknowledging that our understanding often falls short. We have a vision, and we have ideas but we don't want to depend on our own understanding for solutions and the way forward. We know that though we make plans, You are ultimately the one who establishes our footsteps.

Help us to submit our plans to You, and to seek Your guidance. You know the areas where we are struggling to figure out what to do, or how to go about it. We ask that You clear our minds from anything that may distract us from our time together. We ask that You would graciously fill us with Your wisdom and understanding, and show us how to move forward.

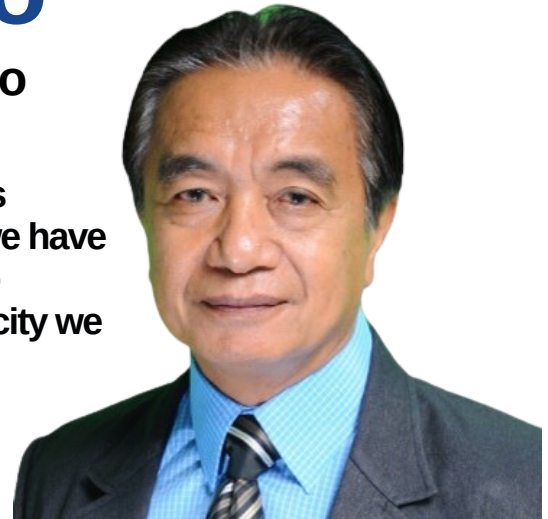

In Your name, we pray, amen.

My Davao

PP Ruben Robillo

Everything around us seems to be undergoing rapid changes nowadays that perhaps it's necessary to take stock of what we have now, as well as what we used to have, before we lose them to forgotten history and forever fail to appreciate the wonderful city we used to have.

I remember a Davao where people still smiled at each other, even among strangers. Life then wasn't so complex nor harried and competition was friendly. Respect was easily given as was courtesy. Crime rate in the city was low and Policemen functioned more to man traffic and assist pedestrians and motorists than to arrest. As such, they did not instill fear, but were loved and admired.

Just like its people, the weather in Davao was constantly cool and breezy, and air conditioning was not a necessity in houses and cars. Trees abounded in the city, growing between houses, between buildings and even along streets. Davao River was constantly clean and green, with children splashing on its banks, and for the more daring, even leaping from the bridge, to the deep clean water below. Weekends found families frolicking in the clean, beautiful beaches of Times beach, Talomo beach and Dumoy, where one could still buy fresh fish for lunch, from the fisher folk that lived there.

Traffic was unheard of. There was no need for malls. People leisurely strolled the commercial streets of San Pedro, Claveria and Uyanguren to shop from the variety of shops and stores run by enterprising batanguenos, chinese, pakistani and indian traders. One could also grab a bite to eat or watch a movie. Parties and Social events were held in homes of celebrants and rarely in hotels and convention halls. Barbecue and fried rice were favorite fares as were grilled fish, kinilaw and pansit, and of course lechon.

Illnesses like cancer, diabetes and hypertension were uncommon, and there was no HIV, no STD's and no drug problem. Traumatic and violent injuries were few and far between. Only amoebiasis was common. This was due to the primitive water system that Davao used to have, as we then relied more on the easily contaminated rain water for our drinking and washing needs. Most houses had rain water tanks as it almost always rained in Davao every night.

Now however, we have the best water in the country, thanks to our abundant supply of underground water. Thus, we are still a blessed city. But at the rate we are forcibly changing the natural landscape of our beloved city, without regard to preserving its once abundant resources, how long can we remain blessed?

May B. Divino
President 2023 - 2024

It's our third to the last meeting for the year, and I'm very grateful for your attendance and support. After our 14th Regular Luncheon Meeting last week, we went to Bago Gallera for a relief operation. We distributed relief goods, in partnership with Rotary Club of Makati, to the victims of the recent flood.

The next day, November 17, we had our signing of Memorandum of Agreement with REX Bookstore and Rotary Club of Makati for our "Books Across The Seas" Project.

Immediately the following day, we implemented the Davao leg for the "Ride To End Polio". Apart from the bike marathon, there was also an information session about polio and free polio vaccination. We were also able to provide snacks to participants with the help of our sponsors; Tycheros Fruits Trading, TADECO, and Unifrutti. We are beyond grateful for their contribution to the success of our event.

In the evening of November 18, just after the "Ride To End Polio", we celebrated The Rotary Foundation Night at Acacia Hotel. Donors for the TRF were recognized by the district. Many of our members were awarded for their selfless contribution to the club.

After a 2-day rest, we were back again in action. We attend the 34th International Children's Day Celebration at Abreeza, organized by Mindanao Peace council. We also distributed relief goods to the victims of the recent fire in Agdao. Special thanks to Rtn. Karen & Louie Fajardo for donating brandnew blankets.

Lastly, on the 21st of November, PP Dads, Rtn. Anna Marie, and I had a site inspection at Malabog, Paquibato District for our future WASH Project.

The past week was filled with consecutive events and projects, but I'm very motivated and thankful because we have very active and supportive members.

From the bottom of my heart, thank you so much!

ROTARY PILLARS

The Four-Way Test

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Rotary Code of Conduct

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life.
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect.
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world.
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities; report any suspected harassment; and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

ROTARY PILLARS

The Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Mission, Vision, and Philosophy

Mission. Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

Vision. To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community, and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship, and world peace.

Philosophy. "Service with Honor"

Rotary Words of Wisdom

"There is nothing intangible about Rotary: It is reality itself. To give is to receive; to lose oneself is to find oneself; to be happy is to serve. These are old truths...for the individual...and the mass, whether application be in the exchange of goods, toil, knowledge, or love."

- The Meaning of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, November 1921

"Rotary is so simple that many people do not understand it, and some even misunderstand it. Rotary is not a philosophy...not an all-embracing world point of view which answers every question...and satisfies all the dictates of the heart and mind. Rotary is merely an association of business and professional men united in the ideal of service."

- Address to 1938 Rotary Convention, San Francisco, CA, USA

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve.
2. Be faithful to the letter and the spirit of the ethical code of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and the moral standards of my community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation.
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all with whom I have a business or professional relationship.
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society.
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief to the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community.
7. Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession.
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.

Thank you for taking time to join us last November 16 luncheon meeting. it was fun as always!
