Invocation

Dear Heavenly Father,

As we gather today for another regular luncheon meeting, we come before You with hearts filled with gratitude and anticipation. We thank You for the privilege of being part of this esteemed organization, where service above self is not just a motto but a way of life.

Bless our time together as we share fellowship, exchange ideas, and plan for the betterment of our community. Grant us wisdom, discernment, and a spirit of unity as we discuss matters that impact the lives of those we serve.

We ask for Your guidance in all our endeavors, that our actions may reflect the values of Rotary – promoting peace, goodwill, and understanding. May our efforts contribute to the well-being of others, and may our collective impact be a beacon of hope in our beloved country.

In Your name, we pray. Amen.

Forecasting 2024

PP Ruben Robillo

For a politically fanatic country like the Philippines, this year seems to become another interesting and entertaining, though difficult year for most of us. Already power hungry political leaders are showing restlessness, trying to find ways to assure their continuity in their positions, or a further increase in their seats of influence. Loyalties are being tossed around, seeking the most stable and powerful ally to align with.

The once formidable Duterte empire is starting to show cracks and subtle signs of weakness and insecurities, and hyenas and other political predators are starting to smell blood and are slowly moving in for the kill. Even the newly entrenched present leadership is being questioned by many sectors as to its legitimacy, forcing their leaders to round up their wagons, woo their present constituents and renew their call for loyalty. New and ambitious players are of course living up to respond to this call and trying to make themselves noticed and felt.

Even the constitution has started to be the target of change, as incumbent leaders explore extralegal ways to stay in power much longer than was constitutionally allowed. And the citizenry is thrilled watching a real, live political telenovela as it is daily played on the news and even in social media. But even as these soap operas are unfolding, other fore boding events are likewise happening locally and worldwide. Nature is once again showing its temper as earthquakes, storms, floods and other catastrophes have started to manifest themselves with more frequency and intensity. These events are happening not just locally but also globally. With nature's fury wreaking havoc with death and destruction in many countries, both developed and underdeveloped. And looking at the geopolitical picture, globally, the threat of a bigger war seems to be becoming more imminent, as powerful countries like the US, Russia, China, Ukraine, Israel and the rest of the middle east are stubbornly flexing their muscles against each other in a crazy game of international arm wrestling, threatening to spill over to their other allied countries as well.

We seem to be looking at grim scenarios unfolding this year and beyond. Thankfully, there is Rotary. The only shimmering light in a humanity blinded by hatred and greed. Let us hope that the services we continue to render, even above ourselves, somehow inspire some hardened hearts, to seek the way of compassion and understanding, as the best way to achieve peace and prosperity worldwide.

President 2023 - 2024

Dear Esteemed Rotarians,

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to those who attended our recent luncheon meeting, featuring the insightful Dr. Tiffany Atega as our guest speaker, who is also now our newly-inducted member. It was indeed a very engaging meeting.

Last week's fellowship, where we celebrated the birthdays of our January celebrants and inducted five new members, was a remarkable occasion. To all who participated, thank you for making it a joyous and memorable event. Welcoming new members into our Rotary family strengthens our bonds and expands our capacity to serve our community. Their presence also adds to the vibrancy of our club, and we look forward to their active participation.

I would also like to share with you that I am honored to represent our club in the Mindanao Peace Council's 1st Coordination Meeting, held last January 25. Collaborating with various government agencies and NGOs underscores Rotary's commitment to fostering peace and cooperation in our region. I look forward to sharing insights from this meeting with you in our upcoming activities.

Furthermore, a heartfelt thank you to those who joined the relief operation in Brgy. Napnapan, Pantukan, Davao de Oro, last January 27. Your generous donations and support are a testament to the compassionate spirit of Rotary. Together, we made a meaningful impact in aiding those affected by the recent flash flood.

As we continue our journey of service, let's carry forward the momentum and enthusiasm. Our collective efforts are making a positive difference, and I am proud to be part of a club with such dedicated and caring members.

Thank you for your commitment, and I look forward to our continued collaboration in service!

ROTARY PILLARS

The Four-Way Test

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Rotary Code of Conduct

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life.
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect.
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world.
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities; report any suspected harassment; and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

ROTARY PILLARS

The Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Mission, Vision, and Philosophy

Mission. Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

Vision. To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community, and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship, and world peace.

Philosophy. "Service with Honor"

Rotary Words of Wisdom

"There is nothing intangible about Rotary: It is reality itself. To give is to receive; to lose oneself is to find oneself; to be happy is to serve. These are old truths...for the individual...and the mass, whether application be in the exchange of goods, toil, knowledge, or love."

- The Meaning of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, November 1921

"Rotary is so simple that many people do not understand it, and some even misunderstand it. Rotary is not a philosophy...not an all-embracing world point of view which answers every question...and satisfies all the dictates of the heart and mind. Rotary is merely an association of business and professional men united in the ideal of service."

- Address to 1938 Rotary Convention, San Francisco, CA, USA

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve.
2. Be faithful to the letter and the spirit of the ethical code of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and the moral standards of my community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation.
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all with whom I have a business or professional relationship.
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society.
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief to the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community.
7. Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession.
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.
