As we gather for our Rotary Club of Davao's regular luncheon meeting, we pause to acknowledge Your presence in our midst. We thank You for the opportunity to come together as Rotarians, united in our commitment to service and fellowship.

Bless our time together today as we discuss matters of importance to our community and plan projects aimed at making a meaningful impact. Grant us wisdom as we seek to address the needs of those around us and the courage to act with compassion and integrity.

May our discussions be marked by respect, our decisions guided by fairness, and our actions inspired by love. Strengthen the bonds of friendship and camaraderie among us, and may our efforts bring hope and positive change to our city of Davao.

In Your name, we pray. Amen.

The Paradoxical Pinoy

PP Ruben Robillo

Filipino are an enigmatic lot. Even for us locals, we find it quite difficult to exactly identify ourselves. We can be passionate and courageous at times, then suddenly, meek and passive in another time. Take the EDSA People Power Revolution for one. Borne out of frustration, anger and a strong sense of nationalism, suddenly, in just a matter of days, Filipinos from all walks of life, marched out into the streets by the hundreds of thousands, braving the possible military onslaught, armed only with the strong faith in God and optimistic heroism and bloodlessly drove out of Malacañang and out of the country, a long sitting dictator, his family and his cronies.

However, just a few years later, we welcomed them back with open arms even forgive them their previous crimes and even handed back to them political power and the keys to the Malacañang palace. Are we so kind as to forgive and reward? Or are we so dumb as to forget? The famous philosopher George Santayana once said “those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it”. Though Santayana died in the early 1950’s he might as well have been talking about the present state of affairs in the Philippines, as we are slowly again repeating the sorrows of our past. And talking about dumb, the Filipinos were once and still are known to be the smartest people in the world. Not too many years ago the level of academic excellence in our universities were among the top compared to the other universities worldwide. Outside of the US and the UK, the Philippines had the highest number of English speaking peoples in the world. Our doctors, nurses and other professionals and artists who ventured to work abroad, have all excelled in their respective fields. Other countries were sending their students here to study English, nursing, medicine, agriculture and even aviation.

Economically we were even dubbed as they emerging Economic Tiger of Asia. That was just a few years ago. But now our economy is in shambles. We cannot even sustain our agriculture to feed ourselves and have to rely on importation of rice and other food commodities. Even our education has suffered tremendously, as latest surveys show that we have dropped to some of the lowest academic standards worldwide. But still we refused to learn. We still insist on following our tribal instincts and treat our leaders and even their families as gods, and accord to them our blind and perpetual loyalty, even as our children, our society, and our culture are dying due to their selfish, and unthinking, and misguided priorities.

Can we please snap out of this reverie and again be the people that Rizal and Ninoy willingly gave their lives for?

May B. Divino
President 2023 - 2024

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

As we reflect on the past weeks, I am filled with gratitude for the incredible dedication and participation from each of you in our club's activities. We began with our 22nd Regular Luncheon Meeting, featuring Mr. Vince Molejon from the Mindanao Peace Council, who shared invaluable insights on peacebuilding.

The Rotary Week commenced with a motorcade, followed by a solemn mass and the Rotary Exhibit at Abreeza, marking the 119th Anniversary of Rotary International. On the 2nd day, Empowering Women at Talikala was a highlight, with Ms. Katrina Diano Vandebroek, RPsy, RPM, serving as our esteemed guest speaker. The same day, we had a MOA signing with Brgy. Matina Aplaya for our area adoption for mangrove planting. The next day, we had a mangrove planting in the said adopted area in Brgy. Matina Aplaya, and earning acknowledgment from the Davao City Council during their regular session for the commendable efforts of Rotary District 3860 Areas 2A, 2B, & 2C.

On the 5th day was the badminton and basketball tournament, wherein our very own VP Filipina Liban and Rtn. Tiffany Atega won as champion in the badminton women double, and VP Filipina and Rtn. Richard Liban won 1st runner-up in the mixed category. Congratulations to you three and thank you for proudly representing our club! The following day, the Peace Forum featured distinguished guest speakers, Ret. Police Lt. Colonel Angel Sumagaysay and ASEC Renato Pedro O. Villa, fostering meaningful dialogue on peace and security. Lastly on day 7, the Job Fair which was assigned to our club was a huge success with over 900+ applicant! A heartfelt thank you to PESO, NCCC, and to all sponsors who made the Job Fair possible, empowering our community members with valuable opportunities.

We concluded the month by celebrating the birthdays of February celebrants and acknowledging the achievements of the Paul Harris & Polio Plus Society members. It was a hectic week and the fellowship was a well-deserved treat. I extend my deepest appreciation to all members who participated and supported these activities. Your unwavering dedication and commitment truly exemplify the spirit of Rotary.

Let's continue to make a positive impact in our community as we move forward. Thank you for your continued support and enthusiasm.

ROTARY PILLARS

The Four-Way Test

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Rotary Code of Conduct

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life.
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect.
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world.
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities; report any suspected harassment; and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

ROTARY PILLARS

The Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Mission, Vision, and Philosophy

Mission. Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

Vision. To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community, and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship, and world peace.

Philosophy. "Service with Honor"

Rotary Words of Wisdom

"There is nothing intangible about Rotary: It is reality itself. To give is to receive; to lose oneself is to find oneself; to be happy is to serve. These are old truths...for the individual...and the mass, whether application be in the exchange of goods, toil, knowledge, or love."

- The Meaning of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, November 1921

"Rotary is so simple that many people do not understand it, and some even misunderstand it. Rotary is not a philosophy...not an all-embracing world point of view which answers every question...and satisfies all the dictates of the heart and mind. Rotary is merely an association of business and professional men united in the ideal of service."

- Address to 1938 Rotary Convention, San Francisco, CA, USA

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve.
2. Be faithful to the letter and the spirit of the ethical code of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and the moral standards of my community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation.
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all with whom I have a business or professional relationship.
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society.
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief to the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community.
7. Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession.
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.
