Invocation

Gracious God,

As we prepare to gather once again for our meeting, we come before You with hearts filled with gratitude and anticipation. We thank You for the opportunity to serve our community and for the bonds of friendship that unite us as Rotarians.

As we convene, we ask for Your guidance and wisdom to permeate our discussions and decisions. Grant us insight as we explore ways to address the challenges facing our city and seek to make a positive impact in the lives of those around us.

Bless each member present with a spirit of compassion, generosity, and unity. May our interactions be marked by kindness, understanding, and mutual respect, fostering an environment where ideas flourish and collaboration thrives.

May our efforts be guided by the principles of Rotary – service above self – and may they bring about meaningful change in our community and beyond. We offer this meeting to You, trusting in Your providence and grace. Amen.

HOPE

PP Ruben Robillo

As Filipinos, we are an optimistically hopeful people. We always tend to look at the possible, positive outcome of things. That is why, expressions like "God Willing", "Inshallah", "hinaot unta" are commonly used, hoping for some Divine intervention, to lead to a positive outcome of any activity or undertaking.

While the past week, the Lenten Week, may have instilled a dark mood of guilt and contrition, self-flagellation and remorse, for our past weaknesses and shortcomings, the Happy arrival of Easter has brought with it, a wonderful promise of Hope even amidst all of life's travails and challenges, not only in this life, but especially in the anticipated eternal life.

In these trying and difficult times, when all around us we see fear, uncertainty and distrust. When there seems to be no end to man's greed and penchant for violence and crime, Easter brings Hope and Promise that there will always be a better tomorrow. That in spite of our weaknesses and tendency to self-destruct, God's goodness, mercy and compassion, will eventually prevail.

Happy Easter everyone.

President's Page

May B. Divino
President 2023 - 2024

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

I want to extend my sincere gratitude to each and every one of you who attended our last regular luncheon meeting. Your presence and active participation made the gathering truly meaningful, especially as we had Ms. Leana Sanga from Philippine Airlines as our Guest Speaker, sharing invaluable insights.

I also want to express my appreciation to those who joined the fellowship last March 31 during PP Dads' birthday celebration, even though I couldn't make it. I'm sure that your camaraderie and warm spirits made the occasion even more special.

In the past weeks, our club has been actively engaged in various activities aimed at making a positive impact in our community. Firstly, I would like to thank everyone who supported our Mystique Catwalk For A Cause event on March 7. The event, benefiting children with disabilities through Parents Mobilization Actions Group, was a true testament to the generosity and compassion of our club members.

Additionally, our Press Conference held last March 21 at SM Ecoland, with special thanks to Sunstar Davao and Edge Davao, was a great success. This event promotion was instrumental in the overall success of our Open Golf Tournament last March 23, held at Apo Golf. It was another memorable event. I extend my heartfelt thanks to our sponsors, organizing team, and all the participants for their contributions towards making the tournament a resounding success.

As we approach the end of the Rotary year, I urge all members to remain active and engaged. Despite the challenges we may face, let us continue to uphold the spirit of Rotary and work together towards our shared goals of service and community impact. Thank you once again for your dedication and commitment to Rotary's ideals. I look forward to seeing you all at our next activities.

ROTARY PILLARS

The Four-Way Test

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Rotary Code of Conduct

As a Rotarian, I will

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life.
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect.
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world.
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities; report any suspected harassment; and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

ROTARY PILLARS

The Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Mission, Vision, and Philosophy

Mission. Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

Vision. To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community, and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship, and world peace.

Philosophy. "Service with Honor"

Rotary Words of Wisdom

"There is nothing intangible about Rotary: It is reality itself. To give is to receive; to lose oneself is to find oneself; to be happy is to serve. These are old truths...for the individual...and the mass, whether application be in the exchange of goods, toil, knowledge, or love."

- The Meaning of Rotary, THE ROTARIAN, November 1921

"Rotary is so simple that many people do not understand it, and some even misunderstand it. Rotary is not a philosophy...not an all-embracing world point of view which answers every question...and satisfies all the dictates of the heart and mind. Rotary is merely an association of business and professional men united in the ideal of service."

- Address to 1938 Rotary Convention, San Francisco, CA, USA

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve.
2. Be faithful to the letter and the spirit of the ethical code of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and the moral standards of my community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation.
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all with whom I have a business or professional relationship.
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society.
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief to the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community.
7. Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession.
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.
