INVOCATION

Heavenly Father,

We come before You today with thankful hearts, grateful for the fellowship that gathers us and the shared spirit of service that unites us as Rotarians. We thank You for the strength, direction, and friendships that motivate us to continue serving our community with purpose.

Bless this meeting, Lord. May our discussions be led by wisdom, our choices guided by compassion, and our efforts grounded in sincerity and a true spirit of service above self. Teach us to approach every responsibility with humility and a heartfelt desire to help others.

Bless every Rotarian gathered here today, and may this time together strengthen our dedication to creating a positive and meaningful difference in the lives we serve.

We entrust this gathering, and all that we seek to achieve, to Your loving guidance and care.

Amen.

Passport clubs offer ticket to flexibility

By Arnold R. Grahl Summarized

Rotary's passport clubs are emerging as an innovative alternative for members seeking greater flexibility without losing their connection to service. Designed to accommodate busy schedules and changing lifestyles, these clubs allow members to attend meetings less frequently, visit other Rotary clubs, and engage in service projects in ways that suit them best.

For longtime Rotarians like Marco Cecala and Rebecca Wilks, the passport model provided a practical solution when distance made regular attendance difficult. After relocating more than 25 miles from the nearest club, they discovered a passport club that met online only once a month. The more relaxed structure and openness to different forms of participation gave them a renewed sense of belonging and reaffirmed their commitment to Rotary.

Passport clubs are also proving effective in retaining members who might otherwise leave due to time constraints or rigid meeting requirements. By offering flexible attendance policies and varied meeting formats, these clubs appeal to professionals, entrepreneurs, and individuals balancing multiple responsibilities. They also create an inviting option for former members who wish to reconnect with Rotary in a more manageable way.

Beyond flexibility, passport clubs encourage broader engagement. Members are often motivated to visit other clubs, learn from different projects, and build connections across districts and even internationally. This exposure fosters fresh ideas, strengthens collaboration, and allows members to act as ambassadors for causes they are passionate about.

Globally, clubs in places such as New Zealand and Denmark have successfully adopted this model, often growing their membership by focusing on adaptability and relevance. Meetings may be shorter, project-based, or even integrated into service activities, while costs are kept minimal by eliminating traditional meal-based gatherings.

Ultimately, passport clubs demonstrate that Rotary can evolve without losing its core values. By redefining how members participate, they offer a more inclusive, dynamic, and sustainable approach—ensuring that service, fellowship, and impact remain accessible to a wider and more diverse community.

President 2025-2026

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

As we continue advancing through Rotary Year 2025–2026, our commitment to fellowship and service remains the foundation of everything we do. Each gathering and activity strengthens not only our connection as a club but also our shared purpose of making a meaningful difference in the lives of others.

Last March 19, 2026, we came together for our 14th Luncheon Meeting at Rekado Filipino Comfort Cuisine, where we once again nurtured camaraderie and exchanged valuable ideas that guide our service initiatives. This was followed by a warm and engaging fellowship on March 26 at Aulson's Café, giving members another opportunity to reconnect and strengthen relationships beyond our formal meetings.

On March 30, we celebrated a special Birthday Fellowship Dinner hosted by PP Diosdado Mahipus at Angel's Hideaway. It was a memorable evening filled with gratitude, laughter, and appreciation, reminding us of the strong personal bonds that make our Rotary family truly unique.

Continuing into April, we gathered on April 9 for a Best Ball Tournament Birthday Fellowship hosted by PP Ferdinand Marañon at Rancho Palos Verdes. This activity combined fellowship and friendly competition, fostering teamwork and reinforcing the spirit of unity among members.

On April 16, we held another fellowship at Woobly Pan Spanish Bistro, where we enjoyed meaningful conversations over a shared meal—an essential part of sustaining our connection as Rotarians. Simultaneously, from April 16 to 18, several of our members participated in the PEL-SELS/DTLS CLLS 2026 held at The Farm, Carpenter Hill in Koronadal City. This leadership event provided valuable learning experiences, equipping our members with knowledge and inspiration to better serve our club and community.

These recent activities highlight the balance we strive to maintain between fellowship, leadership development, and service. Each moment we spend together—whether in meetings, celebrations, or training—builds a stronger, more dynamic Rotary club.

As we move forward, may we continue to actively participate, support one another, and embrace every opportunity to grow and serve. Let us carry forward this momentum with enthusiasm and dedication, ensuring that our Rotary year remains impactful, meaningful, and true to our guiding principle of Service Above Self.

Winn Htun
President, Rotary Club of Davao 2025-2026

The Four-Way Test

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Rotary Code of Conduct

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life.
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect.
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world.
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.
5. Help maintain a harassment-free environment in Rotary meetings, events, and activities; report any suspected harassment; and help ensure non-retaliation to those individuals that report harassment.

The Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Mission, Vision, and Philosophy

Mission. Maintaining the status of RCD as an institution in the family of Rotary International organizations and leaving a legacy of improved quality of life and livable community.

Vision. To contribute our time, resources, efforts to our community, and develop, share, nurture our future generations for love, friendship, and world peace.

Philosophy. "Service with Honor"

Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions

As a Rotarian in a business or profession, I am expected to:

1. Consider my vocation to be another opportunity to serve.
2. Be faithful to the letter and the spirit of the ethical code of my vocation, to the laws of my country, and the moral standards of my community.
3. Do all in my power to dignify my vocation and to promote the highest ethical standards in my chosen vocation.
4. Be fair to my employer, employees, associates, competitors, customers, the public and all with whom I have a business or professional relationship.
5. Recognize the honor and respect due to all occupations which are useful to society.
6. Offer my vocational talents: to provide opportunities for young people, to work for the relief to the special needs of others, and to improve the quality of life in my community.
7. Adhere to honesty in my advertising and in all representations to the public concerning my business or profession.
8. Neither seek from nor grant to a fellow Rotarian a privilege or advantage not normally accorded others in a business or professional relationship.
