a Profound Way to Celebrate Christmas

RAFAEL "PAENG" ORILLANA

RCDN Rotary Foundation
Chairman
RY 2021-2022

CHRISTMAS FOR RCDN in 2021 has not been festive and merry. We had to forego with sumptuous meals, gifts, and merriment because of Odette's wrath, which left behind a trail of destruction to all within its reach. Some of our brother Rotarians were not spared, but at least the destruction they endured did not include loss of life and limb.

But a deeper reflection on the catastrophe would give us some profound spiritual inputs. Many argue the wisdom of why God allowed a specific group of people to be worst-hit by Odette, while others were spared. Some opined that it is not proper for those who are spared to thank God only for it, because it would mean conversely that you thank God for destroying others instead of you. A more profound Christian perspective would be that some of us were spared from the catastrophe, so that we in turn can be there to help those who suffered much.

That to my mind is the essence of Christmas: selfless, genuine love and concern for fellowmen, just as God selflessly gave his only son to save us from the eternal damnation. Indeed, a most unique, yet a most meaningful way to celebrate Christmas.

We missed the lechon, the sweets, the overflowing drinks, the games, and the fun of a Christmas party. But I'd like to think that we also experienced the fun, the thrill, and the excitement of being able to help brothers in need of immediate assistance. This, my brothers, is perhaps the most profound Christmas celebration our club has ever had.

Let us thank God for sparing most of us from disaster, but we thank Him for that because it enabled us to gather scarce resources and to provide immediate relief assistance to our hardest hit brethren. It enabled us to render service above self.

To all of us who actively participated in whatever manner the relief operations in Manjuyod, Bindoy, Ayungon, and Tayasan, may God bless us all with better health and stronger commitment to help others in the coming years.

Happy New Year brothers!!!
