The Words We Say...

RTN. NATHAN JOSEPH P. RAMACHO

"To Encourage and Foster the Ideal of Service as a Basis of Worthy Enterprise." The First Fourteen Words of the Object of Rotary.

ALTHOUGH I DID not pay much attention in High School, one phrase that I can never forget from my English Teacher was "Words have meaning." He repeated this constantly. At the time, I thought this was the most pointless concept that a teacher could explain to us, and I started to question whether or not my parents made a mistake in paying tuition for this school. Of course, words have meaning; that's elementary, I thought to myself. I only fully appreciated what my teacher meant as I grew older.

Every day, from morning to night, we are inundated with words, spoken to and received from, our family, friends, clients, strangers, customers, and even with ourselves. Often times, the words we use throughout the day lose its meaning, or more importantly its authenticity, especially when it is during a routinary engagement—"Good morning," "thank you," "come again," "you're welcome", "See you later." We say it, but do we genuinely mean it; or is just part of a routine.

I hope that when I read the Object of Rotary and the Four-Way Test during our meetings, I submit those words with authenticity, meaning, and understanding...not just simply a faithful reproduction of the original, but the original. I strive to say what I mean, and mean what I say.

For me, the first fourteen words of the Object of Rotary intends to inspire us, though our community projects effectuating a normalization of selflessness. This selflessness and service in favor of the community is enhanced because of our profession, trade, skill, or industry. Moreover, because of Rotary's Object towards selfless-service, this becomes the standard not only in our professional life, but in our personal life as well.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Good Evening Brother Rotarians!

Tonight we are having our Regular Meeting here at FIKA Resto Bar. I would like to personally thank Dir. Gido Alcantara for the venue and to all Brother who are here now for the Regular Meeting.

Last July 24, we conducted our "ROTARY DAY OF SERVICE - BLOOD LETTING ACTIVITY." It was a successful project and together with RCDS, we were able to collect 27 bags of blood. Special Mention is given to PP PAeng, PE Chester, Rtn. Nathan and Sps. Vitche for personally donating blood. Majority of our donors are those brought by PP Neming and Sps. Etta, Rtn. Nestor, Rtn. Tony Rems, Dir. Greg, IPP Nilo, and PP Wolfie. To all those who came and supported the activity, especially to spouses Vitche, Ivy, Susan and Jocelyn -- Thank You! Your support in the our Blood Letting Activity just shows our commitment to the Club and all its endeavors. CHEERS!

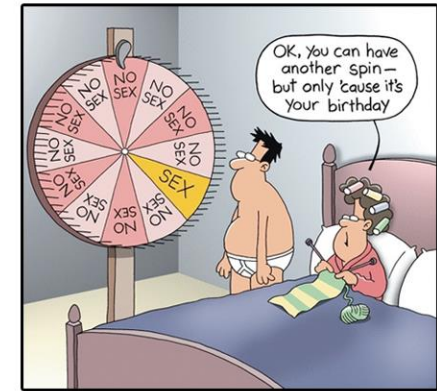

- Mark Anthony

ENTERTAINMENT CORNER

Two elderly women were eating breakfast in a restaurant one morning.

Ethel noticed something funny about Mabel's ear and she said, "Mabel, did you know you've got a suppository in your left ear?" Mabel answered,

"I have a suppository?" She pulled it out and stared at it. Then she said, "Ethel, I'm glad you saw this thing. Now I think I know where my hearing aid is."

TWO OLDER GENTLEMEN, Fred and Sam, went to see a movie. Merely minutes into the movie, Sam heard Fred rustling around. It appeared that he was reaching under all of the seats. "What on earth are you doing, Fred?" asked Sam. Fred indignantly responded, "I had a caramel in my mouth and it dropped out. I'm trying to find it!" Annoyed, Sam told him not to worry about it — they could get him another caramel later since that one was ruined by now. "But I've got to," said Fred, exasperated. "My teeth are in it!"

ROTARY HYMN

I want to be, A Rotarian for the world

REPEAT REFRAIN
