The Road Taken...

SEC. RODELIO SOLON

In my college days, I have been approached and recruited to be a member of several fraternities and club organizations. Always, but politely, I would decline. I have a thousand reasons to decline. Most however are superficial and plain excuses not to join any groups.

Couched in different excuses, and hidden on those reasons, was my personal disdain to work with a group of strangers. I have been raised to be independent, to carry every burden on my own shoulder, to do things on my own way. So, I choose not to be part of any brotherhood or social group. Those were the roads not taken.

Until I joined the brotherhood of the Rotary. At first, my natural disposition and reticence took over. Like a frightened turtle, I tried to hide behind my shell. Pretending that everything was just a part of a dream, and nothing more. I thought, that I could always wake up and get out of the group.

But the warm attitude and friendliness of my brother Rotarians, and their genuine desire to serve the community in any way they can, became the catalyst of change. And now, like a fearless eagle, I tried to soar in the free sky. Hoping that I, too, may be able to serve and share my blessings back with the community. This is the road I have taken, and one in which I have no regrets.

ENTERTAINMENT CORNER

A lawyer defending a man accused of burglary tried this creative defense: "My client merely inserted his arm into the window and removed a few trifling articles. His arm is not himself, and I fail to see how you can punish the whole individual for an offense committed by his limb." "Well put," the judge replied. "Using your logic, I sentence the defendant's arm to one year's imprisonment. He can accompany it or not, as he chooses." The defendant smiled. With his lawyer's assistance, he detached his artificial limb, laid it on the bench, and walked out.

Lawyer: Now that you have been acquitted, will you tell me truly: Did you steal the car? Client: After hearing your amazing argument in court this morning. I'm beginning to think I didn't.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Good evening Brother Rotarians and Spouses!

Welcome to our 6th Regular Meeting for RY 2022-2023. On Sunday, August 28, we will be having our "Brigada Eskwela, Optical and Legal Mission, and Citronella Awareness Campaign" at Calango Elementary School in Zamboangita. RCDN is expecting to give school materials to more than 200 students and extend our Legal and Optical Services. to the teachers and parents of the students of Calango Elementary School. This is a great opportunity for us to be able to help the parents and children as they transition to face-to-face learning.

In addition, RCDN will continue its Citronella Awareness Campaign in Calango, led by Director Max Tenorio. This campaign will help keep school premises free from disease carrying mosquitoes and insects.

We are hoping for a successful activity in Sunday and as a club we continue to be of service to those who need us. CHEERS!
