The Rotary Foundation's Beginning

I'M A PROUD
DONOR

SOME MAGNIFICENT PROJECTS grow from very small seeds. The Rotary Foundation had that sort of modest beginning.

In 1917 RI President Arch Klumph told the delegates to the Atlanta Convention that "it seems eminently proper that we should accept endowments for the purpose of doing good in the world." The response was polite and favorable, but the fund was slow to materialize. A year later the the "Rotary Endowment Fund," as it was first labeled, received its first contribution of $26.50 from the Rotary Club of Kansas City , which was the balance of the Kansas City Convention account following the 1918 annual meeting. Additional small amounts were annually contributed, but after six years it is reported that the endowment fund had only reached $700. A decade later, The Rotary Foundation was formally established at the 1928 Minneapolis Convention. In the next four years the Foundation fund grew to $50,000. In 1937 a $2 million goal was announced for The Rotary Foundation, but these plans were cut short and abandoned with the outbreak of World War II.

In 1947, upon the death of Paul Harris, a new era opened for the Rotary Foundation as memorial gifts poured in to honor the founder of Rotary. From that time, The Rotary Foundation has been achieving its noble objective of furthering "understanding and friendly relations between peoples of different nations." By 1954 the Foundation received for the first time a half million dollars in contributions in a single year, and in 1965 a million dollars was received.

It is staggering to imagine that from those humble beginnings, The Rotary Foundation is now receiving more than $85 million each year for educational and humanitarian work around the world.

ENTERTAINMENT CORNER

Son, when I was your age there was no social media. You had to go to a bar and buy endless drinks to be ignored by multiple women.

A man walks into a bar and orders a shot of whiskey then looks into his pocket. He does this over and over again. Finally, the bartender asks why he orders a shot of whiskey and afterwards look into his pocket. The man responded, "I have a picture of my wife in there and when she starts to look good then i'll go home."

I just read an article about the dangers of drinking that scared the crap out of me. That's it. No more reading!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to month of November Brother Rotarians! November is "Rotary Foundation Month" in Rotary where Rotary International highlights the importance of and need of every Rotarian's support of the Rotary Foundation.

There are many ways for every Rotarian to support the Rotary Foundation. One of which is being a Paul Harris Fellow. We also the Every Rotarian Every Year (EREY) where a Rotarians giving to the Annual Fund is $25, among others. Being in RCDN means that we are part of an international organization that help solve global problems and our support to the Rotary Foundation helps is providing clean water, support education, care for the sick, build shelters (among others) to people around the world.

Locally, we have our projects that help contribute to our society. This month, we champion our children by supporting the Children's Day Activity on November 10. As part of supporting education, RCDN will also be donating computers to Calango Elementary School. Our projects help make a better world for our children and we continue to do so guided by Rotarian principles.

ROTARY HYMN

I want to be a Rotarian for the world
 Make the Rotary flag as a flag of peace unfurled;
 I shall serve my community,
 Help achieve universal unity
 Through Rotary, I shall dedicate my all,
 World understanding shall be my cherished goal.

REFRAIN: With the Four Way Test
 I'll pursue my quest
 And if I, in a way help obtain
 Peace in the world
 Then I shall not have lived in vain.

I'll observe service above self,
 Lend a hand to all who need my help;
 I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
 And in Rotary ways I will train my family.
 (REFRAIN)

Build a bridge for tomorrow's youth,
 Strengthened by nothing but the truth
 Let's join our hands, there's no reason to divide.
 We shall all understand, while the good
 Lord is our guide. (REFRAIN)

CODA: Peace be achieved,
 We shall not have lived in vain.
