THE OBJECT OF ROTARY

THE OBJECT OF ROTARY is to encourage and foster the Ideal of Service as a basis of worthy enterprise, and in particular, to encourage and foster:

First: The development of acquaintance as opportunity for Service.

Second: High Ethical Standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

Third: The application of the Ideal of Service in each Rotarian's Personal, business, and community life.

Fourth: The advancement of International Understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the Ideal of Service.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST OF THE THINGS WE THINK, SAY OR DO

- 1. IS IT THE TRUTH?
- 2. IS IT FAIR TO ALL CONCERNED?
- 3. WILL IT BUILD GOODWILL AND BETTER FRIENDSHIP?
- 4. WILL IT BE BENEFICIAL TO ALL CONCERNED?

He's my brother

by DIR. GREG KONKE

I WOULD LIKE to share A story that goes all the way back to the Vietnam War.I know that is long ago, but I was in high school at the time in the USA. This story, may be a little different as memories fade with the passage of time.

Buddy and James were 2 American soldiers fighting in a very dangerous zone in the jungle of Vietnam. It was a dangerous area because the area was a stronghold for the Viet Cong. Close fighting happened almost everyday or night. Buddy and James had grown up together in a small New York town, played on the same football team since they were very young boys and were closer than some brothers. By happenstance, they wound up serving in the same outfit in Vietnam.

One evening Buddy came in from a trip to get supplies and he discovered James had been sent out on a night mission with several other soldiers. The whole camp was filled with tension and concern as none of the soldiers had returned and it was way past the time of their return to camp. Buddy was losing his mind that James had not returned. He asked the camp commander if he could go look for James. The Commander said absolutely not. It was suicidal to go out there now. He left with just his rifle and bandages and struck out on his own into the darkness. It took him four hours walking and searching and he was admittedly scared to death as he could hear the Viet Cong close by in the darkness. He was hurt to his core when he found the soldiers lying on the ground dead in the jungle, He searched everywhere for James. And just as he was about to give up he heard a soft voice say "Buddy is that really you?" Buddy rushed to the voice but when he saw James he was shocked as to the extent of his injuries. James kept repeating..." I knew you would come!

Buddy had to leave his rifle as James was bigger and heavier. Buddy kept saying "I got you! I got you softly. It took Buddy six hours to carry James back and he never stopped once.

It was afternoon when Buddy stumbled into camp. The medics ran over as Buddy softly lowered down James. Just then the Commander appeared. The medics said "we are sorry your pal is dead". The Commander said," I told you that you were wasting your time."

This story exemplifies to me true brotherhood, commitment and love.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Good evening Brother Rotarians and welcome to our 12th Regular Meeting!

The past week has been a great week for RCDN. Last November 5, we had our Citronella Awareness Campaign and Legal Mission at Cadawinonan Elementary School. Our Citronella has come a long way since it was introduced by Dir. Max Tenorio to the club.

Yesterday, November 10, we had a great opportunity to on smiles in the faces of our Day Care learner as we took part and celebrated the National Children's Month with Children's Fun Day in Robinsons Place. I would like to thanks all our Brother Rotarians and Spouses who helped in making the activity a success. Special mention to PP Paeng Orillana for leading the community singing -- everryone had a great time singing with RCDN!

Indeed, RCDN is changing lives with all the projects. In our small ways, we help build a better community and create lasting change. With a great brotherhood and fellowship, RCDN has more to give and we will continue to do so guided by the principles of Rotary.
