The Four Way Test

Essay by Ruby Vargehese <https://webstergrovesrotary.org/>

SOMETIMES THE LINE between right and wrong is blurred, and we have trouble making decisions that are both fair and perceptive of the people around us. The "Four Way Test" is a perfect solution to this classic problem. Following these four steps can help ensure my decisions are well thought-out and considerate of others.

The first step would be to ask "Is it the Truth". Of the things we think, say, or do, we should always keep in mind the truth and preach only what is right. Additionally, we should think about the truthfulness in the words of others. As Thoreau once said, "Any fool can make a rule, and any fool will mind it". This piece of advice is especially helpful to a high school student, like me, because high school students tend to make rash, naïve choices. By understanding the truth in what others say we can make sure our decisions in the end are the right ones.

The second part of the test asks us the question if the action or saying "is fair to all concerned". Fairness is an important factor to consider in proper decision making. We should always make sure our decisions result in justice and equality for everybody. In the future I will utilize this step to make sure the thoughts and concerns of my peers and coworkers are heard.

The third step is to ask "Will it build goodwill and better friendships". Many times when we make a tough decision, it's easy to forget that despite our differences, we are all similar. We are all working towards a common goal, some of us just trying to make it in this muddled world. It's important to consider the feelings of others and build strong connections. Having a positive workplace that is rife with goodwill and camaraderie is more productive than one that is not. I always try to help build on my relationships with my peers by talking to them and most importantly, listening to their concerns. Helping my peers solve their problems helps make them feel better and also allows me feel well about myself too.

The fourth and last question is "Will it be beneficial to all concerned". In the end, we want everyone to be happy. Happiness is key to running a workplace, a household, or even a classroom. I always like to keep the happiness of others in my mind as I make important decisions. I will particularly use this question in the future to ensure I am making the right choice for others as well as myself.

I hope these four questions will help me make better decisions in the future. By keeping the well-being of others and myself in mind, as well as the truth and fairness, I believe the "Four Way Test" can help me build stronger relationships with other people and allow me to make more informed, thought-out choices in life.

Doctor: In that case, get yourself a drink, learn to smoke, do some drugs, and find a couple of girlfriends.

There's this woman who goes to the dentist. As he leans over to begin working on her, she grabs his crotch. The dentist says, "Madam, I believe you've got a hold of my privates." The woman replies, "Yes. Now, we're going to be careful not to hurt each other, aren't we."

You're as healthy as a horse. I'm going to refer you to a veterinarian.

Christian Doctor: "Your recovery was a miracle!"

Christian Patient: "Thank God! Now I don't have to pay you."

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Good evening Brother Rotarians and welcome to our 27th Regular Meeting...

During the last regular meeting, RCDN inducted to membership its newest Rotarian -- JON BARTON BUSHEY. Rotarian Jon is the 11th Rotarian to be inducted to RCDN during this Imaginative Rotary Year. Indeed, RCDN is growing and we all see these new Rotarians as potential leaders and assets of the club who would help in achieving our goals.

The dynamics of Rotary have changed over the years - but the vision and mission of its creation remained the same. With a diverse membership, RCDN will continue to make projects and services that will help create hope and change in the community.

As a club, we continue to strengthen our fellowship and brotherhood as we treat each other with respect, fairness and honesty. A fellowship that do not discriminate based on profession, background and tenure in the club. This is something that we take pride in RCDN -- whatever service project that we choose to do, we always have the support of each other --- as long as it is GOOD FOR ROTARY.

ROTARY HYMN

I want to be a Rotarian for the world
Make the Rotary flag as a flag of peace unfurled;

I shall serve my community,
Help achieve universal unity
Through Rotary, I shall dedicate my all,
World understanding shall be my cherished goal.

REFRAIN: With the Four Way Test
I'll pursue my quest
And if I, in a way help obtain
Peace in the world
Then I shall not have lived in vain.

I'll observe service above self,
Lend a hand to all who need my help;
I'll get my spouse to involve in Rotary
And in Rotary ways I will train my family.
(REFRAIN)

Build a bridge for tomorrow's youth,
Strengthened by nothing but the truth
Let's join our hands, there's no reason to divide.

We shall all understand, while the good
Lord is our guide. (REFRAIN)

CODA: Peace be achieved,
We shall not have lived in vain.
