PP RAFAEL ORILLANA

Music/Program Director Rotary Year 2023-2024

Mulling over recent events, I am compelled as a matter of Rotarian duty to say my piece on the things we think, say, or do.

There is a reason why TRUTH is the first | so, it can only mean two things: either the other guidepost in our ethical code as Rotarians. Truth is elusive it is true, because sometimes it is hurtful, unpleasant, ugly, and yes, sometimes shocking or scary. But without telling and embracing truth in all humility, there is no point is talking about fairness, goodwill, friendship, and beneficiality. A thought or an act grounded on falsehood, a lie, or pretense will never bring fairness, goodwill, and beneficiality not only to others but specially to one's self. It is true that in some cases, the truth is better left unsaid or hidden, but not when as Rotarians, we are called upon to ascertain it, squarely say it as it is, and act based on it.

The truth shall set us free, Jesus said.

In a court of law, when one is given the chance to speak the truth but remains silent or refuses to do party is telling the truth, or he waives his right to present his side. The court can then proceed to rely on the version of the other party. Once the decision is made, and the decision must be able to stand by itself without further explanation or justification. This is judicial truth, but which is more often too far from the naked truth – the reason why grave injustice is done where the innocent is penalized and the guilty is rewarded.

In Rotary, I believe we should not be shackled by rigid technicalities. More often than not, technical rules hinder the truth. One does not need to have a special degree or training to ascertain the truth. As Rotarians, I believe we have to rely on universal human experience, our Christian values, and prevailing social norms. Painful or ugly as it may seem, we must ascertain and tell the truth. And act based on it.

> Who is an asset to the club? Of course, we give praises and accolades to Rotarians who are ultra-generous, hyper

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

THE SPIRIT OF ROTARY

Pres. JOSEPH V. TUMACOLE

RCDN Hope Creating President RY 2023-2024

To All my Dearest Esteemed Brother Rotarians and all-out supportive Spouses, a pleasant evening.

As the Rotary Foundation's month-long celebration of giving is over, a heartfelt thanks to each of you for embodying the spirit of service. Your dedication, generosity, and unwavering commitment have brightened our community with the essence of compassion.

In the month of giving, your selfless acts have been the cornerstone of positive change. Through your efforts, the Rotary Foundation's mission of making a lasting impact on lives worldwide becomes a vivid reality. Your contributions echo the profound belief in "Service Above Self" creating a ripple effect of goodwill that knows no bounds.

Whether through time, talent, or treasure, your participation has woven a tapestry of hope, resilience, and humanity. Every gesture, no matter how small, has played a crucial role in the collective effort to build a better world.

As we express our gratitude, let's also celebrate the enduring spirit of Rotary, knowing that your actions extend far beyond the month of November. Together, we continue to make a difference, one act of kindness at a time.

Thank you so much, my Brother Rotarians, for being the catalysts of positive change and for exemplifying the true essence of Rotary's vision.

ROTARY FACTS

ROTARY AND THE UNITED NATIONS

During and after World War II, Rotarians became increasingly involved in promoting international understanding. In 1945, 49 Rotary members served in 29 delegations to the United Nations Charter Conference. Rotary still actively participates in UN conferences by sending observers to major meetings and promoting the United Nations in Rotary publications. Rotary International's relationship with the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) dates back to a 1943 London Rotary conference that promoted international cultural and educational exchanges. Attended by ministers of education and observers from around the world, and chaired by a past president of RI, the conference was an impetus to the establishment of UNESCO in 1946.

THE DAY THE 4-WAY TEST DIED

active, and selfless movers or initiators of programs and projects. They deserve it, no doubt. But brothers, we must never lose sight of one basic quality of a Rotarian asset: adherence and fidelity to the four-way test. Without this quality or character, we are no different from corrupt politicians, shrewd businessmen, or shady criminals who donate millions for charity and display "good" deeds or "good" image in public, to hide wrongdoings. A Rotarian asset is one who may even struggle to keep up with his dues, but is not only active in projects and programs, but more importantly, one who also struggles to live by the four-way test in his personal and community life. Why struggle? Because no one is perfect, we make mistakes, we do something wrong - that's perfectly human. But I believe a true Rotarian asset should be one who accepts the truth, humbly admits his mistakes, apologizes, and strives to makes amends.

When we fail to tell the truth, ignore, or avoid it; when we abet falsehood or pretense and allow ourselves to live a lie, we are sadly being "the blind leading the blind". We renege on our duty as Rotarians. We are not being fair to all concerned. We are not helping either the brother who has gone astray or the brother who feels aggrieved. We unwittingly shun goodwill and better friendship. That is sadly, the day the four-way test dies.

This year we embarked on giving out HOPE to the world. But before we go out, we should start in our own home front. RCDN is our home, our family. Within our club, let us hope and give hope that each one will keep the four-way test alive in each of our own personal and community life, in all the things that we think, say or do.

I myself must apologize to you my brothers, in times when I let the four-way test die with my failures, inaction, or omission. I know we cannot strictly apply the four-way test, lest no one may pass. But again, this is a continuing struggle. There is always hope for the better. Life is a cycle of death and rebirth, of falling and rising, of failures and successes. Life is a never ending-process towards perfection.

We are all assets to the club, and have to remain as such, for as long as we keep the four-way test alive. We should never let it die.

Shalom and God bless us all!
