Farmer, Donkey and the Four Way Test

RODELIO V. SOLON

President -Elect RY 2023-2024

A FARMER AND his teenage son harvested their vegetable products and decided to sell them to the market. They rode on their one and only small donkey loaded with two sacks of assorted vegetables. Off they went to the market.

On their way to the market, they met a group of people. The people said, "Look at the unmerciful father and son. The donkey is small and frail, yet they rode on it together with two sacks of vegetables." The father decided to disembark and let his son ride the donkey alone.

Then they met another group of people. The people then said, "Look at the ungrateful son, he let his old father walk while riding comfortably on the donkey." The son decided to disembark and let his father ride the donkey alone. Then they continued their journey.

Again, on the road, they met another group of people. The people then said, "Look at the inconsiderate father, he let his young son walk while riding comfortably on the donkey." The father and son decided not to ride on the donkey and instead walk alongside the donkey.

And so, they met another group of people. The people said, "Look at the two stupid farmers, they have a donkey and yet they do not ride on it."

Upon reaching the marketplace, the farmer sold everything including the donkey. In going back to their farm, nobody paid any attention to them. The father and son felt relieved.

When they finally came home, the wife was very angry and sad. The one and only donkey which have helped them in their farm work is now gone.

My grandfather thirty years ago had told me this anecdote. He never explained to me the lesson or the morals of the story. Perhaps he wanted me to draw my own conclusions from the said anecdote.

The way I see it, in whatever you do, there are always people who will criticize you. They will always see faults in everything you do. When you are in are a crossroads and you have to make a decision affecting your PERSONAL LIFE, remember the story above. Yes, it is good to seek the advice of other people, but you must be able to know how to differentiate between good advice from unsound advice. After all, you will be the one who will face the consequences of your decision and not them.

Finally, as Rotarians, we are fortunate to have our four-way test. Is it the truth? Is it fair to all concerned? Will it build goodwill and better friendships? Will it be beneficial to all concerned? Because this four-way test at the very least, will guide us in arriving at a good decision.
