PRAYER

Christmas is the season of joy and gladness, the time for giving, loving and sharing. "Rejoice and be glad," the angels sing, "for today a Savior is born."

Truly, there is every reason for merrymaking. For "the Word was made flesh." God, in the person of His Son, came to earth to enter into and to assume the totality of human nature. He came in the body of man, with the heart of a man to live with a human life. God became God-man. We are divinized.

There is peace and unity to all men of goodwill. God, because He became man in Jesus Christ, takes to Himself, by virtue of that humanity, all men of every time and every place. "That all men may be one, as You and I are one." The incarnation is the realization and accomplishment of the Father's eternal plan of love: to "bring together... everything in the heavens and everything on earth".

Father in Heaven, we are happy to note that the messages of Christmas, the purpose of your Son's coming, is deeply embedded in the object of rotary. During this joyful season, we ask you for the faith, the determination and the perseverance of the Wise Men, and the shepherds of old, so that we will see and meet Your Child Jesus and with Him, participate in the mission of serving the world. AMEN.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

My Dear Fellow Rotarians,

HAPPY 43rd CHARTER DAY ANNIVERSARY !

There's always a first time for everything!

As for our Club, This year we celebrated it in another remarkable way. Quite different from what we used to have. Since Health is our primary concern, we forego our party.

We started the day with a mass early in the morning and offered it for the 15 members who have gone ahead of us and for the 43 years in service of the club. Then, through the generosity of our PP Chiquiting Sagarbarria, we brought 2 sacks of Rice to the Batang Calabnugan Orphanage. The Patrons were very happy and surprised receiving our gift. We had a brief talk with them and toured us to their facility.. Well kept and well managed.

This time, I would like to ask your prayers and the intercession of the Holy Spirit for the fast recovery of our PP Greg Uymatiao.

We need all your prayers!

Thank you everyone and May God Bless Us all.

Yours in Rotary,

ROTARY INFORMATION

Rotary International President Holger Knaack declared on 1 December six Rotary members to be RI directors for 2022-24.

The RI Bylaws provide that if the general secretary does not receive a duly proposed challenge to the selection of a zone's nominating committee for director by 1 December, the president shall declare the selection of the nominating committee to be the director-nominee from the zone.

As of 1 December, the general secretary received no proposal of additional candidates from Zones 3, 18, 22, 29, 32, and 34. Therefore, the following members are to be the directors-nominee from their respective zones for election at the 2021 RI convention in Taipei: Zone 3

Yoshio Sato -- Rotary Club of Okayama South, Japan
Zone 18

Lena J. Mjerskaug -- Rotary Club of Enebakk, Norway
Zone 22

Patrick Chisanga -- Rotary Club of Nkwazi, Zambia
Zone 29

Patricia Merryweather-Arges -- Rotary Club of Naperville, Illinois, USA
Zone 32

Drew Kessler -- Rotary Club of North Rockland (Haverstraw), New York, USA
Zone 34

Jeremy Hurst -- Rotary Club of Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands
The general secretary received challenges to the Nominating Committee's selection in Zones 1B (Bangladesh, Indonesia, and Pakistan) and 14 (Italy). An electronic ballot is being prepared for clubs in this zone to select their candidate. The ballot will be live by 31 December and will run, per the RI Bylaws, until 1 March.

Educate your club

Use your Rotary club meetings to foster meaningful discussion about diversity and inclusion on one of the topics outlined in this blog post. This could include approaching a large business or organisation to share their experiences of creating harassment-free workplaces.

This kind of conversation is common in workplaces recognising not only the risks associated with failing to adequately address harassment, but the benefits of creating safe, respectful, and inclusive work environments.

You can also review Rotary's Preventing and Addressing Harassment course in the Learning Center (My Rotary log-in required).

Ultimately, creating a harassment-free zone at Rotary is about creating a culture of respect and inclusivity. While culture change can take time, it's worth it if we want to ensure the sustainability of our clubs by ensuring they attract and retain a diverse range of members.

3 ways to create a harassment-free zone at Rotary

By Katey Halliday

We have no place for harassment in Rotary. People won't join or stay if they are exposed to harassment.

1 Rotary's policy on maintaining a harassment-free environment at meetings, events, and activities makes it clear that harassment will not be tolerated. It even stipulates that all Rotary leaders, including club presidents, shall be provided with annual training on Rotary International's policies on the topic.

2 But is it just up to leaders to ensure that Rotary is a harassment-free zone? Of course not. It takes each one of us to create and maintain a culture that does not condone, ignore, or excuse harassment.

3 Educate yourself

4 Harassment is broadly defined as any conduct, verbal or physical, that denigrates, insults, or offends a person or group based on any characteristic (age, ethnicity, race, colour, abilities, religion, socioeconomic status, culture, sex, sexual orientations, or gender identity). (Rotary Code of Policies 26.120)

5. There is nothing in this definition about intention. None of us are immune to unwittingly engaging in behaviour which could be viewed as harassment. The fact that it might have been 'just a joke' is no excuse.

6. It is not the job of victims of harassment to educate us, we must educate ourselves. The more aware we are about the diversity of the communities we serve, the less likely we are to inadvertently offend someone.

And if we do get called out, we must not get defensive, but reflect, learn and change our behaviour.

Educate others

When we hear or see something that is not OK, we must have the courage to do something about it. There are many ways to be an active bystander, but the key is to do something. Here are some ideas:

- Interrupt the inappropriate conversation by changing the subject.
- Call out offensive comments by drawing attention to it not being OK.
- Provide support to someone who feels they have experienced harassment. Make sure they know they aren't alone or overreacting.
- Challenge the behaviour of the person/group responsible but be sure to challenge the behaviour and not the person. ("you're a creep" vs "that joke you told was creepy" will prompt very different responses)
- Seek advice from someone you trust about what to do.
- Report the behaviour through the appropriate channels.
