PRAYER

Fellow Rotarians and guests, lets bow down our heads and feel the presence of the Lord.

Almighty Father, we thank you for this beautiful morning and for arranging our schedule with your mantle of protection in attending our regular meeting. Thank you for giving us our professions and businesses. Thank you above all for giving us this opportunity to serve and share with those who have less in life.

Continue to shower us all these blessings that we may be able to serve mankind. Touch us and our brothers and sisters who are sick with your miraculous hands and bless the medicines they are taking. Bless and enlighten our leaders to continue working for peace and prosperity of our nation.

Bless the food we are about to partake that it may nourish us physically and spiritually and bless also the hands that prepared them. These we ask in the Mighty Name of Jesus, AMEN.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Dear fellow Rotarians,
Summer is here!

RENANTE ANGELO LIM
President, RY 2020-2021

May is the last month of our Rotary Year 2020-2021. As tradition, let us have a little get together with our Anns for a fellowship. We will recap on what we have accomplished; our open projects, as well as, catch up with one another and enjoy each other's company.

Summer outing is one of the activities we look forward to every year... This is a time when officers graduate from their tasks and positions.. A time for a breather... A time to recharge ourselves..

Here are 2 proposals for this year's outing:

Option 1:
We have it in a nearby private beach.

Option 2:
We do a little drive and eat at a destination.

Suggestions are most welcome and let us enjoy the most out of this event!

Thank you and Keep Safe everyone!!

Yours in Rotary

Flexible options for clubs

Change meeting format

Change your meeting format and engage your members in fun, productive ways! You can meet in person, online, or a combination, including letting some members attend in-person meetings through the Internet. Or you can change the format of your in-person meetings to include service projects, leadership development, committee reporting, social gatherings, member professional talks, and educational talks on diversity, club vision, and other topics your club determines.

Benefits:

- Makes club meetings more interesting, which engages members and guests
- Creates culture where agility and creativity are valued and demonstrated
- Members can gain professional development skills

Relax attendance expectations/reduce meeting frequency

Change your meeting schedule

Ease attendance requirements and encourage members to participate in other ways, such as taking a leadership role, updating the club website regularly, running a meeting a few times a year, or planning an event. Remember your members are volunteers. If your club is dynamic and offers a good experience for members, attendance won't be a problem.

Benefits:

- Accommodates members who have busy schedules
- Encourages participation outside of in-person meetings
- Better captures member engagement
- Makes club more appealing to prospective members (research tells us that rigid rules keep non-members from joining)
- Diversifies club if other nontraditional groups are motivated to join
- Compels clubs to make good use of meeting time (so members come because they want to not because they have to)

Flexible options for clubs

<https://my.rotary.org/en/club-flexibility>

Start a new type of club

Rotary clubs are autonomous and all have their own culture. You can create a club that offers a club experience that works for you and others with similar needs. For example, you could start a satellite club for your less traditional members and your traditional members can remain in the sponsor club.

Benefits:

- Creates new opportunity for prospective members in your area
- Allows disengaged members to try new practices and ideas
- Creates opportunity for new leadership
- Allows members in traditional clubs to continue if they enjoy their club experience

Offer alternative membership types

Your club could offer family memberships, junior memberships to young professionals, or corporate memberships to business leaders and their employees. Each type of membership can have its own policies on dues, attendance, and service expectations, provided these policies are documented in your club bylaws. Rotary will count these people in your club membership and will consider them active members if they pay RI dues.

Benefits:

- Presents options for prospective members with different pricing structures and levels of time commitment
- Presents an opportunity to partner with a local corporation
- Diversifies club by attracting businesses, prospective members with young families, and other groups who aren't able to join as traditional members

MEMBERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

To: 2020-21 and 2021-22 district governors, assistant governors, district membership chairs, club presidents, club membership chairs, and club secretaries
cc: 2020-21 and 2021-22 Rotary coordinators and RI directors

Dear Rotary leaders

Rotary International staff and your regional leaders are here to support you during your time as a club or district leader. We'd like to share some information about the process of managing membership leads through My Rotary that will help you to achieve your membership goals

Each year, more than 20,000 people express an interest in Rotary at rotary.org/join. This is a convenient, secure way for them to take the first step toward membership and start building a lasting connection with Rotary. The Manage Membership Leads page on My Rotary connects you with these prospective members, as well as returning and relocating Rotarians and candidates referred by our members.

As club and district leaders, you each play an important role in how effectively we connect with all of these candidates.

District governors: Making a district plan for responding to leads is crucial so you can make sure that every candidate is contacted. You'll be copied on email notifications about leads that are assigned to your district. Put someone in charge of checking for leads regularly, taking action to learn more about them, and assigning them to clubs. We recommend empowering your district membership chair to oversee this process. It's one of their primary responsibilities, and they receive training in how to manage online leads and cultivate relationships with prospective members.

Assistant governors: You'll receive email notifications only when a candidate is assigned to a club in your group. Because you work closely with a smaller number of clubs, you have a better understanding of the different club experiences and can advise the district membership chair on what each of your clubs has to offer candidates.

District membership chairs: You and the district governor will receive email notifications about membership leads, but you are in the best position to manage or delegate this process. If your role has been reported to Rotary and you have an active My Rotary account, you can go to Manage Membership Leads to review leads, contact candidates to learn about their needs and interests, assign them to clubs, and follow up with club leaders.

Club leaders: If your club is ready to welcome candidates, make sure you tell your district membership chair and assistant governor that you're interested in being assigned membership leads. When you receive an email notification that a lead has been assigned to you, it indicates that district leaders believe your club will be a good match for that candidate, so you should contact your possible new member. Contacting them does not promise them membership in your club or Rotary. But it does signal to that person — a member of your community — that Rotary cares and is interested in learning how we can engage with them.

Remember, the most important thing you can do is establish a process for managing leads, or become familiar with our recommended process.

The Manage Membership Leads page continues to evolve to better support your membership efforts. Please contact us if you have any questions or need support.

Thank you for making membership a priority.

Sincerely,

Brian King
Director of Membership Development
Rotary International

ATTENTION: Presidents-Elect, Club Membership Chairs, Club Officers, District Officers and Interested Rotarians,

We will have Breakout Rooms session for all of you to have the chance for you to share your ideas and to have a better output during the session.
