INVOCATION

Lord, Rotarians world-wide acknowledge your power, and your expectation that we be of service to mankind. Let us renew our obligation to fulfill that expectation, just as the return of spring renews growth in the world around us, with a new commitment to help others in our community, our nation, and our world. With the power, influence, and wealth that we as leaders in this place most certainly have, let us always remember that these are a blessing from you, and that charity is more fulfilling than decadence, and the Golden Rule a much richer yardstick than any bank account. Amen.

PRES. PATRICK S. CAPILI
Club President, RY 2019-2020

Happy Tuesday once again Fellow RCED Rotarians!

We have finally selected our new set of scholars. We have 7 at the moment but there are 2 more that qualified but we are still looking for sponsors. Once again, we are knocking on your generosity so we can finally find sponsors for the the 2 more qualified individuals. We will be presenting them today and introduce to the club. Again, I thanks the painstaking efforts of our Scholarship Committee Chairman Past President Val Dionisio and all the members that sponsored these deserving individuals. They are PP Pol Alquiza, PP Ronnie Go, PP Val Dionisio, Dir. Manny Nierra, Dir. Sol Hayag, Sec. Darwin Santos, Myself, and RC Ishinomaki South.

Today, our meeting will be having Dr. Jonathan Alegre, the President of the Davao Medical School Foundation. We look forward to his interesting and informative speech as he is an authority in the a very important field, the Medical Field.

Coming up next week are 2 very important activities for our club namely the opening of the Bowling Tournament in which we are hosting and the Fundraiser Dinner Fellowship Show with Actress/Comedian Giselle Sanchez. I am counting on everybody's support of these very important activities and I thank you in advance as I am positive that these activities will be a resounding success.

THE ZONE: Rotary Institute
 We continue our education on the Zone and the Rotary Institutes...

On ROTARY INSTITUTES

Rotary institutes are informational meetings designed for the past, present, and incoming RI officers. A Rotary institute may be organized for a zone, a section of a zone, or a grouping of zones.

Purpose

The purpose of a Rotary institute is to:

- 1) Provide current, incoming, and past RI officers with updates on RI and Rotary Foundation policies and programs
- 2) Provide a forum for Rotary leaders to make comments and recommendations to the Board of Directors
- 3) Provide fellowship and a participative learning experience that will inspire current, incoming, and past governors to continuing leadership and service.

Organization

The president designates one or more conveners to organize and direct the program of each institute. Usually, conveners are directors or immediate past directors who serve as the president's representatives to the institutes. Those organizing the institute are appointed by the convener and prepare the arrangements and agenda for the convener's approval.

Program

Institutes normally last two to three days. Past RI officers who live in the zone should be provided opportunities to participate in the program as speakers, panelists, discussion leaders, and members of institute committees.

Components should include:

- ✍ A major address on the Foundation delivered by a Foundation representative to update participants on Foundation programs, objectives, finances, and problems
- ✍ A status report on Polio Plus each year until polio is eradicated

In the year of the Council on Legislation:

- 1. A separate session limited to representatives and alternates to discuss the operation and procedures of the Council
- 2. A plenary session to discuss the substance of selected proposals, for the purpose of allowing voting representatives to hear the views of Rotarians from their area of the world (RCP 60.050.)

An open forum for participants and Rotary senior leadership to exchange ideas

The five-year forecast presented by a director or other representative of the Board

Each institute program must include a copy of the written report of the previous year's institute (including any resolutions) that was submitted to the RI Board, along with a copy of any Board action taken.

Regional Seminars

Governors-elect training seminars, or GETS, are considered mandatory adjunct meetings. Other sessions or seminars, such as regional Rotary Foundation seminars or regional membership seminars, may be held at the same time and in the same location as an institute or nearby. These separate sessions or seminars do not interfere with or duplicate the institute's main program or the International Assembly program and are promoted as quite distinct from the institute itself. Any events coming before or after an institute, such as GETS, regional Rotary Foundation seminars, or recreational events, are clearly described as pre- or post-institute events that may involve a different audience from the institute

THE RIGHT TEACHING

The art of Teaching is the art of assisting discovery

- Mark Van Doren

I saw the pictures of PP Pol, PP Val, PP Edwin on Viber as they were doing their "Home visit" of probable RCED scholar and I remembered one of the aims of the program was to develop new teachers who may, later as they graduate, help others. I remembered the quote above and this story:

Once, there was a renowned monk who lived in a beautiful monastery with many of his pupils. His teachings were known to be very effective and many of his students grew up to become great masters themselves.

One day, one of them was caught stealing from his fellow-students and they reported him to the monk. But he took no action against the boy. A few days later the same boy was again caught stealing. And again the head monk did nothing to punish him.

This angered the other students who drew up a petition asking for the dismissal of the thief. They threatened to leave en masse if the boy was allowed to stay in the monastery.

The teacher called a meeting of the students. When they had assembled, he said to them: "You are good boys who know what is right and what is wrong. If you leave, you will have no trouble in joining some other school. But what about your brother who does not even know the difference between right and wrong? Who will teach him if I don't? No, I cannot ask him to go even if it means losing all of you."

Tears coursed down the cheeks of the boy who had stolen. He never stole again and in later life became renowned for his integrity.

Bits & Pieces

10 REASONS WHY DATING AN OLDER MAN IS ACTUALLY THE BEST THING FOR YOU...

We don't always choose who we fall in love with, to the point that sometimes we find ourselves falling for an older man. Actually, I am currently myself in a relationship with a man 10 years older and can positively say that it has been the best thing that has ever happened to me.

For me, it has never been a taboo subject or out of the ordinary as my parents also share a 12 year age gap. However, most recently, I had a close friend reach out to me for advice. She was set up on a blind date unknowingly with an older man, had an amazing time but wasn't sure to take it further considering the age gap of 8 years.

So, here is what I told her about older men:

1. An older man is more likely to talk about his feelings

Even if they may not open up straight away, they have more of a tendency to take their time to gather their feelings and maturely sit down with you and discuss the matter in hand. Men, in general, tend to have difficulty in communicating their feelings, but older men understand its importance and they take the time to try and discuss things with you.

2. An older man can help you expand on your individuality

Almost to the extent where they help you develop who you are and come out of your shell to find your true identity. They have already been through this period of growing up and finding themselves, and realize the advantages of embracing their true self. Therefore they are understanding and supportive in helping you find yourself and be sure of who you are.

3. An older man truly appreciates your individual beauty

With age, they have learned to appreciate inner beauty in preference to exterior, and they're capable of looking past your bed hair or imperfections to truly love you for who you are. They have seen and experienced what age does to the body as well as learned to value a long term beauty over short term youth.

4. An older man is your rock

They generally have more assurance developed from their experiences and knowing where they are going. Therefore it is more clear where you are going and their intentions. As they have already lived a lot they are ready for you to turn too when and if you need to.

5. An older man will be stimulated by your youth

When we are young we tend to be more outgoing, excited and stimulated by so much more. Just like laughter, this can be contagious and there is no better feeling than feeling young again.

6. An older man plans for the long term

They have lived their youth and freedom and therefore have more of a tendency to want to settle down and meet "the one." Therefore they won't waste your time as they won't invest their time in something that won't last.

7. An older man is a lot more attentive

They have had more time to understand what a woman likes and how to treat her. Their values have also changed, and they will spend more time showing you how much they care, rather than just saying it. As actions speak louder than words.

8. An older man is more respectful of exes

They may have already loved and lost, been through a divorce or even have children from a previous relationship meaning they are more respectful and understanding of exes. He will be open on any contact made with them as he would expect you to do the same.

9. Older men are independent

This not only allows you not to lose your independence but also means they are most likely financially and value themselves and free time as he would expect you to value yours.

10. Older men have more experience under the sheets

Having lived and learned they know exactly what buttons to press. What else could you ask for?
