INVOCATION

Lord of the Universe, this is a time in our year when many of us turn our attention to the spiritual side of our lives, when we consider what light we will follow . . .

Help us to understand that no matter what name it is given and in what language it is expressed, that philosophy called The Golden Rule is indeed the most true guidepost by which we should mark the trails of our existence here . . .

We pray that you continue to bless the work that we as Rotarians, from many nations and of many faiths, do to help those less fortunate, for we believe that one manifestation of this Golden Rule is in our Rotary motto, Service Above Self. AMEN

CLASSIFICATION TALK

Are you ready when a disaster strikes? This was the subject discussed by our guest of honor or speaker last meeting. Disaster preparedness refers to steps taken to prepare for and reduce the effects of disasters. That is, to predict, and where possible, prevent disasters, mitigate their impact on vulnerable populations, and to respond effectively cope with their consequences. In the recent strong tremors that Mindanao has experienced, we should be really serious in being proactive even before something strikes.

In this light, DGE Riz Reyes discussed our plans on building a Rotary Village by way of donating specifically 63 houses to a beneficiary village in Brgy. San Miguel, Magsaysay, Davao del Sur. We are working with District 3860 Rotary Clubs in raising the needed funds which is approximately Php 3 Million. With the help of donations coming from clubs outside our District, I see no reason why we won't be able to raise the said amount.

On another note, our Nominating Committee has decided to postpone the Annual Elections to December 10th to give us more time to publish the nominees. Let's all have wonderful week and continue our "Service Above Self" ways in our daily activities!

5 reasons to give to The Rotary Foundation

When you make a donation to The Rotary Foundation, you are helping Rotary members make a difference in the lives of millions of people around the world. Here are five reasons to make Rotary your charity of choice on Giving Tuesday, 3 December, or any time of the year.

1. Accountability

Our accountability and transparency have earned The Rotary Foundation 12 straight years of four-star ratings — the highest possible — from independent evaluator Charity Navigator. More than 90% of Foundation funds are spent directly on programs. No high administrative costs dilute your gift.

2. Impact

We partner with other organizations to increase our impact and make your donations work even harder. When you give to PolioPlus, for example, you have the satisfaction of knowing that every $1 Rotary commits to polio eradication is matched by $2 from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. Thanks to this partnership, all donations to end polio (up to $50 million per year) are tripled, providing critical funding toward creating a polio-free world.

3. A record of success

Rotary unites leaders who have the skills and resources to tackle some of the world’s most difficult problems and deliver sustainable, long-lasting results. For decades, Rotary has been a leader in the battle against polio and with the help of our partners in the Global Polio Eradication Initiative, we have reduced cases by 99.9% since 1988. The infrastructure developed to facilitate both immunizations and eradication is being used to fight and protect against other diseases as well. For example, the method known as contact tracing was critical to containing an Ebola outbreak in Nigeria in 2014.

4. Global reach

Our 1.2 million members span the globe, uniting people who have a common desire to serve others. From teaching children to read in Ecuador to a microcredit program in Indonesia, Rotary members identify local problems and use Rotary’s vast network and the resources of The Rotary Foundation to take action in their communities.

5. Bringing about peace

Peace holds a unique status in Rotary. We approach peace not as an abstract concept, but as a living, dynamic expression of human development. As a humanitarian service organization, it is both a cornerstone of our mission, and one of our six areas of focus – one of the main ways in which our members make their mark on the world.

Each year, the Rotary Peace Centers train some of the world’s most dedicated professionals to resolve conflicts and promote national and international cooperation. Rotary Peace Fellows study in a two-year master’s degree program or a professional certificate program at Rotary’s partner universities. Rotary members themselves also address the underlying causes of conflict, including poverty, inequality, ethnic tension, lack of access to education, and unequal distribution of resources. Our collaboration with the Institute for Economics and Peace is providing free, self-guided training to individuals who want to be peacebuilders in their communities.

GOOD CHOICES

As Rotarians / as leaders of our community, Awe often find ourselves having to make choices and decisions that affect others.

Some we like, some we rather not be involved with at all but have to. To complicate matters, our culture often forces people to say one thing when they mean another.

Here's a story I came across that might help illustrate:

Two engineering students ran into each other when going across campus. One of them noticed that the other one was riding a brand new bicycle. He waved him over and asked, "Hey, where did you get such a great bike?"

The second engineer replied, "Carol gave it to me."

"Carol gave it to you?!? I knew she was into you, but this is just ridiculous!"

"Well," the other engineering student said, "yesterday I was walking along, minding my own business, when beautiful Carol rode up on this bike.

She threw the bike to the ground, took off all her clothes until she was stark naked and said, 'Take what you want!' So I took the bike and left!" The second engineer nodded approvingly, "Good choice; her clothes probably wouldn't have it you."

Here is my take: You shouldn't take what people say too literally. People often mean something other than what they say – something you can really use to your advantage if you're perceptive.

Rotary: Connects the World.

REMEMBER: SERVICE ABOVE SELF!

15 Things a man will do when he is truly in love with his woman...

Men are normally not great at expressing emotions in words but when a man is truly in love, you will see it through his actions.

Here are 15 things a man will do when he is truly in love with his woman

1. A man who is truly in love with his woman won't be afraid to be vulnerable. Men hate being vulnerable but they can't help it when they truly love a woman.
2. A man who is truly in love with his woman will pay attention to her needs in bed. He won't just see sex as a means of satisfying his urge but as something deep.
3. A man who is truly in love with his woman will go out of his way to help her when she needs him because she's important to him.
4. A man who is truly in love with his woman will remember things she tells him whether its her favourite colour, meal, author etc.
5. A man who is truly in love with his woman will make sure he's the best version of himself.

6. When a man truly loves his woman, her achievements will feel like his achievements. He will be her biggest fan and would want her to be successful in whatever she does.

7. A man who is truly in love with his woman will not only hear his woman when she talks but will also pay attention to what she has to say.

8. When a man is truly in love with his woman, he will want to meet her parents because he wants to build his future around her.

9. A man who is truly in love with his woman will see her as the most beautiful woman in the world. No woman on earth will come close to his woman.

10. When a man truly loves a woman, he will miss her when she's not around him and would also be eager to see her again.

11. A man who is truly in love with his woman will feel her pain when she's hurt. No man loves seeing the woman he loves hurt.

12. A man who is truly in love with his woman will value her opinion. His woman's opinion matters more to him than that of anyone else.

13. A man who truly loves his woman will always make her feel protected and safe. He will never hit her or abuse her.

14. A man who truly loves his woman will support her decision even if he doesn't agree with her decisions.

This is because he believes she will do what's right for her.

15. A man who truly loves his woman will always make himself available despite how busy he
