MARCH: WATER AND SANITATION MONTH

PRAYER

Almighty Father, we are thankful for this day that you have given us, for its blessings, its opportunities, its challenges. May we appreciate and use each good and bad thing that comes to us. We pray for strength and guidance everyday in doing good for the community. May we be challenged to give our best always, and may we be assured of your presence and guidance with us. Amen.

The Four-Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

OBJECT OF ROTARY

...is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise, and, in particular to encourage and foster;

- FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

ROTARY CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian I will:

- ✓ Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life.
- ✓ Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect.
- ✓ Use my professional skills through Rotary to: mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world.
- ✓ Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians.

MESSAGE FROM THE CLUB PRESIDENT

Philip Leonard T. Escueta

Happy Thursday RC Marbel family!!

I would like to thank everyone for actively participating in last week's meeting wherein we had an informal consultation with DSWD12 Regional Director Cezario Espejo. Our inputs and comments are truly commendable as we are able to assist RD Espejo in furthering the change and improvement of DSWD12. Thank you also to those who participated in our motorcade last Friday, as we celebrated our International Rotary Week 2020. Thank you PE Andy for taking point in the said activity.

As we welcome the month of March, we have a couple of activities that our club is supporting.

First would be the blood donation drive of our Rotaract Club of Korbel, to be held at Korbel Foundation College Inc. covered court, tomorrow March 6, 2020. It is supposed to be a whole day event, from 8:00am-5:00pm. Our Rotaract Club of Korbel partnered with Red Cross Youth [RCY] Korbel unit. Our club sponsored the budget for the donors' snacks [lugaw] amounting to P1,000.00. Likewise, we are also invited to donate blood, and be present during the event to manifest our support for our Rotaractors.

Second, as materialized in the previous ACOM, the Clubs of Area 3FGH, with the approval of the respective AGs and Presidents, are going to donate 1 wheelchair/club, amounting to P3,500.00. The next ACOM will be on either March 7 or 8, wherein the discussion will be continued, focusing on the selection of recipients, date of the handover, and other details.

Another item brought up by the AGs and Presidents during the impromptu visit of DG Philip, was to have a sportsfest among the clubs of 3FGH. This has yet to be finalized, and once it is, I will be sharing the information to our club. Hopefully we get to participate and develop our camaraderie with our neighbor clubs.

Lastly, we received a communication letter from the City of Koronadal Water District, asking for a nominee from our club to be one of their board of directors representing the civic sector. I am proud to announce that PP Rolan Alajar, has stepped up to the call and volunteered to be a nominee. Let us support him in this worthy endeavor.

Thank you everyone and continuously looking forward to your participation and support in our activities.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT

The activity is in collaboration with the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) Region XII thru PESO Gensan, Holy Trinity College, and Areas 3FGH Rotary Clubs. It was actively participated by various companies and job seekers.

ROTARY INFORMATION

Scientist, farmer, innovator, Rotarian

The day slowly warms. It's still summer, but in this late season of harvest, the mornings hold a stubborn chill that will not yield until the sun's full appearance. Bob Quinn is dressed in his habitual raiment: soil-smudged cowboy hat, Wrangler jeans, Western shirt, work boots, thick belt with "Bob" tooled into the leather. He was awake before sunrise and now, as is often his routine, he pulls himself up a ladder inside a lookout tower he designed next to the handsome, sprawling farmhouse he helped build as a boy on a bluff at the end of a long upward-sloping lane. And there it is, spreading before him like an ocean of waving gold: the flaxen tips of spring wheat and spelt haired in rich amber, with the Bears Paw Mountains off to the north and east rising like a small fist of hazy purple on the north central Montana horizon.

There is work to be done. He will get at it in a minute, but he wants to savor the moment a bit longer. There is always work for those who look to the land for their keep, as Quinn has done for 40-odd years, and as his parents and his grandparents did before him — three generations of dryland farmers who have tilled this acreage since 1920.

Presently Quinn climbs down, grabs a basket, and heads toward his "test" orchard, where he experiments with 31 varieties of apples. He inspects the rows of trees one by one, then drops to his hands and knees and begins gathering apples that have plopped to the ground. "Some of them are bird pecked," he says, holding up an apple and turning it in a work-weathered hand. "But that's OK. These are looking pretty good."

Quinn tosses the apple at me. "Just take a bite of this," he says. On just about any other farm in the area, you would pause. Shouldn't it be washed? Not here, for it, like everything on Quinn's acreage, is organic — no pesticides, no herbicides, no chemical fertilizers. That's the point; that's his life's work. It is why he looks out from his tower at the sea of grain surrounding him and worries.

For in this beautiful, sometimes punishingly harsh landscape, all is not well with the food that is grown, at least not from Quinn's perspective. Like every-where, the fields are soaked in chemicals that, while allowing the corporations that farm them to cheaply produce vast stores of product, suck nutrients from the earth, from the food, and from the small communities that dot the plains. That includes the little town of Big Sandy, 10 miles north of Quinn's 4,000-acre farm. He calls it the commodity mentality or mindset, "a high-input game [where] the prize is the highest possible yield" — consequences to small farms, small towns, and quality food be damned.

Redemption and renewal, Quinn believes, lie partly in this orchard and in his organic "oil barn" housed in a small building near his house. But more importantly, they rise from a long swath of land at the edge of his property, a pasture where this 21st-century plainsman grows an ancient Mesopotamian grain called khorasan that he believes holds no less than the power to change everything. ## RI PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Mark Daniel Maloney

MARCH 2020

March is the month we celebrate Rotaract — and this has been quite a year for our young partners in service.

Last spring, the Council on Legislation elevated Rotaract in our constitution: Rotary International is now the association of both Rotary clubs and Rotaract clubs. Then in October, the Rotary Board of Directors eliminated the artificial Rotaract age limit and took other steps to break down barriers that were preventing Rotaract from growing in some parts of the world.

These steps were long overdue, because Rotaract is a vision of what Rotary must become. Not only do we need to open our doors to our young colleagues, but we also have to open our ears and minds to the Rotary experience they find most engaging. That is one of the best ways we will meaningfully grow Rotary.

When I say grow Rotary, I mean it in many ways. We need to grow our service and to grow the impact of our projects. Most importantly, however, we need to grow our membership, so that we can achieve more. Rotaractors provide this opportunity, not only because they can transition to Rotary at the time that is right for them, but also because they understand what it will take to attract others like them.

Business as usual will not work for us anymore. Bringing in more members to replace the ones we lose is not the answer. It is like pouring more water into a bucket full of holes. We need to address the root causes of member loss in many parts of the world: member engagement that is not what it should be, and our member demographic that skews steadily older.

It is time to make some fundamental changes. We already know what the barriers are to an engaged and diverse membership. It is time to act on what we know: creating new membership models, opening new paths to Rotary membership, and building new Rotary and Rotaract clubs where the existing clubs do not meet a current need.

New club models represent an opportunity to connect with a more diverse group of individuals — particularly those who are unable or unwilling to join our traditional clubs. While new club models have been emerging for some time, it is up to district governors to make them a reality. In January at the International Assembly, our incoming district governors took part in an exercise called Build Your Own Club Model. It was a wonderful experience that put them in the right frame of mind for the work ahead.

Ultimately, however, it will be up to Rotaractors and young Rotarians to create new club models that are most meaningful to the next generation. We may think we know what young people want from Rotary clubs in the future, but I am confident that what young people say will surprise us. It will be our job to support their innovation, for it will help us grow Rotary as Rotary Connects the World.

THE TRUSTEE'S MESSAGE

Gary C.K. Huang

MARCH 2020

I like to quote Confucius at many Rotary events, because his ideas are so much like ours. Confucius would have been a great Rotarian. Take this Confucius quote, for example: "The failure to cultivate virtue, the failure to examine and analyze what I have learned, the inability to move toward righteousness after being shown the way, the inability to correct my faults — these are the causes of my grief."

If you turn the saying around to positive language, it sounds exactly like the first goal of the new Rotary Action Plan. When we talk about Rotary increasing our impact, we mean investing in relationships, making decisions grounded in evidence, mobilizing our resources to create solutions that last, and always learning from our experiences.

The Rotary Foundation already does this so well and will continue to be the best possible investment in a better world as the Action Plan is put into effect. Our global grants respond to real community needs. That's because we approve them only after a rigorous community assessment. Then the projects are tailored to the information uncovered during the assessment.

Now your Foundation is making a difference on a broader scale than ever through our programs of scale grants. These are competitive grants, designed to respond to a need that a community has identified. Programs of scale will benefit a large number of people in a significant geographic area. They will be sustainable, evidence-based interventions with measurable outcomes and impact. Each grant will support, for three to five years, activities that align with one or more of Rotary's areas of focus.

Programs of scale build on our experience in the eradication of polio, and we must never forget that we still have important work to do to eliminate this disease. When I visited Pakistan in November, I was overjoyed to see so many young Rotary leaders working hard for End Polio Now.

Wonderful things are happening with our global grants, and the Rotary Action Plan will help us do more than ever. Let us continue to cultivate virtue, examine and analyze what we learn, move toward righteousness based on our new knowledge, and keep improving everything we do.
