INVOCATION

Lord, grant me the serenity,
To accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things I can,
And wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time,
Accept the hardships as the pathway to peace, taking as He did,
This sinful world as it is, not as I would have it.
Trusting that He will make things right if I surrender to His will,
That I may be reasonably happy in this life,
And supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

Amen.

JOKE TIME

1. Ruffa Mae took a PAL flight for LA one day. As she was relaxing midway through the flight, the stewardess started serving lunch, which consisted of salad with French dressing. Later on, the stewardess passed by to ask her if she enjoyed her lunch.

Stewardess: How do you find your dressing?

Ruffa Mae: I think my dress is really, really well done. It's by Fanny, you know.

2. May tatlong lalake na napadpad sa New York dahil nag-kamali sila ng flight patungo sa magiging overseas employment nila. Sa sobrang gutom nila ay pumasok sila sa isang restaurant at nagmadali makaupo sa isang corner table.

Nakita ng isang waitress na nag-aaway yung tatlo para makaupo at dalawa sa kanila ay nagsusuntukan na habang yung isa ay nakakapit ng husto sa paa ng upuan.

"What the hell are you three doing?" napasigaw siya sa tatlo, kaya sumagot yung isa na, "We are berry hungry!"

"So why are you fighting?" tanong niya.

Sagot ng isa, "because menu say "first come, first served!"

3. Emcee: Kung ikaw ay naging isang tourist spot, anong tourist spot sa Pilipinas ang pipiliin mo?

Beauty Contestant: Proud talaga ako dito sa Pilipinas dahil napakarami nating tourist spots, kaya pipiliin ko ang Bocaue Rice Terraces!

Emcee: Ano kamo?

4. Kiko, Ken and Kaloy were having soup together in a restaurant. They all found out that there was a fly in each of their soups. Kiko was horrified and called the waiter to replace the soup.

Ken saw what Kiko did and said, "such a waste of food."

He then took the fly out of the soup and threw it away.

Kaloy saw what both guys did, and also said, "such a waste of food." He then picked up the fly with his fingers, squeezed

ROTARY INFORMATION

History of Rotary International:

Paul P. Harris, an attorney, wanted to create a professional group with the same friendly spirit he felt in the small towns of his youth. On 23 February 1905, Harris, Gustavus Loehr, Silvester Schiele, and Hiram Shorey gathered at Loehr's office in Room 711 of the Unity Building in downtown Chicago. This was the first Rotary club meeting. They decided to call the new club "Rotary" after the practice of rotating meeting locations.

Within five years, clubs had formed across the country, from San Francisco to New York.

In August 1910, Rotarians held their first convention in Chicago. The 16 clubs that existed at that time united to form the National Association of Rotary Clubs.

In 1912, the name changed to International Association of Rotary Clubs to reflect the addition of clubs in other countries. The name Rotary International was adopted in 1922.

By July 1925, Rotary had grown to more than 2,000 clubs and an estimated 108,000 members on six continents.

Rotary's reputation attracted presidents, prime ministers, and a host of other luminaries to its ranks -- among them author Thomas Mann, diplomat Carlos P. Romulo, and composer Jean Sibelius. As Rotary grew, members pooled their resources and used their talents to serve their communities. The organization's dedication to this ideal is best expressed in its motto: Service Above Self.

In 1932, Rotarian Herbert J. Taylor created The Four-Way Test. The test, which has been translated into more than 100 languages, asks the following questions:

Of the things we think, say or do-

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Lord Jesus, Son of God, You humbled Yourself to become man, in order to serve and not to be served. We humbly ask You to teach us the ideals of service: that what matters most is not how much we have got, but how much we have given; not how much we have won, but how much we have done; not how much we have saved, but how much we have sacrificed; not how much we were honored, but how much we have served.

God, our Father, always uses those closest to Him. Grant us therefore the privilege and the grace to be closest to You, His Son, to be truly Your servants amidst the people we serve.

Amen.

We invite You today, Loving Father, to join us in welcoming our new member. It is always wonderful to have a new friend and a new ally in the service of Rotary and for the glory of God.

Thank you very much, Lord, for inspiring him to join our club and reward with Your kind blessings his resourceful sponsor.

As we exhort our new member to wear his pin with pride, grant unto us, O Lord, the strength and the courage to continue and persevere in honoring Rotary with faith and enthusiasm.

Amen.

During these trying times where discord abounds not only in the family circles, but in the corridors of power among nations of the world; when the threats of war and destruction are very imminent, let us remember the prayer for peace of the great St. Francis of Assisi:

"Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace;"

"Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon;"

"Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope,"

"Where there is darkness, light; And where there is sadness, joy."

"O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek"

"To be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand,"

"To be loved as to love, For it is in giving that we receive,"

"It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, It is in dying that we are born eternal life."

Amen.

Father, may everything we do in Rotary
Begin with Your inspiration and continue with Your Saving help.
Let our work always find its origin in You.
And through You, reach completion.
Lord, pour out on us the spirit of understanding, truth and peace,
Help us strive with all our hearts to know what is pleasing to You,
And when we know Your will, make us determined to do it.
God our Father, work is Your gift to us,
A call to reach new heights by using our talents for the good of all.
Guide us as we work, and teach us to live in the spirit,
That has made us brothers and sisters,
Grant this through Christ our Lord,
Amen.
