INVOCATION

Lord, grant me the serenity,
 To accept the things I cannot change,
 Courage to change the things I can,
 And wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time,
 Accept the hardships as the pathway to peace, taking as He did,
 This sinful world as it is, not as I would have it.
 Trusting that He will make things right if I surrender to His will,
 That I may be reasonably happy in this life,
 And supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

Amen.

JOKE TIME

1. My wife was checking her emails and told me her password was "mickeyminniebatmanrobintomjerryLondon". I asked her why it needed to be so long. "Because," she replied, "I was told it had to have at least 6 characters and one capital."

2. A husband and a wife were dining at a 5-star restaurant. When their food arrived, the husband said, "Our food has arrived! Let's eat!" His wife reminded him: "Honey, you always say your prayers at home before your dinner!" Her husband replied, "That's at home, my dear. Here the chef knows how to cook..."

3. This man was really lonely, so he posted an ad on a popular website. The ad said simply: "wife wanted". He was surprised the next morning to find he had over a hundred replies in his inbox. Unfortunately, they all said the same thing: "You can have mine."

4. My husband and I are both in an Internet business, but he's the one who lives, eats and breathes computers. I finally realized how bad it had gotten when I was scratching his back one day. "No, not there," he directed. "Scroll down."

5. When a patient was wheeled into our emergency room, I was the nurse on duty, "On a scale of zero to ten," I asked her, "with zero representing no pain and ten representing excruciating pain, what would you say your pain level is now?" She shook her head. "Oh, I don't know. I'm not good with math."
