INVOCATION

. Today we pray that we may receive Your special blessing because we are committed to be a real service organization to help humankind. May each of us in our daily routine come to know the joy of caring and sharing with others not as fortunate as we are. May our motto that includes serving, caring and sharing be for us life service as well as lip service. Amen

TREASURER'S REPORT

RTN. MARICEL A. PANGANIBAN

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

DR. JULITA L. COGO
RCPI PRESIDENT RY 2020-2021

Dear fellow transforming Rotarians

One of the area of focus in the Rotary is the Maternal and Child Health. Improving the well-being of mothers, infants and children is important since it determines the healthiness and soundness of the next generation. In line with this, the Rotary Club of Panglao Island (RCPI) conducted a lecture to pregnant and lactating mothers focusing on the first 1000 days of a child's life or the period when the child is conceived until the age of two years old. How well or how poorly mother and child are nourished and cared for during this period provides a profound impact on the child's ability to grow, learn and thrive. Dental hygiene to mothers and children was also emphasized.

The effects of the pandemic brought by the Covid19 virus has took a toll on a lot of our brothers and sisters. Thus, in the spirit of bayanihan, our club in coordination with the Local Government Unit of Panglao together with the Religious sector and other government and private organizations organized a mobile Community Pantry. Influx of donations in cash and in kind were received from some of the officers and members of the club, public officials, private individuals, and various business establishments and organizations. People from barangays Poblacion and Danao, where the mobile community pantry were conducted, lined up to avail the goods that they need.

The success of our activities would not be possible without the support and cooperation of our fellow rotarians from RCPI. Thank you and stay healthy and safe, everyone!

President Dr. Julita L. Cogo at WORK!!

JOKES OF THE DAY

A man and his wife were awakened at 3:00 am by a loud pounding on the door.

The man gets up and goes to the door where a drunken stranger, standing in the pouring rain, is asking for a push.

"Not a chance," says the husband, "It is 3:00 in the morning!" He slams the door and returns to bed.

"Who was that?" asked his wife.

Maternal and Child Health

The Maternal and Child Health program is designed to support pregnant First Nations women to experience healthy pregnancies and support parents of infants and young children and their families to support their children's optimal development to adulthood. In funded First Nations communities, Maternal and Child Health programs aim to reach all pregnant women and new parents, providing longer-term support for those who require 36 additional supports. Services provided through Maternal and Child Health programs include screening and assessment of pregnant women and new parents and case management through home visitation. Home visits allow interaction between the support staff and family to assess and provide education, support to pregnant women and families with infants on parenting skills and knowledge, healthy child development, positive lifestyle changes, preconception health, optimal maternal reproductive health and access to social supports.

Objectives

- Implement support services that include screening and assessment of pregnant women and new parents to assess family needs; reproductive and preconception health promotion; and home visiting by nurses and community-based workers to provide follow up, referrals and case management as required.
- Enable home visiting to offer education and support to pregnant women and families with infants with respect to parenting skills and knowledge, healthy child development, positive lifestyle choices, preconception health, optimal maternal reproductive health and access to social supports.
