OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all usefull occupations; and the dignifying of each rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to service society;

THIRD: The application if the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through of a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service

President's Notes

Dear Fellow Rotarians and Friends,

November unfolded like a tapestry of purpose for the Rotary Club of San Juanico–Tacloban—each day woven with service, compassion, and the quiet determination of Rotarians who choose to show up for others.

It began on November 20, a day that perfectly captured the spirit of our club. While some of our members gathered for the 5th ACOM, discussing plans, refining strategies, and ensuring our projects stayed on track, another group of Rotarians was already out on the field in LGU Carigara. There, through Project Xavier, they went door to door, delivering wheelchairs to individuals whose mobility—and dignity—would be transformed by this simple gift. For every home they visited, they brought more than equipment; they brought hope.

Just two days later, on November 22, we reconvened for our 10th Regular Meeting. Once again, we balanced planning with action. At the same time, our Chess Tournament continued to draw in young minds, each move on the board a reminder that strategy, patience, and discipline are learned one game at a time.

Then came November 23, the day of celebration. At the 1st Floor of Robinsons Marasbaras near Bigby's, the awarding ceremony for the Chess Tournament brought together players, parents, Rotarians, and supporters. Smiles were wide, applause was loud, and every medal placed around a player's neck symbolized not just victory, but the encouragement our club continues to give to the youth of our community.

Through these moments—meetings, missions, games, and gatherings—one truth became clear: Rotary is at its strongest when its members move together.

To all Rotarians who gave their time, energy, and heart throughout these days, thank you. You are the reason our projects come alive, our community grows stronger, and our vision remains steady.

And as we continue onward, let us remember:
Every act of service tells a story—and together, we are writing one of hope.

R.I. PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

November 2025

This November, as we celebrate The Rotary Foundation, I invite you to consider not only what we give but why we give. The Foundation is more than a fund for projects. It is the beating heart of our promise that service, rooted in trust and friendship, can create lasting change.

Our Action Plan calls us to increase our impact, and the Foundation is how we make this vision real. Since 1988, Rotary and our partners have immunized nearly 3 billion children against polio. We have committed more than $2.6 billion to this cause, and last year alone we directed $146 million toward the final push for eradication. These numbers are significant, but the true impact is not in statistics — it is in the lives of children who will never again fear polio. It is in the hope restored to families and the peace built in communities once defined by disease.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International

President Rotary Year 2025-2026

But polio is only one story among many. Each year, Rotary Peace Centers train new generations of leaders who will transform conflict into dialogue and division into understanding. In 2023-24, nearly 100 new fellows began their studies, continuing a legacy of more than 1,800 peacebuilders from over 140 countries. When we invest in them, we are planting seeds of peace that will bear fruit for decades to come.

The Foundation also touches lives through district and global grants, supporting projects large and small. A clean water well for a rural community, scholarships for young professionals, medical care in the wake of disaster — these are not temporary gestures, but steps toward dignity, resilience, and opportunity. This is how Rotary service becomes lasting impact. And when natural disasters strike, our Foundation allows Rotary to act quickly with disaster response grants.

Our Foundation is not about what we can do alone but what we can do together. Each contribution, no matter its size, joins with others to create a collective act of faith in humanity and in the future.

The last mile of any great journey is always the hardest. We see this in our final steps toward ending polio, in our work for peace, and in every project that seeks to lift people out of despair. Yet every time we give, we declare that our work will continue regardless of the challenge.

This November, let us give with gratitude, with joy, and with hope. Through our Foundation, we Unite for Good, and in doing so, we leave behind not only projects but a legacy of peace, trust, and Service Above Self.
