THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do

1. is it the TRUTH?
2. is it FAIR to all Concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to service society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service

President's Notes

Fellow Rotarians,

December has truly been a remarkable month marked by purpose, passion, and people in action. From December 16 to 20, the Rotary Club of San Juanico stood united in service, fellowship, and leadership living out our shared commitment to Service Above Self and creating meaningful, lasting impact within our community. I am deeply proud of every Rotarian, partner, and volunteer whose dedication and teamwork made these initiatives a success.

Our journey began on December 16 with Dance Dayo, a vibrant celebration of culture, talent, and youth empowerment showcasing unity through creativity and collaboration. On December 17, our Christmas Cheer Activity at the Pope Francis Home for the Elderly and Orphans became a heartfelt reminder of the true spirit of the season. Through shared warm meals, meaningful conversations, gifts, and moments of laughter, we brought hope, love, and compassion to the elderly and children. Along with our presence, we shared essential items including hygiene kits with shampoo and powder, assorted biscuits, Monde products, laundry supplies, diapers, tissue, and mineral water.

The momentum continued on December 18 with the Induction of the Interact Club of SPSPS San Juanico, where we welcomed new young leaders and inspired the next generation to embrace service, leadership, and responsibility. We concluded this meaningful week on December 20 with our Christmas Party, a joyful gathering filled with gratitude, laughter, and renewed fellowship celebrating not only the Christmas season but also the strong and united Rotary family we continue to build.

Continuing our commitment to service, on December 29, we carried out the Jetmatic Pump Donation at Malingon Elementary School, Oras, Eastern Samar, providing a sustainable source of clean water to support sanitation, hygiene, and a healthier learning environment for students and teachers—turning compassion into lasting impact.

As we move forward, may these moments strengthen our resolve to serve with integrity, compassion, and unity. Together, let us carry this spirit of service into the coming year and continue making a difference in the lives of others.

Thank you, and Mabuhay ang Rotary Club of San Juanico!

R.I. PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

December 2025

This month's special issue of Rotary magazine is all about happiness, that most elemental of human yearnings. More than a feeling, though, this state of positive well-being, and the conditions necessary to create and sustain it, should be considered a universal right.

December also marks Rotary's Disease Prevention and Treatment Month, when we highlight our members' work to promote health and wellness, including mental wellness. Globally, nearly 1 in 7 people have a mental health disorder, according to a recent World Health Organization report. Yet only 9 percent of people with depression receive adequate treatment.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International
President Rotary Year 2025-2026

We are fortunate in Rotary to have a powerful way to support emotional well-being and happiness: friendship. The connections we build in Rotary can be a powerful force for change. I know this from personal experience.

When my fellow members first proposed that I become club president, I demurred. I had a stutter. I was terrified of speaking. But having club members who supported me and surrounded me with affection enabled me to face my fear, and I found a way to stand confidently before a crowd.

Today, I regularly address audiences — some numbering in the thousands — in a language that is not native to me. The Rotary members in my life helped me create lasting change within myself.

That fellowship gives us the courage and means to create lasting change in the world as well, and mental health services are in desperate need of improvement. The WHO reports that governments on average devote only 2 percent of their health budgets to mental health, and only 11 percent of that funding reaches community-based services. In some countries, only one trained mental health professional is available for every 100,000 people. The WHO has called for strategic and urgent action to close the gap.

Rotary can answer that call by championing mental health awareness in our clubs, working with local health systems, funding training for community health workers, and supporting initiatives that bring care to places where none exists. Even small investments in mental health yield enormous returns in productivity, public health, and happiness.

While we are creating lasting change in the world, we cannot forget to take care of each other. Past RI President Gordon McNally wisely reminds us that we must go beyond asking, "How are you?" We owe it to each other to instead ask, "How are you really?"

As we transition to a new year filled with new possibilities, let us Unite for Good — for healing, friendship, and access to happiness.
