PRESIDENT'S NOTES

As we officially begin Rotary Year 2025–2026, Project Unang Lakang could not have been a more meaningful way to mark this new chapter of service. The laughter, bright smiles, and hopeful faces we witnessed at the St. Gerald Pastoral Center remind us why we serve—because every child deserves a joyful beginning and a confident first step toward their dreams.

Unang Lakang, which means ‘first step,’ symbolizes not only the children’s journey into a new school year but also our club’s renewed commitment as we step into another Rotary year. By coming together with the Rotary Clubs of Areas 3B and 3C, alongside the Rotaract Clubs under the Leyte Council, we demonstrated the true strength of Rotary: unity in service and collaboration in action.

Seeing 60 young beneficiaries enjoy a day filled with games, learning, and the distribution of school supplies affirmed that service is most powerful when it touches both the heart and the future. Beyond the materials provided, we offered encouragement, attention, and reassurance that they are supported by a community that believes in them. As President of the Rotary Club of San Juanico, I am deeply grateful to our fellow Rotarians, Rotaractors, and partners who helped make this launch meaningful and impactful.

Let this project set the tone for the months ahead—where compassion guides our actions, collaboration strengthens our efforts, and service remains at the center of all we do.

Rotary Year 2025–2026 begins with purpose, hope, and unity. And just like every child’s journey, our mission continues—one meaningful step at a time.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

As the Rotary Club of San Juanico Tacloban officially commenced Rotary Year 2025–2026, the club successfully carried out its initial activities, setting a purposeful and service-driven tone for the new term. On July 1, 2025, the club actively participated in Project Unang

Lakang held at the St. Gerard Pastoral Center. Serving as the club's opening service initiative for the Rotary year, the activity supported 60 young beneficiaries through the distribution of school supplies, as well as the conduct of games and engagement activities. In collaboration with Rotary Clubs from Areas 3B and 3C and Rotaract Clubs under the Leyte Council, the project reflected strong inter-club cooperation and a shared commitment to community development. The activity underscored the club's dedication to meaningful service, particularly in supporting children as they begin their academic journey.

Subsequently, the club conducted its 1st Regular Meeting on July 12, 2025. During the meeting, key plans, priorities, and directions for the Rotary Year 2025–2026 were discussed and aligned, reinforcing the club's commitment to sustained service and organizational effectiveness.

Overall, the club was able to successfully accomplish its scheduled activities for the period, demonstrating readiness and unity as it embarks on a new Rotary year anchored in service, collaboration, and impact.

JULY HIGHLIGHTS

60 YOUNG SMILES LIGHT UP PROJECT UNANG LAKANG AT ST. GERARD PASTORAL CENTER

A wave of laughter, bright smiles, and hopeful beginnings filled the halls of the St. Gerald Pastoral Center as the Rotary Club of San Juanico joined the Rotary Clubs of Areas 3B and 3C, in collaboration with the Rotaract Clubs under the Leyte Council, to launch Rotary Year 2025–2026 with Project Unang Lakang.

The heartwarming children's party gathered 60 young beneficiaries for a day designed to celebrate childhood while preparing them for the school year ahead. True to its name—Unang Lakang or “first step”—the initiative aimed to give children a joyful and confident start to their educational journey.

The program featured lively interactive games, engaging group activities, and the distribution of essential school supplies. Volunteers worked hand in hand to create a welcoming atmosphere where children could learn, play, and simply enjoy being kids. Beyond the materials handed out, the event delivered something even more meaningful: encouragement, attention, and a sense of belonging.

Through the united efforts of the Rotary Clubs of Areas 3B and 3C and the Rotaract Clubs under the Leyte Council, Project Unang Lakang stood as a powerful testament to community collaboration. It reflected Rotary's unwavering commitment to youth-centered service and grassroots impact—where small acts of kindness spark lasting change.

As Rotary Year 2025–2026 officially begins, the Rotary Club of San Juanico reaffirms its dedication to uplifting communities and nurturing young minds—proving that every great journey begins with a single, purposeful step.
