GUIDING PRINCIPLES

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all Concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to service society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service

RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

When I stepped into the role of Rotary International president, the moment came swiftly and unexpectedly. It got me thinking how the world can change in an instant, and how Rotary has the power to be a steady force for good in that change. This month, Rotary's Basic Education and Literacy Month, we have a clear call to action: to strengthen the foundation of learning in every community we serve.

Millions of people worldwide remain unable to read. Millions of children lack access to basic education. And yet, we know the solution: sustainable, inclusive, and equitable education, especially for girls and marginalized youths. Literacy is more than the ability to read and write. It is the key to human dignity, economic mobility, and peace. Every book opened, every classroom supported, and every teacher trained becomes a building block of peace.

This year, our message is Unite for Good. "Unite" speaks to the strength we find in each other. When we unite our talents and resources — not only among our clubs but across partners, organizations, and communities — we expand our reach. And when we do so consistently over time, we create lasting change. Rotary service cannot be measured only in annual goals. Our work in education must extend beyond a single year. Literacy projects take time to take root, grow, and bear fruit.

Now is the time to think boldly and creatively. New types of clubs can help us engage educators, students, and advocates in new ways. Let us use this month to welcome new members with a passion for education and empower existing ones to lead service projects that reflect local needs. Whether you're building libraries, distributing textbooks, or mentoring students, your actions matter.

Education is also peacebuilding. Every scholarship we provide, every early childhood program we support, every adult literacy class we fund is an act of peace. And Rotary has been building peace in this way for more than a century.

Let us not forget that the fight for literacy is not only about access, it's about equity. It is about ensuring every learner, regardless of background, has the opportunity to reach their potential. And it is about standing together — across borders, languages, and generations — to say that education is a right, not a privilege.

Let's Unite for Good by committing to literacy that lasts. Let's dream of a world where every child learns to read. And then, as people of action, let's work together to make that dream a reality.

Together, we can change lives, starting with the power of education. Together, we Unite for Good.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

We often frame service in terms of charity—but that framing can be limiting. The more difficult question is this: are we addressing symptoms, or are we enabling systems that create lasting change?

The “Handog ng Pangulo: Job Fair 2025” held on September 13 at the Leyte Convention Center presents a different dimension of service—one that moves beyond immediate aid and into economic empowerment. Employment is not just an outcome; it is a stabilizing force. It shapes dignity, independence, and long-term community resilience.

But let’s interrogate participation more critically. Is simply being present in initiatives like this enough? Or should we be asking how Rotary can play a more strategic role within these ecosystems?

The involvement of the Department of Labor and Employment underscores the scale and structure required to address employment challenges. As partners, our responsibility is not only to support—but to identify where we can add distinct value. Are we connecting job seekers to opportunities more effectively? Are we leveraging our networks to open pathways that would otherwise remain inaccessible?

Because if service is to remain relevant, it must evolve alongside the needs of the community. What this initiative highlights is a shift—from transactional service to transformational engagement. Supporting livelihood is not a one-time intervention; it is a continuous process that demands collaboration, foresight, and intentional alignment with institutions that drive economic activity.

For the Rotary Club of San Juanico, this is both an affirmation and a challenge. Affirmation that we are present where it matters—but a challenge to deepen that presence into measurable impact.

As we move forward, the question is no longer whether we serve, but how effectively we contribute to systems that empower people to sustain themselves.

Because true service is not only about giving—it is about creating conditions where people no longer need to ask.

ROTARY AT WORK

A showcase of the Rotary Club of San Juanico's ongoing service projects, initiatives, and meaningful community engagements.

JULY HIGHLIGHTS

ROTARY CLUB OF SAN JUANICO JOINS “HANDOG NG PANGULO: JOB FAIR 2025”

Demonstrating its continued commitment to community engagement, the Rotary Club of San Juanico joined the “Handog ng Pangulo: Job Fair 2025” on September 13, 2025, held at the Leyte Convention Center. The initiative, organized by the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE), gathered government agencies, private employers, and hundreds of job seekers under one roof in a unified effort to promote employment and economic opportunity.

The Rotary Club of San Juanico proudly took part in the event in support of its objectives—recognizing the vital role employment plays in uplifting individuals and strengthening communities. Club members attended the activity to show solidarity with partner institutions and to reaffirm Rotary’s advocacy for initiatives that create real, sustainable impact.

The job fair provided applicants with direct access to recruiters, on-the-spot interviews, and exposure to a wide array of career opportunities across different industries. For many job seekers, the event served as a crucial step toward financial stability and professional growth.

By joining this significant employment initiative, the Rotary Club of San Juanico reinforced its commitment to service beyond traditional projects. Participation in programs that address livelihood and economic empowerment reflects the club’s broader vision of community development—where service includes supporting pathways to dignity, independence, and opportunity.

Through collaboration and active presence in meaningful civic endeavors, the Rotary Club of San Juanico continues to live out the principle of Service Above Self—standing alongside institutions and communities in building a stronger and more hopeful future for all.
