GUIDING PRINCIPLES

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all Concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to service society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service

RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

When I stepped into the role of Rotary International president, the moment came swiftly and unexpectedly. It got me thinking how the world can change in an instant, and how Rotary has the power to be a steady force for good in that change. This month, Rotary's Basic Education and Literacy Month, we have a clear call to action: to strengthen the foundation of learning in every community we serve.

Millions of people worldwide remain unable to read. Millions of children lack access to basic education. And yet, we know the solution: sustainable, inclusive, and equitable education, especially for girls and marginalized youths. Literacy is more than the ability to read and write. It is the key to human dignity, economic mobility, and peace. Every book opened, every classroom supported, and every teacher trained becomes a building block of peace.

This year, our message is Unite for Good. "Unite" speaks to the strength we find in each other. When we unite our talents and resources — not only among our clubs but across partners, organizations, and communities — we expand our reach. And when we do so consistently over time, we create lasting change. Rotary service cannot be measured only in annual goals. Our work in education must extend beyond a single year. Literacy projects take time to take root, grow, and bear fruit.

Now is the time to think boldly and creatively. New types of clubs can help us engage educators, students, and advocates in new ways. Let us use this month to welcome new members with a passion for education and empower existing ones to lead service projects that reflect local needs. Whether you're building libraries, distributing textbooks, or mentoring students, your actions matter.

Education is also peacebuilding. Every scholarship we provide, every early childhood program we support, every adult literacy class we fund is an act of peace. And Rotary has been building peace in this way for more than a century.

Let us not forget that the fight for literacy is not only about access, it's about equity. It is about ensuring every learner, regardless of background, has the opportunity to reach their potential. And it is about standing together — across borders, languages, and generations — to say that education is a right, not a privilege.

Let's Unite for Good by committing to literacy that lasts. Let's dream of a world where every child learns to read. And then, as people of action, let's work together to make that dream a reality.

Together, we can change lives, starting with the power of education. Together, we Unite for Good.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

As President of the Rotary Club of San Juanico, I am proud that our club, in partnership with the Rotaract Club of San Juanico, was able to lead the "One Bottle, One Promise" advocacy at Barangay 12, Palanog Gymnasium, Tacloban City.

This initiative reminds us that even the smallest actions can have a profound impact. By reducing, reusing, and recycling, we not only protect the environment but also instill awareness, responsibility, and a sense of shared purpose in our communities. Every bottle collected is a promise—a commitment to leave a cleaner, greener, and more sustainable world for future generations.

Through this program, we saw firsthand how education, awareness, and community participation can come together to create meaningful change. I am inspired by the dedication of our members, youth partners, and community participants who demonstrated that environmental stewardship is not just an individual effort, but a collective responsibility.

The Rotary Club of San Juanico remains committed to initiatives that empower communities, nurture leadership, and uphold our guiding principle of Service Above Self. "One Bottle, One Promise" is a clear example of how we can turn small acts into a movement of hope, action, and lasting impact.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON

SEPTEMBER HIGHLIGHTS

September 27, 2025

ONE BOTTLE, ONE PROMISE: ROTARY CLUB OF SAN JUANICO LEADS COMMUNITY IN ENVIRONMENTAL ADVOCACY

A single bottle can symbolize more than waste—it can represent a commitment to change and environmental responsibility. With this in mind, the Rotary Club of San Juanico, in partnership with the Rotaract Club of San Juanico, launched the “One Bottle, One Promise” advocacy at Barangay 12, Palanog Gymnasium, Tacloban City on September 27, 2025.

The initiative aims to educate and mobilize the community around reducing, reusing, and recycling. By turning simple actions into collective efforts, participants are reminded that even small contributions can create meaningful environmental impact. The program highlights awareness, responsibility, and active engagement as key drivers of sustainability.

More than a campaign, “One Bottle, One Promise” fosters environmental stewardship and encourages long-term habits that protect natural resources. Through guidance and education, both clubs demonstrated the power of community-led action in achieving sustainable outcomes.

Through this initiative, the Rotary Club of San Juanico upholds its commitment to Service Above Self—empowering communities to take part in protecting the environment and proving that lasting change begins with small, intentional steps.
