GUIDING PRINCIPLES

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all Concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to service society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service

RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

When I stepped into the role of Rotary International president, the moment came swiftly and unexpectedly. It got me thinking how the world can change in an instant, and how Rotary has the power to be a steady force for good in that change. This month, Rotary's Basic Education and Literacy Month, we have a clear call to action: to strengthen the foundation of learning in every community we serve.

Millions of people worldwide remain unable to read. Millions of children lack access to basic education. And yet, we know the solution: sustainable, inclusive, and equitable education, especially for girls and marginalized youths. Literacy is more than the ability to read and write. It is the key to human dignity, economic mobility, and peace. Every book opened, every classroom supported, and every teacher trained becomes a building block of peace.

This year, our message is Unite for Good. "Unite" speaks to the strength we find in each other. When we unite our talents and resources — not only among our clubs but across partners, organizations, and communities — we expand our reach. And when we do so consistently over time, we create lasting change. Rotary service cannot be measured only in annual goals. Our work in education must extend beyond a single year. Literacy projects take time to take root, grow, and bear fruit.

Now is the time to think boldly and creatively. New types of clubs can help us engage educators, students, and advocates in new ways. Let us use this month to welcome new members with a passion for education and empower existing ones to lead service projects that reflect local needs. Whether you're building libraries, distributing textbooks, or mentoring students, your actions matter.

Education is also peacebuilding. Every scholarship we provide, every early childhood program we support, every adult literacy class we fund is an act of peace. And Rotary has been building peace in this way for more than a century.

Let us not forget that the fight for literacy is not only about access, it's about equity. It is about ensuring every learner, regardless of background, has the opportunity to reach their potential. And it is about standing together — across borders, languages, and generations — to say that education is a right, not a privilege.

Let's Unite for Good by committing to literacy that lasts. Let's dream of a world where every child learns to read. And then, as people of action, let's work together to make that dream a reality.

Together, we can change lives, starting with the power of education. Together, we Unite for Good.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

As President of the Rotary Club of San Juanico, I am honored that our club, in partnership with the Rotaract Club of SPSPS San Juanico, was able to participate in Project KALINGA: Handog na Gamot, Hatid na Kalinga at the Pope Francis Home for Orphans and Elderly.

This initiative allowed us to serve 12 children and 42 elderly residents, providing not only medicines but also compassion, care, and meaningful interaction. Through this program, we were reminded that service goes beyond material support—it is about presence, empathy, and touching lives in a way that uplifts both body and spirit.

Project KALINGA exemplifies what it means to live out Rotary's guiding principle of Service Above Self. As a club, we are committed to leading with heart, fostering collaboration, and creating initiatives that bring lasting impact to our communities. Participating in this project reinforces our belief that together—with dedication, compassion, and partnership—we can make a real difference in the lives of those who need it most.

I am inspired by the dedication of our members and our youth partners, and I look forward to continuing projects that spread hope, care, and opportunity to every corner of our community.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON

ROTARY AT WORK

A showcase of the Rotary Club of San Juanico's ongoing service projects, initiatives, and meaningful community engagements.

SEPTEMBER HIGHLIGHTS

September 28, 2025

ROTARY CLUB OF SAN JUANICO BRINGS HOPE THROUGH PROJECT KALINGA

The Rotary Club of San Juanico, in partnership with the Rotaract Club of SPSPS San Juanico, proudly participated in Project KALINGA: Handog na Gamot, Hatid na Kalinga at the Pope Francis Home for Orphans and Elderly last September 28, 2025. The initiative provided medicines, care, and support to 12 children and 42 elderly residents, demonstrating the club's unwavering commitment to uplifting vulnerable members of the community.

Through this project, the Rotary Club of San Juanico showcased its leadership and dedication to compassionate service. Members actively engaged with beneficiaries, ensuring both their physical and emotional needs were addressed, while fostering a sense of care, dignity, and hope. The program reflects the club's philosophy that service is not only about giving material assistance but also about touching lives with empathy and presence.

Project KALINGA embodies the core Rotary principle of Service Above Self. By partnering with its youth counterpart, the Rotary Club of San Juanico strengthened the reach and impact of the initiative, demonstrating how collaboration amplifies community engagement and creates meaningful, lasting change.

Through leadership, dedication, and heartfelt action, the Rotary Club of San Juanico continues to set an example of how organized, purpose-driven service can transform lives, inspire hope, and uplift entire communities.
