RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

When I stepped into the role of Rotary International president, the moment came swiftly and unexpectedly. It got me thinking how the world can change in an instant, and how Rotary has the power to be a steady force for good in that change. This month, Rotary's Basic Education and Literacy Month, we have a clear call to action: to strengthen the foundation of learning in every community we serve.

Millions of people worldwide remain unable to read. Millions of children lack access to basic education. And yet, we know the solution: sustainable, inclusive, and equitable education, especially for girls and marginalized youths. Literacy is more than the ability to read and write. It is the key to human dignity, economic mobility, and peace. Every book opened, every classroom supported, and every teacher trained becomes a building block of peace.

This year, our message is Unite for Good. "Unite" speaks to the strength we find in each other. When we unite our talents and resources — not only among our clubs but across partners, organizations, and communities — we expand our reach. And when we do so consistently over time, we create lasting change. Rotary service cannot be measured only in annual goals. Our work in education must extend beyond a single year. Literacy projects take time to take root, grow, and bear fruit.

Now is the time to think boldly and creatively. New types of clubs can help us engage educators, students, and advocates in new ways. Let us use this month to welcome new members with a passion for education and empower existing ones to lead service projects that reflect local needs. Whether you're building libraries, distributing textbooks, or mentoring students, your actions matter.

Education is also peacebuilding. Every scholarship we provide, every early childhood program we support, every adult literacy class we fund is an act of peace. And Rotary has been building peace in this way for more than a century.

Let us not forget that the fight for literacy is not only about access, it's about equity. It is about ensuring every learner, regardless of background, has the opportunity to reach their potential. And it is about standing together — across borders, languages, and generations — to say that education is a right, not a privilege.

Let's Unite for Good by committing to literacy that lasts. Let's dream of a world where every child learns to read. And then, as people of action, let's work together to make that dream a reality.

Together, we can change lives, starting with the power of education. Together, we Unite for Good.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

The second and final wave of “BaSayaw: Kinding-kinding ngan Istorya” is a reminder that education becomes most powerful when it is experienced, not just delivered.

What we witnessed in Manlurip Elementary School was not simply participation, but transformation—learners who once hesitated now expressing stories with confidence, movement, and voice. That shift matters. It tells us that when learning is made accessible, creative, and human-centered, it stays with the child far beyond the activity itself.

This initiative also reflects what makes Rotary service meaningful: collaboration. The continued support of our partner clubs strengthened not only the program’s execution, but its reach and impact. Service, at its best, is never isolated—it is shared, aligned, and intentional.

As this chapter of BaSayaw concludes, our responsibility does not end with implementation. It continues in how we sustain this kind of learning, how we refine it, and how we bring it to more communities.

Because at its core, this is not just a literacy program—it is an investment in how children learn to express, imagine, and believe in their own voices.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON

ROTARY AT WORK

A showcase of the Rotary Club of San Juanico's ongoing service projects, initiatives, and meaningful community engagements.

SEPTEMBER HIGHLIGHTS

ROTARY CLUB OF SAN JUANICO PARTICIPATES IN 4TH AREA COORDINATION MEETING (ACOM)

Stories do not end in a single telling—they evolve, deepen, and return with greater meaning.

Following the successful first wave on September 18, the Rotary Club of Tacloban brought its literacy initiative, “BaSayaw: Kinding-kinding ngan Istorya,” back to Manlurip Elementary School on September 30 for its second and final wave. Building on its initial launch, the program continued to transform how young learners experience reading—blending storytelling and movement into an immersive, expressive form of learning.

In this final installment, the energy was not only sustained but elevated. Learners who once observed now participated with confidence, embodying stories through dance and voice. What began as an introduction to creative literacy evolved into a space where imagination moved freely, allowing children to find their own rhythm in storytelling.

The continued support of partner clubs—the Rotary Club of San Juanico, Rotary Club of Kankabato, Rotary Club of Kandaya, and Rotary Club of Central Baluarte—reinforced the strength of collaborative service. Their shared commitment ensured the program became more than a one-time engagement, but a complete and meaningful learning experience for the students.

More than a concluding session, the second wave of BaSayaw marked a shift—from guided participation to internalized learning. It showed that when education is made dynamic and participatory, it does not simply inform—it transforms.

As BaSayaw closes this chapter, the stories carried by the learners continue—now told with greater confidence, creativity, and joy.
