RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

October is Rotary's Community Economic Development Month, a time to spotlight our efforts to help communities build thriving, sustainable futures. This month's observance aligns perfectly with the Rotary core value of leadership.

Leadership means empowering people to guide their own progress. That is precisely what Rotary's economic development projects aim to achieve. Take, for example, a recent initiative in southern India in which Rotary members unlocked the power of women of the Adivasi tribal groups through sewing training to earn a living and regain social inclusion. Historically, widows and abandoned women in this region lose social standing and are shunned by society or blamed for their misfortunes. Opportunities to support themselves or obtain training are minimal.

This year, the Rotary Club of Windsor Roseland, Ontario, partnered with clubs in Districts 3203 and 3234 in India – and with the Indian organization Sevalaya Trust – to provide sewing machines and training to 80 Adivasi women. They learned to stitch saree blouses, kurta tunics, and salwar suits, enabling them to support themselves and their families. Each woman received a certificate for completing the program, and the sewing-machine provider offered free long-term maintenance for the machines. The project offered vital income and dignity to women ostracized by society after widowhood.

This story is one example of Rotary leadership in action: local people guiding solutions that address their community needs. Our role is not to deliver charity or to impose outside models, but to foster self-reliance by investing in leadership, skills, and sustainable enterprise.

This October, I invite Rotary members worldwide to reflect on economic leadership in their communities. Who is stepping forward to lead local economic initiatives? Where is there untapped talent that could be supported with training or mentorship? How can your club catalyze opportunity through partnerships with local businesses, vocational schools, or savings groups?

Leadership is not always about being visible. Sometimes it means listening, working collaboratively, and amplifying the voices of others. That approach lies at the heart of Rotary's philosophy and our lasting impact on economic development.

By building capacity – whether through microcredit groups, vocational training workshops, or entrepreneurship programs – we enable communities to lead their own transformation. When people take ownership of their progress, change becomes sustainable.

Let us lead with good intention and provide support with heart. By nurturing local leadership, we can create opportunities that ripple through communities, empowering individuals, families, and societies. Together, we can support economies that work for everyone and enact community development projects that last.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

As President of the Rotary Club of San Juanico, I am proud to report the success of Bloodline 2025: Bloodletting Activity, held on October 14, 2025, at the Mary Ngo Auditorium, Saint Paul School of Professional Studies. This meaningful initiative brought together our members, students, Rotaractors, Interactors, and volunteers—all united by the mission of giving the gift of life through blood donation.

Through the collective effort of everyone involved, the activity successfully gathered 55 units of blood, each representing a direct and tangible contribution to saving lives in our community. The event exemplified the Rotary principle of Service Above Self, demonstrating how even small acts of generosity can create life-changing impact.

I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to our youth partners from the Rotaract Club of SPSPS San Juanico and Interact Club of SPSPS San Juanico, as well as the Eastern Visayas Medical Center (EVMC) and all volunteers. Their dedication, energy, and commitment ensured the smooth and successful conduct of this activity.

Bloodline 2025 was not only a lifesaving initiative but also an opportunity to foster fellowship, strengthen partnerships, and showcase the Rotary Club of San Juanico's leadership in community health advocacy. The enthusiasm and generosity displayed by our donors remind us that service is most impactful when we work together, united by purpose and compassion.

As we move forward, the Rotary Club of San Juanico remains committed to organizing meaningful projects that address real community needs, empower our citizens, and inspire hope. Bloodline 2025 is a testament to what we can achieve when we dedicate our hearts and hands to service.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON

BLOODLINE 2025: ROTARY CLUB OF SAN JUANICO JOINS HANDS TO GIVE THE GIFT OF LIFE

On October 14, 2025, the Rotary Club of San Juanico, in partnership with the Rotaract Club of SPSPS San Juanico, the Eastern Visayas Medical Center (EVMC), and the Interact Club of SPSPS San Juanico, successfully conducted Bloodline 2025: Bloodletting Activity at the Mary Ngo Auditorium, at Saint Paul School of Professional Studies.

The event brought together students, Rotarians, Rotaractors, Interactors, and volunteers—all united by a single goal: to give the gift of life through voluntary blood donation. With great dedication, the activity successfully collected 55 units of blood, each representing a direct contribution to saving lives in the community.

In addition to the lifesaving impact, the bloodletting activity reinforced fellowship among participants, strengthened partnerships between the Rotary Club and its youth arms, and highlighted the importance of proactive community service. It served as a vivid reminder that every donation matters, and together, small acts of generosity create life-changing results.

The Rotary Club of San Juanico extends heartfelt thanks to every donor, volunteer, and partner organization whose participation made this initiative a success. Through Bloodline 2025, the club continues to embody the Rotary principle of Service Above Self, inspiring hope, promoting compassion, and empowering the community to unite for the greater good.
