RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

October is Rotary's Community Economic Development Month, a time to spotlight our efforts to help communities build thriving, sustainable futures. This month's observance aligns perfectly with the Rotary core value of leadership.

Leadership means empowering people to guide their own progress. That is precisely what Rotary's economic development projects aim to achieve. Take, for example, a recent initiative in southern India in which Rotary members unlocked the power of women of the Adivasi tribal groups through sewing training to earn a living and regain social inclusion. Historically, widows and abandoned women in this region lose social standing and are shunned by society or blamed for their misfortunes. Opportunities to support themselves or obtain training are minimal.

This year, the Rotary Club of Windsor Roseland, Ontario, partnered with clubs in Districts 3203 and 3234 in India – and with the Indian organization Sevalaya Trust – to provide sewing machines and training to 80 Adivasi women. They learned to stitch saree blouses, kurta tunics, and salwar suits, enabling them to support themselves and their families. Each woman received a certificate for completing the program, and the sewing-machine provider offered free long-term maintenance for the machines. The project offered vital income and dignity to women ostracized by society after widowhood.

This story is one example of Rotary leadership in action: local people guiding solutions that address their community needs. Our role is not to deliver charity or to impose outside models, but to foster self-reliance by investing in leadership, skills, and sustainable enterprise.

This October, I invite Rotary members worldwide to reflect on economic leadership in their communities. Who is stepping forward to lead local economic initiatives? Where is there untapped talent that could be supported with training or mentorship? How can your club catalyze opportunity through partnerships with local businesses, vocational schools, or savings groups?

Leadership is not always about being visible. Sometimes it means listening, working collaboratively, and amplifying the voices of others. That approach lies at the heart of Rotary's philosophy and our lasting impact on economic development.

By building capacity – whether through microcredit groups, vocational training workshops, or entrepreneurship programs – we enable communities to lead their own transformation. When people take ownership of their progress, change becomes sustainable.

Let us lead with good intention and provide support with heart. By nurturing local leadership, we can create opportunities that ripple through communities, empowering individuals, families, and societies. Together, we can support economies that work for everyone and enact community development projects that last.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

Recognition is often seen as an endpoint—but in Rotary, it should function as a checkpoint. Earning the Distinguished Club Award – Platinum at the Magic District 3860 Awards is a significant milestone for the Rotary Club of San Juanico–Tacloban. It affirms that our efforts in service, membership engagement, and leadership are not only active, but effective. Yet the more important question is this: what does this recognition now require from us?

This achievement is built on the leadership of Erwin Vincent G. Alcala, whose term demonstrated that consistency and direction are what turn initiatives into impact. But awards, by nature, reflect the past. Leadership, on the other hand, must remain forward-looking. The challenge now is not to celebrate the standard—but to raise it.

Because excellence, once achieved, can easily become comfortable. And comfort, if left unchecked, leads to stagnation. If we are to truly honor this recognition, then we must examine our systems, refine our strategies, and ensure that our next set of actions surpasses what has already been accomplished.

What this award ultimately represents is not just performance, but potential—the capacity of this club to lead with intention, to serve with depth, and to sustain impact beyond a single Rotary year.

The question moving forward is clear: how do we ensure that this level of excellence becomes our baseline, not our peak?

Because the real work begins after recognition—when expectations are higher, and the responsibility to lead becomes even greater.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON

The Rotary Club of San Juanico-Tacloban proudly celebrates a remarkable milestone—receiving the Distinguished Club Award – Platinum, along with multiple individual recognitions, during the Magic District 3860 Awards held at Bai Hotel Cebu on October 17, 2025.

This prestigious recognition reflects the club's outstanding performance, impactful service projects, strong membership engagement, and commitment to Rotary's core values throughout the Rotary year. The Platinum distinction stands as a symbol of excellence, consistency, and meaningful community impact.

These honors are a testament to the unwavering leadership of Immediate Past President Erwin Vincent G.
