RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

October is Rotary's Community Economic Development Month, a time to spotlight our efforts to help communities build thriving, sustainable futures. This month's observance aligns perfectly with the Rotary core value of leadership.

Leadership means empowering people to guide their own progress. That is precisely what Rotary's economic development projects aim to achieve. Take, for example, a recent initiative in southern India in which Rotary members unlocked the power of women of the Adivasi tribal groups through sewing training to earn a living and regain social inclusion. Historically, widows and abandoned women in this region lose social standing and are shunned by society or blamed for their misfortunes. Opportunities to support themselves or obtain training are minimal.

This year, the Rotary Club of Windsor Roseland, Ontario, partnered with clubs in Districts 3203 and 3234 in India – and with the Indian organization Sevalaya Trust – to provide sewing machines and training to 80 Adivasi women. They learned to stitch saree blouses, kurta tunics, and salwar suits, enabling them to support themselves and their families. Each woman received a certificate for completing the program, and the sewing-machine provider offered free long-term maintenance for the machines. The project offered vital income and dignity to women ostracized by society after widowhood.

This story is one example of Rotary leadership in action: local people guiding solutions that address their community needs. Our role is not to deliver charity or to impose outside models, but to foster self-reliance by investing in leadership, skills, and sustainable enterprise.

This October, I invite Rotary members worldwide to reflect on economic leadership in their communities. Who is stepping forward to lead local economic initiatives? Where is there untapped talent that could be supported with training or mentorship? How can your club catalyze opportunity through partnerships with local businesses, vocational schools, or savings groups?

Leadership is not always about being visible. Sometimes it means listening, working collaboratively, and amplifying the voices of others. That approach lies at the heart of Rotary's philosophy and our lasting impact on economic development.

By building capacity – whether through microcredit groups, vocational training workshops, or entrepreneurship programs – we enable communities to lead their own transformation. When people take ownership of their progress, change becomes sustainable.

Let us lead with good intention and provide support with heart. By nurturing local leadership, we can create opportunities that ripple through communities, empowering individuals, families, and societies. Together, we can support economies that work for everyone and enact community development projects that last.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

Global problems often feel distant—but polio eradication reminds us that distance does not diminish responsibility.

The Zone 10A Polio Summit 2025 brought together Rotarians and Rotaractors worldwide in a shared commitment to End Polio Now. Beyond being a platform for updates and discussion, it served as a critical checkpoint: progress has been significant, but completion demands consistency.

Reducing cases by over 99% is a milestone—but it also presents a risk. As visibility decreases, so can urgency. The challenge now is not just action, but sustained action—ensuring that advocacy, funding, and immunization efforts do not lose momentum in the final stretch.

Participating in this summit reinforces a key principle: global impact is built on local responsibility. What we do within our own communities—raising awareness, supporting vaccination, and strengthening public trust—directly contributes to a worldwide outcome.

The question moving forward is clear: how do we translate global alignment into consistent local execution?

Because ending polio is no longer about possibility—it is about persistence.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON

President, RY 2025-2026

OCTOBER HIGHLIGHTS

October 22, 2025

ROTARY CLUB OF SAN JUANICO JOINS ZONE 10A POLIO SUMMIT 2025

The Rotary Club of San Juanico proudly participated in the Zone 10A Virtual Polio Summit 2025 on October 22, 2025, joining Rotarians and Rotaractors worldwide in a united commitment to end polio once and for all.

The summit served as a platform for collaboration, learning, and renewed dedication to Rotary's End Polio Now campaign. Through discussions, global updates, and shared best practices, participants gained deeper insight into current eradication efforts and the steps needed to sustain progress.

The gathering emphasized the importance of continued advocacy, fundraising, and community engagement to ensure vaccination programs reach even the most vulnerable populations. While global cases have been reduced by over 99%, speakers highlighted that the final push requires sustained global solidarity.

By taking part, the Rotary Club of San Juanico reaffirmed its commitment to protecting every child from polio—strengthening efforts in awareness, immunization support, and community engagement.

More than a virtual conference, the summit reinforced Rotary's strength as a global network united in one goal: a polio-free world. Together, we make every drop count.
