GUIDING PRINCIPLES

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all Concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIP
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to service society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service

RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

This November, as we celebrate The Rotary Foundation, I invite you to consider not only what we give but why we give. The Foundation is more than a fund for projects. It is the beating heart of our promise that service, rooted in trust and friendship, can create lasting change.

Our Action Plan calls us to increase our impact, and the Foundation is how we make this vision real. Since 1988, Rotary and our partners have immunized nearly 3 billion children against polio. We have committed more than $2.6 billion to this cause, and last year alone we directed $146 million toward the final push for eradication. These numbers are significant, but the true impact is not in statistics – it is in the lives of children who will never again fear polio. It is in the hope restored to families and the peace built in communities once defined by disease.

But polio is only one story among many. Each year, Rotary Peace Centers train new generations of leaders who will transform conflict into dialogue and division into understanding. In 2023-24, nearly 100 new fellows began their studies, continuing a legacy of more than 1,800 peacebuilders from over 140 countries. When we invest in them, we are planting seeds of peace that will bear fruit for decades to come.

The Foundation also touches lives through district and global grants, supporting projects large and small. A clean water well for a rural community, scholarships for young professionals, medical care in the wake of disaster – these are not temporary gestures, but steps toward dignity, resilience, and opportunity. This is how Rotary service becomes lasting impact. And when natural disasters strike, our Foundation allows Rotary to act quickly with disaster response grants.

Our Foundation is not about what we can do alone but what we can do together. Each contribution, no matter its size, joins with others to create a collective act of faith in humanity and in the future. The last mile of any great journey is always the hardest. We see this in our final steps toward ending polio, in our work for peace, and in every project that seeks to lift people out of despair. Yet every time we give, we declare that our work will continue regardless of the challenge.

This November, let us give with gratitude, with joy, and with hope. Through our Foundation, we Unite for Good, and in doing so, we leave behind not only projects but a legacy of peace, trust, and Service Above Self.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

Project Bangon was one of the most meaningful initiatives our club has undertaken. Witnessing firsthand the devastation Typhoon Tino left in Bontoc, Southern Leyte, and seeing the resilience of its people reminded us why we serve.

Through the combined efforts of our Rotary and Rotaract teams, we were able to deliver not just relief packs, school supplies, hygiene kits, and clothing—but also hope and reassurance to families in need. The gratitude and smiles of children and parents alike were a powerful affirmation that even small acts of service can make a tremendous difference.

This project reinforced our belief that Rotary's mission of Service Above Self is more than a slogan—it is a call to action. Together, we turned compassion into tangible support, and in doing so, we helped rebuild confidence, restore dignity, and plant seeds of hope in the hearts of the Bontoc community.

As president, I am deeply proud of our members, partners, and volunteers whose dedication and empathy made Project Bangon a success. This experience strengthens our commitment to continue serving those who need us most, especially in times of crisis.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON

President, RY 2025-2026

PROJECT BANGON: FROM THE SCARS OF TINO TO SEEDS OF HOPE IN BONTOC, SOUTHERN LEYTE

On November 4, 2025, Typhoon Tino struck Eastern Visayas, devastating Brgy. Hilaan, Bontoc, Southern Leyte. Homes were destroyed, schools flooded, and families left struggling—but the community's resilience shone through.

Ten days later, on November 14, 2025, Project Bangon brought hope. Led by the Rotary Club of San Juanico (RCSJ), together with the Rotaract and Interact Clubs of San Juanico and SPSPS San Juanico, and guided by PP Fustanes, Mayor Noel, and Brgy. Captain Alinsub, the relief mission reached hundreds of families. They distributed 300 relief packs, 79 sets of school supplies and coloring books, 37 hygiene kits, and clothing—restoring not just basic needs but dignity and comfort.

Beyond numbers, the effort was about people: children smiling as they received school supplies, parents relieved to see their families supported, and volunteers witnessing hope return. "Even when disaster strikes, the human spirit shines brightest when we come together," said RCSJ.

Though Typhoon Tino left scars, Project Bangon planted seeds of recovery and solidarity—reminding Brgy. Hilaan that compassion and unity are the foundation for a stronger future.
