RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

This November, as we celebrate The Rotary Foundation, I invite you to consider not only what we give but why we give. The Foundation is more than a fund for projects. It is the beating heart of our promise that service, rooted in trust and friendship, can create lasting change.

Our Action Plan calls us to increase our impact, and the Foundation is how we make this vision real. Since 1988, Rotary and our partners have immunized nearly 3 billion children against polio. We have committed more than $2.6 billion to this cause, and last year alone we directed $146 million toward the final push for eradication. These numbers are significant, but the true impact is not in statistics – it is in the lives of children who will never again fear polio. It is in the hope restored to families and the peace built in communities once defined by disease.

But polio is only one story among many. Each year, Rotary Peace Centers train new generations of leaders who will transform conflict into dialogue and division into understanding. In 2023-24, nearly 100 new fellows began their studies, continuing a legacy of more than 1,800 peacebuilders from over 140 countries. When we invest in them, we are planting seeds of peace that will bear fruit for decades to come.

The Foundation also touches lives through district and global grants, supporting projects large and small. A clean water well for a rural community, scholarships for young professionals, medical care in the wake of disaster – these are not temporary gestures, but steps toward dignity, resilience, and opportunity. This is how Rotary service becomes lasting impact. And when natural disasters strike, our Foundation allows Rotary to act quickly with disaster response grants.

Our Foundation is not about what we can do alone but what we can do together. Each contribution, no matter its size, joins with others to create a collective act of faith in humanity and in the future. The last mile of any great journey is always the hardest. We see this in our final steps toward ending polio, in our work for peace, and in every project that seeks to lift people out of despair. Yet every time we give, we declare that our work will continue regardless of the challenge.

This November, let us give with gratitude, with joy, and with hope. Through our Foundation, we Unite for Good, and in doing so, we leave behind not only projects but a legacy of peace, trust, and Service Above Self.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

As President of the Rotary Club of San Juanico, it was an honor to witness the 2nd Victor A. Domingo Chess Classic come to life. This tournament is more than just a competition—it is a celebration of young minds, a platform for learning, and a living tribute to the legacy of the late Rotarian Victor A. Domingo. Seeing children and adults alike showcase their skills, focus, and sportsmanship was truly inspiring.

Equally meaningful was the opportunity to highlight Rotary's global initiative, End Polio Now. By combining education, advocacy, and community engagement with the excitement of chess, we were able to remind everyone that service and social responsibility can be integrated into everyday life—even through games we love. Each participant, parent, and supporter who joined this event helped raise awareness about the importance of eradicating polio and protecting future generations.

This event reaffirmed that when we nurture young minds and lead with service, we not only honor the past but also invest in a brighter, healthier, and more compassionate future. I am grateful to our partners, volunteers, and everyone who played a part in making this tournament a success. Together, we continue to inspire, educate, and serve—one chess move, one child, one community at a time.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON
