RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

This month's special issue of Rotary magazine is all about happiness, that most elemental of human yearnings. More than a feeling, though, this state of positive well-being, and the conditions necessary to create and sustain it, should be considered a universal right.

December also marks Rotary's Disease Prevention and Treatment Month, when we highlight our members' work to promote health and wellness, including mental wellness. Globally, nearly 1 in 7 people have a mental health disorder, according to a recent World Health Organization report. Yet only 9 percent of people with depression receive adequate treatment.

We are fortunate in Rotary to have a powerful way to support emotional well-being and happiness: friendship. The connections we build in Rotary can be a powerful force for change. I know this from personal experience.

When my fellow members first proposed that I become club president, I demurred. I had a stutter. I was terrified of speaking. But having club members who supported me and surrounded me with affection enabled me to face my fear, and I found a way to stand confidently before a crowd. Today, I regularly address audiences — some numbering in the thousands — in a language that is not native to me. The Rotary members in my life helped me create lasting change within myself.

That fellowship gives us the courage and means to create lasting change in the world as well, and mental health services are in desperate need of improvement. The WHO reports that governments on average devote only 2 percent of their health budgets to mental health, and only 11 percent of that funding reaches community-based services. In some countries, only one trained mental health professional is available for every 100,000 people. The WHO has called for strategic and urgent action to close the gap.

Rotary can answer that call by championing mental health awareness in our clubs, working with local health systems, funding training for community health workers, and supporting initiatives that bring care to places where none exists. Even small investments in mental health yield enormous returns in productivity, public health, and happiness.

While we are creating lasting change in the world, we cannot forget to take care of each other. Past RI President Gordon McInally wisely reminds us that we must go beyond asking, "How are you?" We owe it to each other to instead ask, "How are you really?" As we transition to a new year filled with new possibilities, let us Unite for Good — for healing, friendship, and access to happiness.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

Christmas is more than a season; it is a reminder of the joy of giving, the warmth of compassion, and the strength of community. Through Christmas Cheer at the Pope Francis Home for Orphans and the Elderly, the Rotary Club of San Juanico had the privilege of sharing hope, comfort, and love with those who need it most.

Seeing the smiles of the children and the gratitude in the eyes of the elderly reminded us why service above self is at the heart of everything we do. Beyond the gifts we shared—essentials that support their daily lives—this celebration was about connection, care, and showing that every person matters.

I am proud of our club members, partners, and volunteers who made this event possible. Together, we demonstrated that small acts of kindness can bring immense joy and dignity to others. May the spirit of giving we experienced today continue to inspire us throughout the year, as we strive to touch more lives and build stronger, more compassionate communities.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON

ROTARY AT WORK

A showcase of the Rotary Club of San Juanico's ongoing service projects, initiatives, and meaningful community engagements.

DECEMBER HIGHLIGHTS

December 17, 2025

RCSJ SPREADS LOVE AND HOPE THROUGH CHRISTMAS CHEER AT POPE FRANCIS HOME.

The Rotary Club of San Juanico shared the true spirit of the season through Christmas Cheer, a celebration of love, hope, and service at the Pope Francis Home for Orphans and the Elderly. In line with Rotary's motto of Service Above Self, the club brought joy and essential support to the home, touching the lives of both children and elderly residents.

RCSJ extended heartfelt gratitude to Fr. Thaddeus Kim for his selfless dedication in caring for the elders and orphans, particularly those who have lost their homes. The club also recognized the devoted sisters whose compassionate care supports thirteen orphaned children and ninety-eight elderly residents. Their unwavering commitment ensured that the spirit of the season reached every corner of the home.

As part of the celebration, the Rotary Club of San Juanico shared a variety of essential items to assist daily needs, including shampoo, assorted biscuits, Monde products, laundry supplies, diapers, tissue, powder, and mineral water. These simple gifts, delivered with love and respect, brought comfort, dignity, and joy to the children and elders alike.

Through this initiative, RCSJ not only provided material support but also strengthened the sense of community, compassion, and care that lies at the heart of its mission. Christmas Cheer at the Pope Francis Home reaffirmed the power of service to transform lives and spread hope during the holiday season.
