RI PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE

In a garage outside Salinas, California, young people who are learning to restore classic cars are doing more than developing a skill — they are reclaiming their futures. This training program provides mentorship and, for some, a path away from gang involvement toward meaningful employment. Graduates leave with certifications, practical experience, and hope.

This is what Rotary's Vocational Service Month celebrates each January — the power of bringing together people with unique skills to do good in the world. It reminds us that integrity isn't just about our actions matching our words. Integrity is in everything we do.

The California automotive program has been such a success because it was built on integrity. Members of the Rotary Club of Carmel-by-the-Sea didn't assume they knew what the community needed. They listened. They learned there was a shortage of skilled mechanics as well as a large number of young people lacking job training. They recognized that technical skills alone wouldn't be enough, so they partnered with Rancho Cielo, a nonprofit offering counseling and support services alongside vocational training.

That is The Four-Way Test in action. Those four simple questions help us not judge others but guide us toward genuine, effective service. Consider our commitment to ending polio. For nearly 40 years, we have promised the world's children we will eliminate this disease. Despite obstacles, we persist, and today we are closer to defeating the virus. Keeping this promise is the very definition of integrity.

The same integrity must drive our vocational service. With 1.2 billion young people in emerging economies reaching working age in the next decade and only 420 million jobs projected, we face a critical gap. Communities long excluded from economic opportunities need our support. But support doesn't mean imposing our will. It means listening to local needs, building partnerships, and designing projects that communities can sustain themselves. You have knowledge that can transform lives. Whatever your profession, your expertise combined with Rotary's values creates lasting change. The question isn't whether you have something to offer, it's how you'll use your skills to serve.

This January, I encourage you to ask how your club can address vocational needs in your community. What skills do your members have that could change someone's life? How can your networks open doors for young people? What partnerships can create sustainable jobs?

Let integrity guide you. Let The Four-Way Test light your path. And let the young people in California and the multitudes worldwide who need job skills remind you why vocational service matters. Let us celebrate putting our professional skills to work for humanity with integrity at the heart of everything we do.

FRANCESCO AREZZO

Rotary International President

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

The turnover of this two-classroom school building to Tagak Elementary School is more than the completion of a construction project—it is the realization of a shared vision for a better future. Education remains one of the most powerful tools we can provide to our children, and through this initiative, the Rotary Club of San Juanico reaffirms its commitment to investing in that future.

Every classroom built is a space where dreams take shape, where young minds are nurtured, and where opportunities begin. By creating a safe, inclusive, and conducive learning environment, we are not only supporting academic growth but also empowering students to believe in their potential.

This project reflects the power of collaboration—when Rotarians, educators, parents, and community leaders work hand in hand, we create meaningful and lasting change. I extend my deepest gratitude to everyone who supported and made this initiative possible.

May this new building stand as a symbol of hope, resilience, and the unwavering belief that every child deserves access to quality education. Together, we do not just build structures—we build futures.

WINSTON U. YAO CABIGON

President, RY 2025-2026

RCSJ TURNS OVER TWO-CLASSROOM SCHOOL BUILDING TO TAGAK ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

On January 26, 2025, the Rotary Club of San Juanico (RCSJ) proudly marked a significant milestone in its commitment to education by formally turning over a newly constructed one-storey school building with two classrooms to Tagak Elementary School in Carigara, Leyte.

This project stands as a testament to RCSJ's unwavering dedication to improving access to quality education and creating spaces where young learners can thrive. The new classrooms provide a safe, inclusive, and conducive learning environment, allowing students to focus, collaborate, and grow academically and personally. Teachers, in turn, are now better equipped to deliver lessons effectively, guide students with care, and foster meaningful engagement inside the classroom.

More than just a physical structure, the building represents opportunity and hope for the children of Tagak Elementary School. It addresses the need for adequate learning spaces and supports the school's mission to nurture responsible, capable, and confident learners. By investing in educational infrastructure, RCSJ reinforces the belief that strong foundations lead to stronger futures.

The turnover ceremony gathered school officials, teachers, parents, community leaders, and Rotarians—symbolizing unity and shared responsibility in shaping the next generation. Through collaboration and service, this initiative reflects Rotary's enduring commitment to community development and sustainable impact.

Together, we build more than classrooms—we build dreams, expand opportunities, and create a brighter future for our children. The Rotary Club of San Juanico remains steadfast in its mission to uplift communities through meaningful and transformative service.
